progressive, that is, pay which, subject to the good behaviour of an officer, rises, by periodical increments, from a minimum to a maximum.

NOTE.—[For brevity's sake, a Progressive pay is described by three groups of figures, namely, the minimum, the increment, and the maximum, thus Rs. 100—20—200 means a pay rising from Rs. 100 by a yearly increment of Rs. 20 to Rs. 200.]

44. Public Conveyance means a train, steamer, or other conveyance which plies regularly for the conveyance of passengers: the term includes such conveyances as the "express" tongas plying between Simla and Kalka, and palanquins plying in connection with the Pathankot-Dalhousie Dhuli dāk.

(c) The Local Government may by general or special order allow a student, stipendiary or otherwise, who is entitled to be appointed to the service of Government on passing through a course of training at a university, college or school, to draw pay from any date following that on which the final qualifying examination passed by him ends, as if he assumed charge of his duties on that date. It may also grant such a student leave for a period not exceeding five weeks, or in the case of Burma six weeks, from the date from which he is allowed to draw pay and count service.

(5th Edition, No. 59, dated 1-12-10)

seven weeks from the date on which the final examination is passed.

2. Stipendiary students of the Imperial Forest School, Dehra Dun, are allowed to draw from the date they pass their final qualifying examination at that institution, the pay of the grade to which on so passing they are appointed in the Forest Department.

Charge of Office.

53. Unless for special recorded reasons (which must be of a public nature) the authority under whose orders the transfer takes place permits or requires it to be made in any particular case elsewhere, or otherwise, the charge of an office must be made over at its head-quarters, both the relieving and the relieved officers being present.

1. Sanction to the delivery of charge away from head-quarters, but within the jurisdiction of the authority, may be granted by the Authority to the Government General and Res. erred and etc. own head-quarters with the relieving officer before the latter enters upon his local duties he may permit the transfer to be made at his own head-quarters

2. The condition imposed by this rule that both the relieving and the relieved officer must be present is not enforced in the case of officers who are permitted to combine vacation with long leave under Article 277, or in the case of District and Sessions or Divisional Judges who come within the provisions of Article 278, or the Judicial Commissioner of the North-West Frontier Province. In such cases the following procedure has been laid down:—

- (a) When vacation is prefixed to leave the outgoing officer will report, before leaving head-quarters, that he makes over charge with effect from the end of the vacation. The relieving officer will then take over charge at the end of the vacation in the ordinary way.

When vacation is affixed to leave the officer to be relieved will make over charge in the ordinary way before the vacation, the incoming officer on return at the end of the vacation taking over charge with effect from the beginning of the vacation.

NOTE.—Charge of an office may not, without the previous sanction of the Government of India, be relinquished or resumed by officers visiting Aden on duty preparatory to retirement from the service or while proceeding on or returning from leave.

54. As a general rule, and subject to any special orders to the contrary in particular cases, the head-quarters of an officer on the staff of a Government, as, for instance, a Secretary to a Government, the Surgeon-General with the Government of India, or a clerk in a Government Secretariat, are the head-quarters, for the time being, of the Government to which he is attached.

55. The head-quarters of any other officer are either the station which has been declared to be his head-quarters by the authority which appoints him, or, in the absence of such declaration, the station where the records of his office are kept.

Leaving Jurisdiction.

56. No officer (other than a police officer acting within his legal powers) is entitled to pay or allowances for any time he may spend beyond the limits of his charge without proper authority.

57. A Local Government may authorise any of its officers to proceed on duty to any part of British India, whether within or beyond its own jurisdiction, or to any Foreign State. Such officers shall be entitled to the same allowances as if they were acting in their own jurisdiction, that the or partiall or establishment which, though paid from Imperial Revenues, is under the administrative control of the Local Government.

58. A Controlling Officer (see Article 1159) may allow any officer subordinate to him to proceed on duty to any part of the territories of his Local Government or to a district or Foreign State or Settlement adjoining the jurisdiction of the Controlling Officer and to draw travelling allowance under rule.

59. An Accountant-General may, under the orders of a Local Government, pass pay and allowances (according to rule) to the head of an Administration for any period during which he may be absent from his jurisdiction and to any member of his personal or Secretariat staff. Such an order is, with reference to the Statute 3 and 4 Will. IV, Cap. 85, s. 79, a sufficient authority to the Accountant-General for assuming that the absence is on the known actual service of the Government.

Promotion during Leave.

60. An officer on Long Leave has no claim to substantive promotions. Such promotion may, however, be given, but, except in the case provided for in the Note under Article 585 (a), the promotion has effect only from the date on which the officer returns to duty.

If an officer, while absent on Short Leave during which the amount of his leave allowances depends upon the substantive or officiating appointment which he would hold if present on duty, obtains promotion, substantive or officiating, or an increase of pay or acting allowance which involves no change in, or addition to, his duties or responsibilities, the promotion or increase has effect at once.

Personal and Local Allowances.

61. Unless in any case it is specially ordered otherwise, a personal allowance should be reduced by any amount by which the recipient's pay or salary may be increased, and should cease as soon as his pay or salary is increased by an amount equal to his personal allowance.

62. So much of a local allowance as is not paid to a substitute may be drawn by an officer absent from his office through deputation on special duty for a period not exceeding one month. If the absence exceeds a month, an officer is not entitled to draw his local allowance for any part of the absence. This rule applies also to an officer in receipt of presidency allowance at a Presidency town who is absent from the Presidency town on duty connected with his office; but an officer in receipt of house-rent at a Presidency town may, during absence from the Presidency town, whether on other duty or on duty connected with his office, continue to draw his house-rent, provided the term of his absence does not exceed two months, exclusive of the months of departure and return; if the absence exceeds this term, the house-rent is not admissible for any part of the absence. A claim to house-rent under this Article must be supported by a certificate by the officer that his previous rate of expenditure for a house at the Presidency town continued during his absence.

3 The rule in this Article does not apply to the Presidency allowances drawn by officers and Accountants of the Accounts Branch of the Public Works Department when absent from the Presidency town on inspection duty. In their case Presidency allowance may be drawn irrespective of whether the period of absence is under or over a month.

4. Members of the Persian Section, Indo-European Telegraph Department, who receive house-rent in Persia, may draw their house-rent for periods of absence on deputation from their station not exceeding two months, on furnishing a certificate that they have actually paid full rent during their absence, and a member in receipt of house-rent may, when transferred to another station, draw the rent for one month from date of making over charge of his duties, provided that he pays the rent, and that the officer who succeeds him does not also draw house-rent for the same station in respect of the same period.

Salaries of Natives of India.

63. The salary of a Native of India appointed to an office which has been usually filled by a member of the Indian Civil Service, or of the Staff Corps, or by nomination in England, or otherwise with the specific approval of the Secretary of State, is, in the absence of special orders to the contrary, two-thirds of that assigned to the European.

NOTE 1.—In the case of appointments usually filled by members of the Indian Civil Service, the two-thirds is more accurately described as 64 per cent., thus—

	Rs.
Full salary	100
Deduct four per cent. for annuity—net salary	96
Two-thirds of net salary	64

NOTE 2.—[Any local allowance attached to an appointment of the class referred to in this Article should also be reduced to two-thirds when the appointment is held by a Native of India.]

Advances and their Recovery.

64. (a) An advance may be made to any public officer in the Civil Department—

- (i) on arrival in India on first appointment, of an amount not exceeding two months' pay less the amount of any advance made in England;
- (ii) on return from long leave or special duty out of India, not exceeding two months' pay or Rs. 1,000 whichever is less, in addition to any advance made by the Secretary of State in England.

(b) The advance may be drawn under the orders of the Audit Officer from any treasury in India to be specified in such orders.

of financial transactions between the Imperial and Indian Governments for the year in which the advance was made.

Transfer on Duty.

67. (a) No officer (unless he has been newly appointed to the service of Government) can begin to draw any pay or allowances at any treasury India, or at the Home treasury of the Government of India, without producing a last-pay certificate from the treasury where his pay or allowances were last disbursed, or from the Accountant-General within whose jurisdiction this treasury is, or in the case of a Nagazitter officer from the head of the revenue circle where he was last employed.

(b) The rules regarding the issue of last-pay certificates in connection with "transfer on duty" are laid down in Appendix 3.

68. A salary or establishment bill on account of an officer, of whatever rank, required to accompany the head-quarters of a Government to a hill station, signed or countersigned by a gazetted officer, is exempted from the operation of the preceding Article.

Chapter IV.—Additions to Salary and Deputations.

70. The sanction of the Secretary of State is required to any increase which would have the effect of—

- (1) raising the pay of an appointment which would ordinarily be held by a gazetted Civil officer recruited in England ;

Now transferred to it in Chapter II of the "Additions to Salary and Deputations" empowered to grant local tutious advice and assistance of officers of the Public Works Department, and of all Government Medical, Sanitary and Educational officers whenever these can, in the opinion of the Local Government, be given without detriment to the public service. It will rest with the Local Government in each case to decide whether this last condition is fulfilled, and to indicate in each instance to what officer application for advice or assistance should be made. When a Municipality has its own Engineer or Manager, it will probably only desire to consult some superior officer of the Public Works or other Department. In other cases more direct supervision and assistance may be considered desirable, and should be freely given without charge if the Local Government decide that such supervision and assistance can be given without detriment to the public service.

(c) This rule does not, however, affect such officers as Directors of a Railway Company, Members of a Town Council or a Port Trust, Government Director of the Darjeeling Railway, Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Rangoon Port Trust, who are entitled under any special or local law to receive fees or other remuneration for attendance at meetings of Directors or Commissioners, etc., for the transaction of business.

72. (a) An honorarium may be granted to an officer from General Revenues, or from Local Funds when the head of his department certifies that the *work is special and outside the ordinary course of the officer's duties, and that it does not interfere with the discharge of those duties.

(b) The powers of sanction of the several authorities in such cases are as follows :—

Up to Rs. 100, by the Head of the Department.

” ” 500, by the Local Government.

” ” 1,000, by the Government of India.

Above ” 1,000, the sanction of the Secretary of State is required :

Provided that the limit of sanction when the charge falls on Imperial Funds in the case of a Local Government, shall be Rs. 200 in each case.

(c) If it is proposed to grant to any officer for special work of any description a bonus or honorarium which will require the sanction of the Government of India or the Secretary of State, as the case may be, the consent of the Government of India in the Finance Department must be obtained to the payment of a specific sum before the work is begun.

(d) Remuneration shall not be given under this rule for superintending an examination rendered compulsory on persons belonging to the public service, or any other examination the conduct of which comes within the ordinary duties of the officer or officers conducting them. But remuneration may be granted to officers superintending an examination of candidates for admission to the public service, or any other examination the conduct of which is declared by the Local Government not to come within the ordinary duties of the officer or officers conducting them. If fees are levied from the candidate appearing at an examination, and the amount of such fees is sufficient to cover the honoraria of the examiners, the reference, required by clause (b) to the Government of India or the Secretary of State in certain cases shall not be necessary.

NOTE.—[A Military officer in Civil employ, or a Civil officer, who may be appointed President of a Committee for the examination of Military officers in Hindustani or Persian shall be entitled to the same fees as are admissible under the Army Regulations to Military officers for the performance of similar duties.]

73. Any servant of Government is eligible to receive without special permission (a) the premium awarded for an essay or plan in public competition, or (b) any reward offered for the arrest of a criminal or for information or special services in connection with the administration of justice; and also any reward payable in accordance with the provisions of any Act or Regulation or rules framed under such enactments.

74. (a) Any officer may receive a fee from a private person or private body, or a public body whose funds are not administered by the Government for work done for it: provided—

(1) he has undertaken the work with the knowledge and sanction in writing of the Head of his Department;

- (2) that the Head of the Department certifies that it can be carried out without detriment to his official duties; and
- (3) that the acceptance of a fee and the amount of the fee are approved by the authority having under clause (c) power to sanction its acceptance.

(b) When the work undertaken for a private body is such that it must be done during the time which would otherwise be employed in the service of the Government, the fee should be credited to Government; but the authority having power under clause (c) may grant to the officer concerned the whole or such portion of the fee realised as it may deem suitable.

(c) The powers of sanction of the several authorities in the case of each fee under clauses (a) and (b) are as follow:—

Up to Rs. 100, the Head of the Department.

„ Rs. 500, the Local Government.

Above Rs. 500, in the case of fees for conducting University examinations, the Local Government and in other cases, the Government of India in the Administrative Department concerned.

NOTE—[This rule applies to educational officers who are allowed to accept fees for private tuition work. The amounts specified above are the limits up to which fees may in such cases be allowed, for a scholastic term or for a long vacation, by the sanctioning authorities concerned.]

(d) This rule does not apply to medical officers who are allowed to accept fees from private persons for professional attendance, subject only to the orders contained in the Resolution of the Government of India in the Home Department, No. 813, dated 18th December 1888.

(e) The Government of Bengal, for reasons which must be recorded, may sanction the acceptance by a pilot or leadsman apprentice of a reward, not exceeding Rs. 500, where special and exceptional services are rendered, whether to the ship of which he is in charge, or to another vessel. But this rule does not authorize a pilot or leadsman apprentice to enter into a bargain or arrangement, stipulating that he shall receive an extra fee in consideration of rendering extra services.

Permanent Appointments.

75. The previous sanction of the Secretary of State is required—

- (1) to the creation of any new permanent appointment which would ordinarily be held by a gazetted Civil officer recruited in England; and
- (2) to the creation of a permanent appointment, not of the class specified in (1), of which the salary (as defined in Article 70) exceeds Rs. 500 a month.

If an emergency should arise demanding the immediate creation of such an appointment, it may be made provisionally; but in such case it must be reported to the Secretary of State, no expectation being held out to the individual appointed to it which would warrant a claim for compensation in the event of the appointment not being finally sanctioned.

76. As regards Provincial charges, the limits of authority of Local Governments in respect to permanent appointments are as follows:—

Without the authority of the Government of India—

- (i) no appointment may be created with a pay of more than Rs. 250 a month; and no addition may be made to the pay and allowances of any officer if they exceed, or would, after the addition, exceed, Rs. 250 a month;
- (ii) no appointment, of which the pay and allowances are more than Rs. 250 a month, may be abolished; and the pay and allowance
- (iii) shed; and or redr
- (iv) no addition may be made to the pay or allowances of any dual officer, or class of officers, that may lead to increase emoluments of any public servants doing duty in the province whose pay and allowances are not charged under of the transferred heads of service. The Government of IL reserves the right to forbid alterations in rate of pay a allowances which, in its opinion, would produce inconvenient in other provinces.

Temporary Appointments and Deputations.

77. An officer is said to be on deputation when he is detached on special temporary duty for the performance of which there is no permanently or temporarily sanctioned appointment. A temporary appointment is an appointment carrying a definite rate of pay sanctioned for a limited time.

77A. Temporary appointments and deputations may be made under the following rules which are subject to the general condition that any temporary appointment or deputation on a salary exceeding Rs. 50,000 a year requires the previous sanction of the Secretary of State, unless the officer to be appointed or deputed has a lien on an appointment carrying a salary of equal or higher value, fixed by Statute.

78. Temporary appointments and deputations, the cost of which is wholly or partly Provincial, may be sanctioned by Local Governments without reference to the Government of India—

- (a) for any specified period, if the salary or salary and deputation allowance do not exceed Rs. 250 a month.
- (b) for not more than six months, if the salary or salary and deputation allowance exceed Rs. 250 a month;

In the Public Works Department, temporary appointments on pay not exceeding Rs. 250 a month, the cost of which is Imperial, may be sanctioned by a Local Government.

78A. When a temporary appointment is filled by an officer in the service of Government, its pay should be fixed—

- (i) if it is of like character to an existing permanent appointment, at an amount equal to the salary which the officer would draw if he were acting in the corresponding permanent appointment or, if the appointment is a temporary addition to a graded scale, the salary which he would draw if acting in the lowest grade of such scale.

- (ii) if it is not of like character to an existing appointment, at an amount which does not exceed the pay and deputation allowance which the officer would draw if he were placed on deputation under Article 81.

In the case of temporary appointments on pay not exceeding Rs. 250 a month, these restrictions may be dispensed with at the discretion of the Local Government, provided that no special orders of the Government of India which may be applicable to the case are thereby infringed.

79. Temporary appointments may be sanctioned by the Government of India—

- (a) for any specified period, if the salary or salary and deputation allowance do not exceed Rs. 500 a month; and
(b) for not more than two years, if the salary or salary and deputation allowance exceed Rs. 500 a month.

80. The sanction of the Secretary of State, though not necessarily the previous sanction, is required to any temporary appointment or deputation in which the salary or salary and deputation allowance exceed Rs. 500 a month, and which is expected to last or does last for more than two years.

NOTE.—[In the case of temporary appointments or deputations connected with plague the limit of salary (including deputation allowance) in this Article is Rs. 1,000 a month. Half-yearly statements of any temporary appointments or deputations which, but for this limit, could not have been sanctioned by the Government of India are sent to the Secretary of State for information.]

81. An officer deputed on special duty may be allowed to draw the pay or salary which he is drawing at the time of his deputation, or which he would have drawn from time to time if he had not been so deputed; provided that an officer who while on deputation, is nominated to an appointment outside the regular line, shall not be admitted to the pay or salary of that appointment until he joins it. If the special duty involves a decided increase of work or responsibility in comparison with the duties of his regular appointment, or requires a change of station, the officer may, in addition, be allowed to draw a deputation allowance which may not, except in special cases and with the special sanction of the Government of India, exceed one-fifth of salary, or Rs. 10 a day, whichever is less.

NOTE 1.—[The following are instances of appointments considered to be outside the regular line for the purposes of this rule:—

Members of the Boards of Revenue and Financial Commissioners.
Judges of High Courts and Chief Courts and Judicial Commissioners.
Heads of Departments including Chief Conservators of Forests, Chief Engineers and the Accountant General, Public Works Department.

Private Secretary to a Lieutenant-Governor.

83. Only an officer already in the service of Government can be appointed to be a Private Secretary to a Lieutenant-Governor. The pay and staff pay of a Military officer appointed from Military employ are laid down in the Army Regulations. A Military officer in Civil employ, a member of the Indian Civil Service or other officer appointed to be Private Secretary from Civil employ is, while so employed, entitled to a local allowance of Rs. 350 a month in addition to the salary to which he would, but for his appointment as Private Secretary, be entitled—provided that (1) the officer's total emoluments (including the allowance of Rs. 350) shall in no case exceed Rs. 1,250 a month plus exchange compensation allowance; (2) no extra expenditure shall be caused to Government beyond the local allowance of Rs. 350 per mensem and the grade place, substantive or officiating, held by the officer on the establishment to which he is attached shall not be filled up, and (3) no Military officer in Civil employ, or member of the Indian Civil Service may be employed as Private Secretary whose substantive appointment in the regular line is above the grade of a Joint Magistrate or Assistant Commissioner.

Famine Duty.

84. The following allowances in addition to salary are granted to an officer deputed to Famine work in a Presidency or Province other than that in which he is serving, besides the usual travelling allowances both to and from the scene of his labours and while there:—

	Rs a month

84A. Ordinarily the sanction of the Secretary of State is required to any deputation to, or detention on duty in a country outside India. In the case, however, of a deputation to, or detention in, Ceylon or other British Possessions in Asia for a period not exceeding six months, the sanction of the Government of India is sufficient.

The full pay of an officer thus appointed substantively for a time may, in like manner and upon the same condition, be given to a substitute similarly appointed. The status of an officer appointed substantively pro tempore under this Article is that of an acting officer, and if he is appointed to officiate in a higher appointment, his salary is reckoned upon his substantive pay proper and not upon the pay of the appointment he held substantively pro tempore.

NOTE 2.—[Full pay is not to be drawn under Articles 89 and 90 as a matter of course, or unless the officer claiming it has been formerly appointed "provisionally" or "substantively pro tempore" by competent authority.]

91. An officer appointed to act in another office is not an absentee within the meaning of Article 90 unless the full pay of that office is available and he is appointed to it substantively pro tempore.

NOTE.—[Substantive pro tempore promotions may, at the discretion of the Local Government, be made in the following special cases—or other officers to act as Extra Assistant Commissioners.

92. An absentee who receives absentee allowances draws, within the meaning of Article 90, "part of the pay of his appointment;" and that Article is not to be construed as conflicting with Article 214.

NOTE.—[The subsistence allowance of a member of the Indian Civil Service, a Statutory Civil Servant or a Military officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, and the English furlough pay of a Military officer subject to the Military Leave Rules, are not, for the purposes of this rule, treated as a part of the pay of an absentee's appointment.]

93. A substantive pro tempore appointment may be made under Article 90 in the place of a Military officer subject to the Military Leave Rules whose appointment would be forfeited under Military Furlough Rules but for the operation of Rule II of the Military Furlough Regulations of 1868.

Charge Allowances.

94. An officer appointed to be in charge of the current duties of an office independently, without retaining charge of his own office, is entitled to a charge allowance of three-quarters of the acting allowance which would be admissible to him if he were appointed to officiate in the office. An officer cannot be thus appointed to be in charge of a "grade."

NOTE.—[The rules laid down in Articles 161 and 166 apply here also.]

95. The Local Government may, if it thinks fit, assign to the officer a charge allowance of less than the amount thus admissible, and, on the other hand, if it thinks this amount too small, may grant him, on special recorded reasons, the full acting allowance, excepting that clauses (i) and (ii) of Article 105 shall not apply to such an officer. Charge allowance under this Article must never exceed what an officer would draw as acting allowance if appointed to officiate in the appointment.

NOTE.—[The rules laid down in Articles 164 and 166 apply here also]

1. The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to the Head of a Department or Commissioner of a Division.

Section II.—Maximum and Minimum Salaries.

96. The maximum salary of an officiating officer is the pay of the appointment, and the minimum salary half the pay of the appointment.

97. Officers appointed, officiating or substantively, to the appointments specified in Appendix 4 are entitled to special minimum salaries as shown therein.

Section III.—Privilege Leave Vacancies.

98. As a general rule, the duties of an officer absent on Privilege leave taken separately and not combined with other leave under Article 233 shall be discharged by another officer in the same station or district. Only in exceptional cases where there is absolutely no officer available on the spot, can the transfer of an officer from another station or district to act in consequence of the absence of an officer on Privilege leave be allowed. In the case of appointments held by members of the Indian Civil Service or a Commission, if a member of that Service or Commission is not available on the spot, a Provincial Service officer should be placed in charge of the vacant appointment.

Grades of a Class.

Officer without a Substantive Appointment.

107. An officer without a substantive appointment is entitled to subsistence allowance with an acting allowance of half the pay of the appointment in which he officiates.

Subsistence Allowance.

108. (a) The subsistence allowance of a member of the Indian Civil Service and of a Military officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, is as follows :—

		Rs.
For an officer of not more than eight years'	actual residence in India	250 a month.

Section II.—Military Officers.

109. The rules in this Section apply to Military officers serving in Civil Departments except those—

(i) In the Public Works, Railway and Telegraph Departments (see Section III).

(ii) In the Survey of India (see Section IV).

NOTE.—[If a Military officer officiating in a Military appointment has a substantive appointment in the Civil Department, he draws in the Military Department the allowances to which he would have been entitled under Military Rules had his substantive appointment been an appointment in the Military Department.]

110. A Military officer employed in the Army Secretariat of the Government of India, though drawing pay in the Civil Department, is not subject to these Regulations.

Appointments on Consolidated Pay.

111. An officer officiating in an appointment of which the pay is consolidated may be—

Case 1.—An officer without a substantive appointment.

Case 2.—An officer having a substantive appointment the pay of which is consolidated.

An appointment of which the pay is fixed upon the assumption that it will be held by a Civil officer is treated, for the purposes of this Article, as if the Appointments on Staff Salary.

114. An officer officiating in an appointment of which the pay includes a Staff Salary may be—

Case 1.—An officer without a substantive appointment.

Case 2.—An officer having a substantive appointment the pay of which is consolidated.

Case 3.—An officer having a substantive appointment the pay of which includes a Staff Salary.

115. In all cases the salaries are calculated as follows, any excess of the consolidated pay of the substantive appointment in Case 2, in Article 114, over the Military pay and allowances or the Staff Corps pay of the officer being treated as a Staff Salary:—

(a) For an officer officiating for an absentee who is subject to the Rules of 1868, the Staff Corps Leave Rules, or the Civil Leave Rules—

An officiating officer will draw half the Staff Salary of his substantive appointment and half the Staff Salary of his substantive appointment if he have one in addition to the Staff Salary. Provided that the whole Staff Salary thus drawn shall not be less than Rs. 100 a month, unless the full Staff Salary of the post in which he is officiating is less than that sum. If the full Staff Salary is available, he may draw the whole of it, but in such case he can draw no portion of the Staff Salary of his substantive appointment.

NOTE.—[The proviso that the whole Staff Salary shall not be less than Rs. 100 is limited by the rule that this minimum is allowed only to an officer acting in the actual appointment held by the absentee. But this limitation does not apply to Medical officers officiating as Civil Surgeons.]

(b) For an officer officiating for an absentee who is subject to the rule of 1875—

The rules are those which apply to an absentee under other Leave Rules, except that an officer subject to the Rules of 1875 varies from one appointment to another during Furlough, the salary of the acting officer would likewise vary, while the Furlough allowance of an officer subject to other Leave Rules is unaffected by such transfer.

Medical Appointments.

116. As an exception to Articles 112 and 113 the allowances of a Commissioned Medical Officer, whether he is under Civil or Military Leave Rules, officiating in an appointment reserved exclusively for officers of that class, shall be regulated by Articles 114 and 115, on the assumption that the pay of the appointment includes a Staff Salary equal to the difference between the officiating officer's grade pay and the consolidated pay he would receive if he held the appointment substantively.

NOTE.—[When a Royal Engineer officer whose substantive appointment carries net Military pay plus consolidated pay, acts in an appointment carrying consolidated pay only without net Military pay, then in determining his salary the net Military pay of his substantive appointment is added to the salary calculated under the rules on the consolidated pay of the two appointments.]

123. When any officer who can be substantively appointed to the Engineer Branch of the Public Works or Railway Department, or the Superior Establishment of the Indian Telegraph Department, only under the rules, and on the rates of pay prescribed for the Provincial Services, is appointed to officiate in, or hold charge of, an appointment graded in those Services, his acting or charge allowance will be calculated on the rates of pay prescribed for the Provincial Service and in accordance with the rules contained in these Regulations for the grant of such allowance.

Special Allowances.

124 In the following cases special allowances may be granted in addition to pay by the Local Government or, if the officer is not serving under any Local Government, by the Government of India.

NOTE.—[The term Local Government as used here includes only the Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, the United Provinces, the Punjab and Burma.]

(a) To a subordinate officiating as an Executive Engineer—Rs. 100, provided that his salary must not exceed the pay of an Executive Engineer of the 3rd grade

(b) To a Subordinate officiating as an Assistant Engineer—Rs. 50. This allowance is not admissible on the mere circumstance of the Subordinate holding a charge formerly held by an Assistant, but only when the charge involves duties and responsibilities which, in character or extent, are such as are not usually imposed on subordinate officers.

When a Subordinate officer of the Indian Service is appointed to the Public Works or Railway Department, his acting or charge allowance will be calculated on the rates of pay of the Indian Service.

(c) To an Accountant officiating, with the sanction of the Government of India, for an Examiner or Deputy Examiner—Rs. 100, provided that, when officiating for a Deputy Examiner, his salary must not exceed the pay of a Deputy Examiner, second grade, but this proviso shall not operate so as to reduce the sum of the pay and allowances which, but for this promotion, would have been drawn.

(d) Acting allowance will not, as a rule, be granted to an Accountant officiating as Assistant Examiner. If by a special order of the Government of India it is granted, it will not exceed Rs. 50.

(e) To an officer of the Subordinate Revenue Establishment of State Railways acting in an office ordinarily held by an officer of the Superior Revenue Establishment—Rs. 75, provided that the charge involves duties and responsibilities which in character and extent are such as are not ordinarily imposed on subordinate officers.

128. An officer of the Royal Engineers holding substantively an appointment not above the rank of Superintendent, second grade, is entitled to his net Military pay; but he ceases to draw it while officiating in an appointment higher than Superintendent, second grade.

129. An officer officiating in the grade immediately above his own is entitled to the pay of that grade: Provided that the salary of an officer officiating in any grade shall not be greater than that which would be admissible under Article 130 if he officiated in the next higher grade.

130. An officer officiating in a grade higher than that immediately above his own is entitled to an acting allowance, in addition to his pay, of one-fifth of the pay of the grade in which he officiates

131. The appointments in the Administrative Branch are not graded. Any officer officiating in an Administrative appointment is entitled to an acting allowance of one-fifth of the pay of the appointment.

132. An officer without a substantive appointment is entitled to an acting allowance, in addition to his Military pay (if any), of half the pay of the grade in which he officiates.

Section V.—Geological Survey.

133. (a) A graded officer of the Geological Survey Department who joined the Department on or before the 31st December 1893, counts all service on the maximum pay of a grade towards increments in the pay or salary of the next higher grade. When promoted substantively, he may draw the pay of the higher grade with increments earned by service on the maximum pay of the lower grade; and when promoted temporarily, he may similarly draw a salary equal to the pay he would have received if his promotion were substantive.

(b) The pay on permanent promotion and the salary on temporary promotion from grade to grade of a graded officer of the Geological Survey Department who joined the Department after the 31st December 1893, are regulated by the ordinary rules in these Regulations.

137. An officiating officer in any case not provided for by the preceding Articles is entitled to an acting allowance of one-fifth of the pay of the grade in which he officiates.

Section VII.—Other Officers.

138. The following rules are applicable to officers in Civil employ whose cases are not provided for in Sections I to VI of this Chapter, or by rules peculiar to the services concerned, such as—

- (2) Judges of the High Courts (see Chapter XXIII).
- (3) Ecclesiastical Officers (see Chapter XXVII).
- (4) Law Officers (see Chapter XXXI).

139. An officer of the Provincial or Subordinate Educational Service appointed by the Local Government to officiate in a temporary vacancy in a post specifically reserved for, or usually filled by, officers of the Indian or Provincial Educational Service receives an allowance as follows—

A member of the lower Subordinate Educational Service or an officer on salary, outside the grades, when officiating in temporary vacancies in the Subordinate Educational Service, is entitled to an acting allowance at the rate of one-fifth of the average pay of the grades of the latter service subject to the limit of the maximum salary laid down in Article 141.

Chapter VII.—Regulation of Progressive Salaries.

149. Except under special orders to the contrary, a Progressive pay shall not rise from the minimum to the maximum by less than five equal yearly increments.

PART II

Calculation of Value.

150. A Progressive pay is, on an average, equivalent to a fixed pay, the amount of which lies between the minimum and maximum of the Progressive pay. The exact amount of this equivalent varies according to the conditions of each appointment; but in practice, it is assumed that a Progressive pay rising to its maximum by five equal yearly increments, is equivalent to a fixed pay equal to the minimum plus two-thirds, or if the appointment is a ministerial appointment, plus three-fourths, of the difference between the minimum and the maximum.

NOTE.—[This Article does not fix the pay of a Progressive appointment, but only indicates the mode of rating the value of such an appointment for financial purposes.]

Accrual of Increment.

151. An increment accrues from the beginning of the calendar month following that in which it is earned, any intermediate broken period being neglected.

Exception (1).—An officer appointed to the service from and after the 1st January 1900, in whose case an increment accrues from the day following that in which it is earned.

good. When an increment is withheld, the period for which it is withheld is at the discretion of the authority having power to withhold, who will also decide whether the postponement is or is not to have the effect of similarly postponing future increments. The authority having power to withhold is, in the case of ministerial and menial officers, the head of the office, and in the case of other officers, the Local Government, which may delegate the power to heads of departments or other supervising officers.

153. (a) A proposal to grant an increment of Progressive pay in advance of the due date should always be scrutinised with special jealousy: it is contrary to the principle of Progressive pay to grant an increment before it is due, and such a grant should not be recommended or allowed, excepting under circumstances which would justify a personal allowance to an officer whose pay is fixed,—that is to say, seldom if ever.

(b) If the value of the appointment calculated under Article 150 is such that the addition of a premature increment would raise it above Rs. 9,000 a year, such premature increment cannot be granted without the sanction of the Secretary of State.

154. An officer reduced to a lower grade or appointment on account of misconduct or inefficiency cannot without the sanction of the authority by whom he is reinstated or promoted, count for increments previous service in the grade or appointment from which he was reduced.

Acting Allowances.

155. In the case of progressive appointments, acting allowances are fixed as follows:—

(a) An officer whose substantive pay is progressive, and who acts in an office of which the pay is fixed. In this case the officer's acting allowance—is calculated as if his substantive pay were a fixed one, equal to the amount at which from time to time it stands.

(b) An officer whose substantive pay is fixed, and who acts in an office of which the pay is progressive. In this case the officer's acting allowance is calculated upon the pay to which he would from time to time have risen if he had held the officiating appointment substantively.

(c) An officer whose substantive pay is progressive, and who acts in an office of which the pay is progressive. In this case the officer draws—

- (i) His substantive pay, with the increments thereof as they fall due.

Next year he gets pay Rs. 180 + acting allowance Rs. 40 = total Rs. 220. But this is limited for a year to Rs. 208.

Example (b)—A member of the Indian Civil Service, substantively in the Rs. 1,200 stage of an appointment of which the pay is Rs. 1,000—50—1,250, acts in an appointment of Rs. 1,500—50—1,750. His initial salary is—

Pay	Ra. 1,200	} Limited for the first year to Rs. 1,500.
Acting allowance (§ Rs. 1,500—1,000)	333½
Total	1,533½

In future years he receives—

	Ra.	} Limited to Rs. 1,550
Second year—
Pay	1,250
Acting allowance	333½
Total	1,583½

Hereafter he gets Rs. 1,583½, which is the limit of salary in this case.

Initial Pay.

156. An officer who is appointed substantively to an appointment of progressive pay begins with the minimum pay of the appointment:—

- (a) if prior to his appointment he holds no substantive appointment under Government, or
 (b) if he is transferred thereto from an appointment in which he is drawing pay not in excess of the minimum pay of the new appointment, and if he has not already officiated in the latter.

157. If the officer is transferred to the new appointment from an appointment in which he was drawing pay not in excess of the minimum of the new appointment, but has officiated already therein, his pay is fixed as follows :—

- (a) If the salary which he drew when last officiating is equal to one of the stages of the pay of the appointment, his pay shall be fixed at that stage, and he shall count in that stage the time during which he has been drawing the said salary.
- (o) If the salary which he drew when last officiating is intermediate between two stages, his pay shall be fixed at that amount for half the period during which an increment is earned, and on the first day of the month thereafter succeeding he shall be eligible for the next higher stage of the progressive pay.

January, and then rise to Rs. 230.

NOTE—[Any period for which an officer has held the progressive appointment as substantive pro tempore may be counted as officiating service for the purposes of this Article]

157A. If the officer is transferred to the new appointment from an appointment in which he was drawing pay in excess of the minimum, then whether he has officiated in the appointment already or not, his pay is fixed as follows :—

- (a) If his pay immediately prior to the transfer is equal to any stage of the new appointment, he shall draw the pay of that stage; and after the expiry of the period during which an increment is earned he shall draw the pay of the next higher stage, and so on.
- (b) If his pay immediately prior to the transfer is intermediate between any two stages of the new appointment, he shall draw the pay of the next lower stage, plus a personal allowance equal to the difference between the pay of that stage and his former pay; and after the expiry of the period in which an increment is earned he shall draw the pay of the next higher stage (losing the personal allowance) and so on.

157B. (a) When, however, the conditions of an officer's service are such that he is liable to be transferred in the same Department between appointments of which the pay and increments are identical, his service will, in the case of such a transfer, count for increments as if he had not been transferred.

(b) The authority which orders the transfer of an officer, as a penalty, from a higher to a lower appointment, may allow him to draw any salary, not exceeding the maximum of the lower appointment, as it may think proper.

158. The incumbent of an appointment the pay of which is changed shall be treated as if he were transferred to a new appointment on the new pay: Provided that, if he prefers to retain his old pay, the Local Government or, in the case of a ministerial or menial officer, the Head of the Office may allow him to do so, postponing the change of the pay of the appointment till he vacates office.

Time spent on Leave and under Suspension.

159. Time spent on leave with allowances counts towards increments in the same manner as if during it the officer had actually held or officiated in (as the case may be) the appointment on which he has a lien.

NOTE.—[The last sentence of Article 31 must not be held to conflict with this Article. Subject always to the provisions of Article 60, the phrase "the appointment on which he has a lien" means the appointment which the officer relinquished when he proceeded on leave, and does not refer to an appointment to which an officer has been nominated during his absence on leave.]

160. Time passed under suspension does not count towards increments if the suspension is a penalty for misconduct; but an officer, in directing reinstatement of a person who has been suspended, may declare that the time shall count.

Officers under Training.

160A. A Local Government may at its discretion decide, in the case of an officer who is selected to undergo a course of training in a school, college, or other institution, whether the time spent in training shall count as service qualifying for increments of pay.

Officers on a Time-scale of Pay.

160B. (a) Leave without allowances taken by an officer prior to his admission to a time-scale of pay, and overstayals of privilege leave to the extent of one week in similar circumstances, count for increments under the time-scale.

(b) Leave without allowances taken by an officer while he is on a time-scale of pay, or overstayals of privilege leave do not count towards increments; but Local Governments and Departments of the Government of India which have the powers of Local Governments, may exempt an officer from the operation of the rule, on proof being furnished to them that the leave was taken on account of illness or other cause beyond the officer's control.

Chapter VIII.—Combination of Appointments and Salaries.

Charge of Current Duties.

161. An officer appointed to be in charge of the current duties of an office in addition to his own duties, may, if the charge, in the opinion of the Local Government, entails a substantial increase of responsibility and some additional work, be granted a charge allowance, to be fixed by the Local Government, not exceeding one-tenth of the pay of the office. If the office is open to, and may in practice be held by, a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military officer, the allowance shall not be less than Rs. 100.

162. The salary of an officer appointed to be in charge of the current duties of an additional office shall never exceed the salary which he would receive for officiating in the office: one effect of this rule is that, unless the Local Government makes the declaration indicated in Rule 1 under Article 168, an officer is not entitled to any allowance for taking charge of an office the pay of which is not more than that of his own substantive office.

163. The amount of "charge allowance" has been fixed in the cases shown in Appendix G

164. (a) No allowance is admissible under Article 161 unless the incumbent has actually given over charge of the office under the orders of competent authority, and is absent on leave or deputation or is under suspension. For instance, no allowance is admissible to a subordinate officer empowered to dispose of routine business while his superior is on tour.

(b) But in the Northern India Salt Revenue Department, charge allowance is granted to an officer placed in charge of the current duties of an Assistant Commissioner's office during the absence of the incumbent on tour.

165. No allowance is admissible to a member of the Indian Civil Service, or to any officer holding an appointment ordinarily held by a member of that service, or to a Superintendent of a Central Jail for the executive charge, either permanently or temporarily, of a District Jail. Any other person, whether he does or does not hold any office under Government, if placed in executive charge of a District Jail, is entitled to a Local Allowance on the following scale:—

1st Class Jail	Rs	150	a month.
2nd "	"	"	100	"
3rd "	"	"	75	"
4th "	"	"	50	"

166. An officer placed in charge of the current duties of an office is not entitled to any Local Allowances attached to the office, except under the special orders of the Local Government. (See also Article 1010.)

NOTE.—[The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to the Head of a Department or Commissioner of a Division.]

Permanent Arrangements.

167. A Local Government may appoint an officer to hold permanently two or more appointments at the same time if their aggregate pay does not exceed Rs. 250 a month. The salary of an officer appointed to officiate in two or more appointments, which under due sanction have been combined as a single charge, is calculated upon the pay fixed for the combined appointment, Article 168 being inoperative in such a case.

Temporary Arrangements.

168. A Local Government may, without the sanction of the Government of India, appoint one officer to hold substantively, as a temporary measure, or to officiate in, two or more independent appointments at one time. In such case, the emoluments are regulated as follows:—

- (i) He draws the highest salary to which he would be entitled if he held or, as the case may be, officiated in, any one of the appointments alone:

whether the charge is held by a Regimental Medical officer or a Commissioned Medical officer already employed in the Civil Department, are regulated by Military Rules, the pay of the appointment being calculated on the principle indicated in that Article.

1 In the case of a Commissioned Medical Officer holding more than one acting appointment, the acting allowance of each appointment is fixed by Military Rules of calculation, but the terms of the combination of the appointments are those laid down in Article 168 and the second sentence of the Note under it.

171. An officer in medical charge of a Civil station is entitled to an allowance of Rs. 100 a month for holding visiting charge of a second station.

NOTE.—[In Bengal the allowance may be Rs. 50 or Rs. 100 as the Local Government may fix.]

Medical Charge of Jails.

172. An officer appointed to the medical charge of a Central Jail when the administrative and medical charges are not united, is entitled to a local allowance of Rs. 100, or, in special cases at the discretion of the Local Government, Rs. 150:

Provided always that the aggregate cost for the administrative and medical charges shall not exceed the total pay payable for the combination of the two charges in one person.

Cantonment Magistrate.

173. A Civil or Military officer placed in charge of a full-time Cantonment, or Assistant Cantonment Magistracy, in addition to his own duties, is entitled to an allowance of Rs. 100 a month.

Military Officer.

174. The allowances for his Civil duties of a Military officer appointed to officiate in a Civil office other than a Cantonment Magistracy without being relieved of his Military duty, are regulated in accordance with Article 168 and Rule 2 under it, and are drawn in the Civil Department. If he has no substantive appointment in the Military Department, the pay of his rank is held to be his substantive pay for the purposes of Article 168.

Chapter IX.—Joining Time.

175. Joining time is the time allowed to an officer to proceed from one station to another when his appointment is changed, or when, being unemployed, he is appointed to any office. An officer is held to be on duty during Joining Time if he is entitled to allowances.

176. Only one day is allowed for joining an appointment which does not necessarily involve a change of residence from one station to another.

NOTE.—[Sundays are included in the calculation of the joining time of one day admissible under this Article. An officer who gives over charge on Saturday forenoon must, therefore, take charge on Saturday afternoon, and an officer who gives over charge on Saturday afternoon must take charge on Monday forenoon.]

177. In cases involving a change of station Joining Time is calculated as follows, subject to a maximum of thirty days : Sundays not actually spent in travelling are not included in the calculation :—

(i) Six days for preparation ; and, in addition thereto :—

for the portion of the journey which { the officer travels or might travel— {		a day for each.	{ or any longer time actually occupied in the journey.
By railway	250 miles
By ocean steamer	200 "
By river steamers	80 "
By mail cart or other public stage conveyance drawn by horses	80 "
In any other way	15 "

An extra day is allowed for any fraction of distance over that prescribed.

(ii) When part of the journey is by steamer, the days intervening between the officer being set free from his office, or, if he has no office, receiving his orders, and the departure of the steamer, or his start duly regulated to catch the steamer, shall be added.

NOTE 1.—[A journey by road of five miles or under to or from a railway station from or to the point which may be prescribed under Article 938 does not count for joining time.]

NOTE 2.—[An officer, whose salary does not exceed Rs 100 a month, should not ordinarily be required to travel by mail cart or other public stage conveyance drawn by horses.]

178. By whatever route the officer travels, his Joining Time shall, unless the Local Government specially permit otherwise, be calculated by the route which travellers habitually use.

179. If an officer is authorised under Article 53 to make over charge of an office elsewhere than at its head-quarters, any joining time to which he may be entitled shall be reckoned from the place at which he actually makes over charge.

Extensions

180. (a) The Local Government may in any case extend the joining time admissible by rule provided the general spirit of the rules is observed.

(b) Within the maximum of thirty days, Heads of Departments and Commissioners of Divisions, in the case of officers of Provincial Services and non-gazetted subordinates under their control, may extend the joining time admissible by rule—

(i) if the officer has been unable to avail himself of the usual mode of travelling, or if, notwithstanding due diligence on his part, the journey has occupied more time than is allowed by the rules—to the extent of the time actually taken :

(ii) if such extension is considered necessary for the public convenience or for the saving of public expense, as, for example, to prevent unnecessary and merely formal transfers—to the extent necessary :

(iii) if the rules have in any particular case operated hardly, as, for example, if an officer has through no fault on his part missed a steamer or fallen sick on the journey—to the extent necessary, on such conditions as to allowances or otherwise as the sanctioning authority may think fit.

181. The Audit Officer shall move the Local Government to report to the Government of India any concession made under the preceding Article, which appears to him contrary to the spirit of the rules. The Local Government may not, finally, overrule the Audit Officer without a reference to the Governor General in Council.

When Leave intervenes.

182. When an officer, after giving over charge of his office at one station on transfer, or reversion to another office, takes Privilege or Examination leave before joining the office to which he has been transferred, or to which he has reverted, or when an officer, while on Privilege or Examination leave, is transferred to a station other than that from which he took leave, he is entitled to Joining Time in addition to his Privilege or Examination leave. The Joining Time of an officer transferred during Privilege or Examination leave will be counted from his old station, or from the place where he receives the order of transfer, whichever calculation would entitle him to the less Joining Time.

183. If an officer, during transit from one appointment to another, obtains Furlough on medical certificate (with or without Privilege leave or Subsidiary leave prefixed), he may be allowed only the Joining Time calculated for the journey from his old station to the furthest place to which he has proceeded on his route to his new station.

Appointment Changed.

184. The Joining Time of an officer whose appointment is changed while he is in transit from one appointment to another, begins on the day following that on which he receives his orders.

Allowances.

185. Except in the case mentioned in Article 188, an officer draws, during Joining Time, the pay or salary which he drew in his old appointment or that which he will draw on joining his new appointment, whichever is less : Provided that an officer transferred from one officiating appointment to another shall not draw any acting allowance during Joining Time if he had not a superior lien on either of the officiating appointments to that of the officer relieved by or relieving him. If the officer is entitled to tentage in his old appoint ppointment, he may draw tent rates. If the officer in his c on account of special expensiv any district, province or locality, and the transfer is to another appointment within the same district, province or locality, he may draw the local allowance during joining time. Provided that, if the rates differ in the two appointments or parts of the local area, he may draw the lower rate only.

186. When, under Article 182, an officer combines Privilege or Examination leave and Joining Time, his allowances during Joining Time,—that is to say for the period, not exceeding the Joining Time admissible by rule, in excess of his Privilege or Examination leave, during which he is absent from duty,—must be calculated at the rate at which his Joining Time allowance would have been calculated if he had joined the office to which he is transferred directly.

187. If a member of the Indian Civil Service, on first arrival in India is unable, from illness, to proceed to the seat of the Government to which he is attached or to any other station to which he is ordered to proceed direct, the Local Government in whose jurisdiction he is, may, on medical certificate, grant him a subsistence allowance of Rs. 250 a month for not more than two months. Time thus spent is not Active Service.

188. An officer who is not in the Indian Civil Service or in the Army, and who has no substantive appointment, is not entitled to any allowance during Joining Time; but if such an officer officiating in an office is transferred to another office under the same Local Government, the officer who orders the transfer may allow him to draw, during his transit, the allowance to which he would be entitled under the first sentence of Article 185.

Exceeding Joining Time.

189. An officer who does not join his new appointment within his Joining Time is entitled to no allowances after the end of his Joining Time, and after a week ceases to have a lien on any appointment. But if the authority making the appointment considers that his default was due to circumstances beyond his control, it may exempt him from the loss of his appointment.

NOTE.—The expression "allowances" in this Article does not include travelling allowance.

Ministerial Officers.

190. The rules in this Chapter apply to a Ministerial officer who with the consent of the head of his office, or under the orders of competent authority, is transferred to service in another office on grounds of public convenience only, and not at his own request, for his own advantage, or in consequence of any fault on his part.

Chapter X.—Officers Dismissed, Suspended, or Imprisoned.

Members of the Indian Civil Service and Military Officers.

191. A member of the Indian Civil Service is entitled when under suspension to the subsistence allowance of his rank, and a Military officer in Civil employ to the pay and allowances of his rank.

Other Officers.

192. Saving as provided in Article 193 (b), an officer under suspension is entitled to no salary while he is absent from duty, and the salary of an officer who is dismissed ceases absolutely from the date of his dismissal; no allowances may be granted for any period occupied in the prosecution of appeals against the order of dismissal.

193. Subject to the proviso that, without the permission of the Local Government, no extra expense may be imposed on the State—

(a) Subsistence allowance, at a rate not exceeding one quarter of his salary, may be granted by the authority suspending him to an officer removed from office pending enquiry into his alleged misconduct: Provided that the subsistence allowance of a European should not commonly be less than Rs. 25 a month: if his salary be less than Rs. 100 a month, the rate may be increased accordingly. An officer of the Marine Department, whose duties are not confined to the shore, will draw, in addition to the subsistence allowance, rations, or, when rations are not issued, compensation in lieu thereof.

(b) If the suspension of an officer as a penalty for misconduct is, upon reconsideration or appeal, held to have been unjustifiable or not wholly justifiable, or if an officer dismissed from office or suspended pending enquiry into his alleged misconduct is, after enquiry, or upon reconsideration or appeal, reinstated, then the revising or appellate authority may grant to the officer for the period of his absence from duty—

- (i) if the officer is honourably acquitted, an allowance equal to the full salary to which he would have been entitled if he had continued to hold the appointment from which he was dismissed
- (ii) otherwise, an allowance equal to such proportion of the full salary as aforesaid, as to the revising or appellate authority may seem expedient.

NOTE.—[In cases where the extra cost involved does not exceed Rs. 500 and the period during which an officer has remained unemployed through suspension or dismissal does not exceed six months, the excess expenditure may be admitted on the sanction of the authority who ordered the suspension.]

Committals to Prison.

194. A servant of Government committed to prison either for debt or on a criminal charge, should be considered as under suspension from the date of his arrest, and not allowed to draw any pay until the termination of the proceedings against him, when an adjustment of his allowances should be made according to the circumstances of the case, the full amount being given only in the event of the officer being acquitted of blame or (if the imprisonment was for debt) of its being proved that the officer's liability arose from circumstances beyond his control.

Leave while under Suspension.

195. Leave of absence for a definite period is not admissible to an officer who has been suspended from duty. If permission to proceed to England is granted in such a case, it should only be for such period as the Secretary of State may determine.

Discretion of Government.

197. (a) Leave of absence cannot be claimed as of right Nothing in these Regulations must be understood to limit the free discretion of the Government to refuse, or revoke, leave of absence of any description, at any time according to the exigencies of the public service.

(b) The Local Government may refuse to grant the full amount of leave applied for in any case, and should, by the exercise of this power, so regulate the date of an officer's return from leave as to cause as little change as possible in administrative arrangements.

(c) This Article gives Local Governments ample powers for regulating leave of every description, and in dealing with applications for leave the following instructions should be carefully borne in mind :—

- (ii) the Government of India, or the Local Government under which he is employed, as the case may be, if he is residing in India or in any place out of India not mentioned in clause (i); provided that when the officer is non-gazetted and is resident in India, the special permission of the officer empowered to appoint him is sufficient authority for the acceptance of such employment.

203. (a) Service as an Apprentice does not qualify except in the following cases :—

Engineer Apprentices, Qualified students of the Thomason College under practical training, Assistant Superintendent Apprentices in the Indian Telegraph Department,	in the Public Works or Railway Department.

The service of candidates in the Superior Revenue Establishment of State-Railways counts towards leave after they are confirmed in their appointments.

to the proviso that the leave allowance shall not be less than Military pay and allowances. An apprentice of either class counts his service as such for leave if on the termination of his apprenticeship he is appointed to the department.

Officers under Training.

203 A. A Local Government may at its discretion decide, in the case of a subordinate officer who is selected to undergo a course of training at a school, college or other institution, whether the time spent in training shall count as service qualifying for leave; and also whether or not such time shall be regarded as an interruption entailing forfeiture of leave already earned.

Service under other Rules.

204. An officer transferred to an office to which these rules apply is not entitled to Long Leave under them in respect of service rendered in an office to which they do not apply. But service in the Army which under Article 356 counts towards Civil pension qualifies also for leave under Civil rules. Any leave taken by an officer during such service will in the calculation of future leave be treated as if it had been taken under these Regulations.

Service before Discharge, Resignation, or Dismissal.

205. (a) An officer who is discharged on reduction of establishment from, or resigns the public service, and is re-employed after an interval, cannot, without the permission of the authority sanctioning the re-employment, count his former service towards leave.

(b) An officer who is dismissed or removed from the public service and who is reinstated on appeal cannot count his former service towards leave unless the authority who, on revision or appeal, reverses the order of dismissal or removal, declares that his former qualifying service shall count.

Private Secretary.

206. Service as Private Secretary to the Governor-General, a Governor or a Lieutenant-Governor qualifies for leave, provided that the officer (before his appointment as Private Secretary) belonged to the Civil Service (whether the Indian Civil Service or not), or to the Staff Corps, or to any of the Indian Establishments of the British Army.

207. After a continuous service of three years, a Private Secretary whose case is not provided for by the preceding Article, may be granted Leave on Medical Certificate to the extent of one year with a leave allowance equal to half his salary, and subject to a maximum of £1,000 a year.

Press Servants.

208. A Section-writer, or a Press servant, paid under the piece-work system, if granted leave, is not entitled to any allowance whatever during his absence.

Rule of Proportions.

209. The leave⁴ allowances of an officer not subject to the Foreign Service Rules (Part VII) who has served in any appointment the salary of which has been derived either wholly or in part otherwise than from Indian Revenues, is charged according to the Rule of Proportions.

Section III.—Retention of Appointment.

Lien on Appointment.

210. An officer on Privilege leave has a lien on his substantive appointment; he has also a lien on his officiating appointment, so long as it is not resumed by an officer having a superior lien on it.

211. (a) An officer under the European Service Leave Rules, on ordinary Furlough, or on Special leave, has a lien on his substantive appointment or on a substantive appointment of a like character and not less pay. He has no lien on an acting appointment.

(b) On other Furlough a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, has no lien; but a Civil Engineer or other officer subject to the European Service Leave Rules has a lien. (See also Article 313.)

212. An officer on Long Leave under the Indian Service Leave Rules retains a lien on his substantive appointment, but has no lien on an acting appointment.

213. An officer on Subsidiary leave has or has not a lien on an appointment according as he has or has not such a lien on the first or last day, as the case may be, of the leave to which it is subsidiary.

NOTE.—[A Military officer subject to the Military Leave Rules does not lose his lien during Subsidiary leave preparatory to Furlough.]

214. An officer on leave may not surrender his lien on his substantive appointment, and, except as provided in Articles 90 and 786, a Local Government may not fill up substantively, even for a time, the appointment on which an officer has a lien, without transferring him to another substantive appointment which, save in cases of misbehaviour or inefficiency, must be one of not less pay.

215. An officer cannot obtain ordinary Furlough or Special leave unless he has a substantive appointment.

NOTE 1.—[A Military officer who has officiated continuously in the Civil Department for at least 3 years is an officer with a substantive appointment for the purposes of this rule.]

NOTE 2.—[A Military officer holding the appointment of Commandant or Adjutant of the Burma or Assam Police Battalions retains a lien on his appointment while on furlough under the Military Leave Rules to which he is subject.]

Compulsory Retirement.

216. If a Local Government decides, before an officer whom it has the power to remove from the service leaves India, that he shall not be permitted to return to duty in India, it should give notice to him before he leaves India, so that any remonstrance which he may wish to make may be considered on the spot by an authority fully cognizant of the facts of the case. Such notice should not be postponed until after the officer's departure, and then communicated to him through the Secretary of State.

In cases in which the application of the above rules as to prefixing and affixing holidays to leave is doubtful or inequitable, the Local Government shall decide which officer shall be held to have been in charge and to which the salary of the office for the Sunday or holiday shall be paid.

221. When Subsidiary leave is taken, Furlough and Special leave out of India begin on, and include, the day of the departure from the port where the officer first meets it of the vessel in which he sails. If an officer remains in India after the end of Subsidiary leave, his Furlough or Special leave dates from the beginning of his Subsidiary leave, unless he is specially exempted from forfeiture of his Subsidiary leave by his Local Government under the provision of Article 323 (b). Furlough and Special leave out of India end on, and include, the day before the arrival at the port where the officer last quits it of the vessel in which he returns, and Subsidiary leave begins the day after.

NOTE 1.—[The Furlough or Special leave of an officer sailing from Calcutta in a vessel which touches at Madras begins on the departure of the vessel from Calcutta, and not from Madras.]

NOTE 2.—[The day on which the vessel in which the officer sails quits her moorings or anchorage, whether she leaves the limits of the port or not on that day, is the day of the departure of the vessel. The day of arrival of the vessel in which the officer returns, is the day on which the vessel reaches her moorings or anchorage in port.]

221A. Special rules have been laid down in Appendix 6-A for reckoning leave in the case of officers stationed in certain remote districts outside India.

222. An officer taking Furlough or Special leave out of India, whether by itself or in combination with Privilege leave, must report his embarkation, through the Audit Officer, to the Local Government (or other authority) which granted his leave, and his arrival in England to the Secretary of State.

Section V.—Return to Duty.

NOTE.—[With the exception of Article 231, this Section applies to Military officers in Civil employ subject to the Military Leave Rules.]

Permission to Return.

223. An officer may not, without the permission of the authority which granted him leave, return to duty more than fourteen days before the end of Long Leave.

224. An officer on Long Leave in England must, if the leave was granted or has been technically leave on medical certificate, obtain the permission of the India Office as to his fitness to return to duty. Ordinarily he must attend at the India Office for examination by the Board, but, in special cases, particularly if he be residing at a distance of more than sixty miles from London, a certificate in a form to be obtained from the India Office from two medical practitioners may be accepted. On the required evidence of fitness being furnished, the officer will receive from the India Office permission to return to India. An officer whose leave was not granted, and has not been extended, on medical grounds, does not require permission from the India Office to return to India.

Change of Appointment.

227. If the appointment of an officer is changed during Long Leave in India, he must join his new appointment within his leave. During such joining time his allowances will be the same as for Subsidiary leave on return from Furlough.

228. A gazetted officer must report his return to duty to the Local Government under which he is employed. The Local Government may authorize the payment to an officer subject to the Indian Service Leave Rules of as much as it thinks fit of any allowances during Subsidiary leave under clause (ii) of Article 321 (a), to which he would have been entitled if he had not remained absent after the end of his Furlough, or Leave on Private Affairs, or Leave on Medical Certificate.

If the officer is on medical leave and desires an extension for more than 14 days, or if he is on other leave and desires an extension on medical grounds, he must satisfy the Medical Board at the India Office of the necessity for the extension. If application for extension be delayed until the last two months of leave, advice of any extension granted for a period of more than seven days will be sent to India by telegraph and the cost of the telegram will ordinarily be charged to the officer.

Section II.—Privilege Leave—Ordinary Rules.

Amount earned.

246. The amount of Privilege leave earned by an officer is one-eleventh part of the time during which he has been on duty without interruption:

PART III.

Provided that no Privilege leave can be earned by an officer by duty performed while three months' such leave is due to him, and that, whenever duty is interrupted, all claim to Privilege leave earned therefore is forfeited. Absence on Privilege leave, though not counting as duty is not an interruption of duty within the meaning of this Article.

247. The calculation must be made as follows:—One calendar month for every eleven complete calendar months of duty, and one day for every eleven days of the balance.

Qualifying Service.

248. When an officer is first appointed to the public service, duty qualifying for Privilege leave does not begin until he takes charge of his office.

249. Time spent on Subsidiary leave does not qualify for Privilege leave, but if an officer, returning from leave, not before the expiration thereof, be only for the convenience of the Local Government and not for any fault of his own, prevented from joining an appointment on which he has a lien, or be kept out of employ on Subsistence allowance, then duty qualifying for Privilege leave begins on the day on which he presents himself to the Local Government ready for duty.

250. (a) In calculating the Privilege leave of a Military officer no distinction should be made between an officer who has a substantive Civil appointment and one who is merely officiating in the Civil Department.

(b) The leave is earned by uninterrupted duty in either the Civil or the Military Department. But a Military officer who has taken in any calendar year the whole or a portion of the Privilege leave admissible to him for that year, under Military Rules, does not begin to count service for Privilege leave in the Civil Department until the first day of the following year.

Limit.

251. The amount of Privilege leave admissible at one time is limited to three calendar months.

amount of overstay,—that is, eleven times the period of overstay.

Amount due.

252. The Privilege leave due to an officer is the Privilege leave which he has earned since the last interruption of duty, less the period during which he has been absent on Privilege leave.

Interruptions of Duty.

253. If an officer remains absent after the end of Privilege leave, his duty is interrupted within the meaning of Articles 246 and 260. But if the Local Government considers that his default was due to circumstances beyond his control, it may remit the penalty.

NOTE —[The Local Government may delegate the power exercised by them under this Article to any officer or class of officers subordinate to them not being below the rank of Collector or District Judge.]

254. If an officer remains absent after the end of Examination leave, or of Joining Time, the period of absence cannot count as duty qualifying for Privilege leave, and, unless the absence is accounted for to the satisfaction of the Local Government, it is an interruption of duty.

NOTE —[The Local Government may delegate the power exercised by them under this Article to any officer or class of officers subordinate to them not being below the rank of Collector or District Judge.]

258. Suspension from office pending enquiry into an officer's conduct interrupts duty or not as may be decided in each case by the authority having power to pass final orders in the case. Time passed under suspension does not qualify for Privilege leave, unless, in any case, such authority expressly orders that it shall so qualify.

259. "Leave in India" under Rule 1 of the Leave Rules for the Staff Corps is an interruption of duty.

260. But when Privilege leave is combined with other leave under Article 233, the amount due may be granted irrespective of these conditions.

NOTE 2—(All leave falling within clause (a) (2) of this Article counts towards the maximum limit in Article 299, even though it may not be taken into account in calculating the amount of furlough earned under Article 303.)

(5th Edition, No 349, dated the 10th June 1924)

Leave after completion of term of Service

301. (a) The limitations affecting members of the Indian Civil Service whose term of service is complete, are prescribed in Article 555, and those affecting Military Officers, in Article 620.

(b) Any other officer subject to the rules of this Chapter who is retained in the service after the age of fifty-five years may, after attaining that age, be granted Privilege leave or any Special leave to which he may be otherwise entitled or Subsidiary Leave preparatory to retirement, or Extraordinary leave without allowances under Article 332. The total leave granted, under the heads of Special or Extraordinary, must not exceed six months in all. No other kind of leave may be granted, and any leave, other than Privilege leave or Special leave or Subsidiary Leave preparatory to retirement, granted to such an officer before the date on which he attains the age of fifty-five years, ceases to have effect on that date.

NOTE—(Leave granted to an officer after the age of 55 years is not subject to the provisions of Article 301.)

NOTE—(In the case of a Military Officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules of this Article has effect only from the date on which he becomes subject to those rules (see rules 1 and 2 under Article 35), furlough in respect of previous service being credited under Article 303.)

(5th Edition, No. 349, dated the 10th June 1924)

303. A Military officer subject to Civil rules may, if he desire it, add to Furlough earned by service under Civil rules an amount of Furlough in respect of his previous service calculated as shown below. Such an officer may be granted at any time any leave which he has earned under Civil rules, and may defer or forego the leave he has earned under Military Regulations.

- (i) An officer who, at the time of coming under Civil Leave Rules, was subject to the Military Furlough Regulations of 1868 or 1875, may be credited with the Furlough that may have accrued to him, less any Furlough already taken which, under those rules, would reduce the amount of Furlough due. The amount of Furlough accrued shall, in that case, be calculated proportionably on the whole service qualifying for Furlough without reference to the minimum periods of service which those rules require to be rendered before Furlough can be granted.
- (ii) The service for Furlough of an officer whose case does not fall under clause (iii) of this Article, and who, when he came under the Civil Leave Rules, was subject to the Staff Corps Leave Rules (1886), shall be calculated in accordance with Article 302 retrospectively from the date of his arrival in India, i.e., he shall be credited with Furlough equivalent to one-fourth of his Active Service as defined in Article 8, less any leave with pay out of India actually taken. The provisions of this clause apply to officers of the Royal Engineers in Civil employ who, while serving under British Army Leave Rules, either (1) have elected for continuous service in India, whether the election was made before or after their entry into Civil employment, or (2) have completed five years' Indian Service and elect to come under Civil Leave Rules.

NOTE.—[An officer of the Royal Engineers who has not elected for continuous service in India remains under British Army Leave Rules till he completes five years' Indian Service.]

- (iii) In the case of an officer who, before electing the Leave Rules for the Staff Corps (1886), was subject to the Military Furlough Regulations of 1868 or 1875, the amount of furlough to be added to Furlough earned under the Civil Leave Rules shall be calculated in the following manner:—
- (a) for the period the officer was subject to the Military Furlough Regulations of 1868 or 1875 he shall be credited with Furlough calculated in accordance with clause (i) of this Article;
- (b) for the period the officer was under the Leave Rules for the Staff Corps, he shall be credited with Furlough calculated in accordance with clause (i) of this Article.

NOTE.—[When a Military officer becomes subject to the Civil Leave Rules, the Account officer in charge of his record of pension service will, on application and on being furnished with the date of commencement of Active Service, furnish to the Audit Officer to whose audit he becomes subject, a memorandum showing the Furlough earned, the different kinds of leave taken (distinguishing those which should be deducted from the maximum Furlough admissible), and the balance of Furlough due under Military Rules.]

Furlough Due.

304. The amount of Furlough "due" to an officer is the amount which he has "earned," diminished—

- (a) in the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, by the Furlough which he has enjoyed under these rules ;
- (b) in the case of an officer other than an officer of the Indian Civil Service or the Army by the Furlough or Special leave with allowance, which he has enjoyed under these rules. (See also Article 303.)

305. The following rules regulate the calculation of the Furlough due to an officer who, after being subject to the Indian Service Leave Rules, becomes entitled to the rules contained in this Chapter :—

(a) In the case of an officer who becomes entitled to the rules in this Chapter on or after 11th October 1893, the date of receipt of the Secretary of State's Despatch No. 188 of September 21, 1893, by reason of his acquiring on or after that date the qualification specified in Article 297 (d) or (e) :—

- (i) The amount of Furlough due to him shall be taken at one-eighth of his active service while under the Indian Service Leave Rules, less the amount of Furlough or of Leave on Private Affairs enjoyed by him under Articles 337 and 338.
- (ii) Leave on Medical Certificate shall in this calculation reckon neither as service qualifying for Furlough nor as Furlough taken, but the amount of Furlough due shall not exceed the amount which would be due if the officer had been under the European Service Leave Rules from the beginning of his service and the leave taken by him on medical certificate had been Furlough on medical certificate under the rules in this Chapter.

(b) In the case of an officer who is brought under the rules in this Chapter for the first time, by the operation of the orders in the despatch of the 21st September 1893, but who would have come under them at an earlier date if they had been in force at the time, the calculation of Furlough and other leave due shall be made as follows :—

- (i) If under those orders he would have been under the rules in this Chapter from the commencement of his service, the calculation shall be made as if such rules had applied to him from the commencement of his service, and all leave taken by him had been taken under those rules.
- (ii) If under those orders he would at some stage in his service have passed from the Indian Service Leave Rules to the rules in this Chapter, then the calculation shall be made under the rules in clause a) under this Article, as if he had come under the rules in this Chapter at such earlier stage. He shall be held to have been under the rules in this Chapter from the said earlier date, and all Furlough, Leave on Private Affairs, or Leave on Medical Certificate taken after such date shall be treated as Furlough taken under the rules in this Chapter.

Provided that in the case of the officers mentioned in Article 297 (c) who came under the rules in this Chapter before the 11th October 1893, the calculation shall continue to be made under the following rules:—

In calculating the Furlough "earned" only half the Active Service rendered by the officer in offices other than those included in Article 330 of the Second Edition of these Regulations is taken into account. The whole of the Active Service rendered by the officer whilst officiating in any of those offices is taken into account.

In calculating the Furlough "due" the Furlough "earned" is diminished by the Furlough, Leave on Private Affairs and Leave on Medical Certificate with allowances, which the officer has enjoyed under the Indian Service Leave Rules.

The rules in Articles 304 and 305 are subject to the proviso that

- (ii) to an officer returning to India from Furlough or Special leave, to travel from the port of debarkation and reorganise his domestic establishment.

No subsidiary leave is admissible to an officer who does not leave India by sea.

(b) Subsidiary leave granted to an officer preparatory to retirement ceases when he actually resigns the service.

1. An officer, serving in Persia or Turkish Arabia reckons Subsidiary leave to or from the port or frontier town by which he leaves or returns to the country. The date of departure or return must be certified by the British Consul or, if there be no British Consul, by the officer himself.

2. An officer either of the Persian or the Persian Gulf Section of the Indo-European Telegraph Department, who practically has to go on or return from leave by an Indian port, whether it be Karachi or Bombay, may reckon Subsidiary leave to or from such port.

322. (a) The grant to an officer leaving India—

- (i) of permission to retire from the service, or,
- (ii) of Furlough or Special leave out of India, carries with it the grant of Subsidiary leave. But Subsidiary leave is admissible only at the end and not at the beginning of leave out of India when such leave is combined with Privilege leave under Article 233.

(b) An officer returning to India, without the permission of the authority of his Furlough or the special Leave in and out of India.

323. (a) An officer (including a Military officer subject to the Military Leave Rules) may take Furlough or Special leave partly in and partly out of India. But Subsidiary leave is not admissible unless the Furlough or Special leave begins or, as the case may be, ends, as Furlough or Special leave out of India

(b) If an officer going on Furlough or Special leave out of India is prevented by sickness or other reason not within his own control,—such, for example, as the postponement of the departure of the vessel in which his passage is engaged,—from embarking within his Subsidiary leave, the Local Government may order that his Furlough or Special leave shall begin in India at the end of the Subsidiary leave otherwise admissible, without forfeiture of his Subsidiary leave.

Period admissible.

324 The minimum Subsidiary leave is ten days; otherwise Subsidiary leave is calculated according to the rules and restrictions laid down in Chapter IX for "Joining Time."

Prolongation of Subsidiary Leave.

325 If a Medical Board or Officer detains an applicant under observation, under Article 830, before finally granting or refusing a medical certificate, the Medical Board or Officer should give a certificate to the applicant as follows :—

A B having applied to us (or me) for medical certificate under Article 829 of the Civil Service Regulations, we (or I) consider it expedient, before granting or refusing such a certificate to A B, to detain him under professional observation for days.

326. Unless an officer is expressly permitted by the Local Government to retain charge of his duties and to resume them before proceeding on leave, the time spent by him in obtaining the medical certificate under Article 829, including the time, if any, for which he is detained under medical observation, is treated as subsidiary leave, the amount of subsidiary leave admissible under rule being prolonged if necessary in case of detention by a period not exceeding that for which he was detained 327 In the case of an officer who fails to obtain the certificate, the time from the date on which he leaves his station to that on which the certificate is refused is treated as Subsidiary leave. From the date following that on which the certificate is refused the officer is treated as on Joining Time, carrying Subsidiary leave allowances.

328. If an officer (including a Military officer subject to the Military Leave Rules) who, under the rules of his service, is entitled to a free passage in a troop-ship when proceeding on leave out of India, is, after having been granted Subsidiary leave, detained waiting for a troop-ship, through no fault of his own, his Subsidiary leave may be extended to the date of the sailing of the vessel in which he is provided with a passage, without reference to the maximum period of thirty days for which Subsidiary leave can be granted.

329. Subsidiary leave is ordinarily reckoned from the date of debarkation, but if there is any special delay in the issue of orders appointing an officer to a particular post, the Subsidiary leave may be extended by the Local Government, provided that the whole period so allowed does not exceed 30 days.

Leave Allowances

330. An officer on Subsidiary leave is entitled to allowances as follows :—

(a) If the leave be Subsidiary to Special leave, and the officer has had leave subsidiary to a former Special leave—no allowance.

(b) If the leave be subsidiary to ordinary Furlough or Special leave [otherwise than as provided in clause a)] :—the allowance admissible under Article 314, but calculated, in the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, without the limitations of maximum or minimum prescribed by clauses (a) and (b) of Article 314. The limitations prescribed by clause (c) of Article 314 apply to the allowances of any other officer subject to this Article on Subsidiary leave.

(c) If the leave be Subsidiary to Furlough other than ordinary—the allowance admissible under Article 315.

(d) If the officer has been absent on extraordinary leave the duration of which exceeds a fortnight, or has, under Article 229, ceased to have a lien on a substantive appointment—

(i) in the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules—subsistence allowance; and

(ii) in the case of any other officer subject to this Article—no allowance.

(e) If the leave be preparatory to retirement—the allowances which would be admissible if the officer were proceeding on leave of such description as may be admissible to him; and if no leave is admissible—Subsistence allowance only.

331. An officer may draw allowances as if he were on Privilege leave, for any part of his Subsidiary leave under clause (i) of Article 321 (a) for which, if he were not retiring from the service or going on Furlough or Special leave, Privilege leave may be admissible to him. It is to be observed that an officer who has no lien on an appointment cannot benefit by this rule (See Article 263.)

NOTE.—[This Article will have no application in cases in which Privilege leave is combined with other leave under Article 233, as Subsidiary leave is not then admissible. [See Article 322 (a).]

Section VI.—Extraordinary Leave.

332 Subject always to the provisions of any Statute applicable to the case, the Local Government (or, if the officer be on Furlough or Special leave in Europe, the Secretary of State) may, in special circumstances and when no other kind of leave is by rule admissible, grant leave of absence from duty otherwise than under these Regulations: Provided that—

(i) such leave may not be granted in combination with the leave of other opinion of the Local Government are such as to justify the concession: No officer is entitled to Extraordinary leave;

(ii) an officer absent from duty on leave so granted shall receive no absentee allowance; and

(iii) if he is a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Military officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, he shall retain no lien upon any office except when Extraordinary leave, not exceeding a fortnight, is granted in continuation of other leave: (See clause (d) of Article 330.)

In cases in which the duration of the Extraordinary leave to be granted does not exceed or so as to extend the term of Privilege or other leave beyond the time admissible by rule.]

(1) If the person concerned has further leave due to him carrying the same allowances as the leave already granted, he will be required to take an extension of leave to cover his further absence from duty

(2) If the further absence from duty cannot be covered in this way, the period, or such part of it as remains uncovered, will be treated as leave without allowances, unless the person concerned prefers to substitute leave of another description for that which he has previously taken.

From the date of the grant of such leave, the person concerned shall be treated as being on duty.

333 A Military officer subject to the Civil Leave Rules, who has exhausted the full period of Furlough admissible to him under these Regulations, and who is granted Extraordinary leave on medical certificate, will continue to be treated as wholly in Civil employ for all purposes, with the exception that, if the Medical Board at the India Office report that there is no prospect of the officer returning to duty within a reasonable period, he will be placed on Military half-pay. If an officer thus placed on half-pay is afterwards permitted to revert to the effective list and returns to duty in India, he will not be entitled to be reinstated in Civil employment, but will be posted to Civil or Military duty as may be decided in India.

Chapter XIV.—Long Leave—Indian Services.

Section I.—Extent of Application.

334. The rules in this Chapter apply to all officers who are not entitled to leave under the other Chapters of these Regulations. They apply fully only to those officers whose pay is not less than Rs 100 a month, and who have substantive appointments on permanent establishment under the Government.

335. (a) Leave may, however, be granted under this Chapter to an officer (whether he be a superior or an inferior servant) whose pay is less than Rs. 100, so far as it can be done without imposing any cost upon the State. The absentee

1 The Local Government may delegate its power under this clause to Heads of Offices and Departments

(b) No leave in excess of the leave admissible under these rules may be granted to such an officer, with allowances, or counting as service for pension.

1. An officer holding an appointment on a Progressive pay, rising to a maximum of Rs 100, who is in the receipt of the maximum pay, is not to be treated as an officer whose pay is less than Rs. 100 is Rs. 25 a month.

(b) After eighteen years' service—two years or any less period; and thereafter, at intervals of not less than eight years, any such period as together with all periods already spent on Furlough may not exceed two years:

Provided—

- (i) that the service for Furlough of an officer who has had Leave on Private Affairs counts only from the date of his last return from such leave,
- (ii) that the aggregate amount of Furlough, or of Furlough and Leave count as service for other leave. Subject to the provisions of Article 198, there is no limit to the length or frequency of leave under this Article. It may not be granted in combination with the grant of other leave except as provided in Article 233. But it may be granted in continuation of other leave if circumstances arise which prevent the return by the officer to duty, and which, in the opinion of the Local Government or the authority empowered to grant the leave, are such as to justify the concession. No officer is entitled to Extraordinary leave.

1. In cases in which the duration of the Extraordinary leave to be granted does not exceed under Article 198.

Section II.—Cases in which claims are inadmissible.

352. In the following cases no claim to pension is admitted :—

(a) When an officer is appointed for a limited time only, or for a specified duty, on

(b) When an officer is appointed on monthly wages without specified limit of time or duty; but a month's notice of discharge should be given to such a person, and his wages must be paid for any period by which such notice falls short of a month.

(c) When a person's whole time is not retained for the public service, but he is merely paid for work done for the State

1 This clause applies, among others, to the following officers :—Advocate General, Solicitor to Government, Government Pleaders and Law Officers not debarred from private practice, Sheriffs in Presidency towns, Coroners, Roman Catholic Priests.

(d) When a public servant holds some other pensionable office, he earns no pension in respect of an office of the kind mentioned in clause (c) or in respect of duties paid for by a Local Allowance.

(e) When an officer serves under a covenant which contains no stipulation regarding pension, unless the Government of India specially authorises an officer to count such service towards pension.

NOTE.—[Secretary of State's Despatch No. 255, dated 20th July 1877.—“I have considered in executed.”

“Covenants with mechanics and others engaged for service in India will accordingly in future be prepared containing provisions to the effect recommended by your Government”]

Misconduct or Inefficiency.

353. Save as provided below, pension may not be granted to an officer whom it is desired to remove for misconduct, insolvency, or inefficiency.

Exception.—Subject to the following conditions, the Government of India may grant compassionate allowances, in such cases when they are deserving of special consideration :—

- (1) No allowance to be granted to an officer appointed in England or to one whose pay exceeds Rs. 250 a month.
- (2) The allowance not to exceed two-thirds of the pension that would have been admissible if the officer had retired on medical certificate.

Claims of Widow.

354. (a) It being the duty of every Government officer himself to provide for his family, the Government recognises no claim by a widow on account of the services of her husband, and is almost invariably under the painful necessity of rejecting recommendations made in contravention of this rule.

(b) The submission of such recommendations, save under very extraordinary circumstances, is disapproved, as calculated only to give rise to hopes which cannot be fulfilled.

We observe that the Committee of the Fund have taken some pains to make our views on the point generally known; and in thus acting, they have contributed not only to promote the interest of the Fund, but to render valuable service to their brethren by disabusing their minds of a dangerous error."

NOTA. "The Committee of the Fund have taken some pains to make our views on the point generally known; and in thus acting, they have contributed not only to promote the interest of the Fund, but to render valuable service to their brethren by disabusing their minds of a dangerous error."

Limitations.

355 (a) An officer cannot earn two pensions in the same office at the same time, or by the same continuous service.

(b) Two officers may not simultaneously count service in respect of the same office.

Military Service.

356. Service which is pensionable under Military Rules does not count, and an officer who is counting service for Military pension cannot simultaneously count service for Civil pension. The following exceptions have been made to the provisions of this Article :—

(1) Military Hospital Assistants and Enlisted Native Doctors are excluded, by this Article, tary office, provided that he takes his discharge within twelve months after

t (see Special Army Circular, dated 16th July 1884, paragraph 36), is a Civil or a Military charge, according as the greater portion of the officer's or soldier's service is in the Civil or the Military Department.

357 The Local Government may, in exceptional cases, allow service which is pensionable under Military rules to count for pension on the Inferior scale.

Chapter IXV.—Conditions of Qualifying Service.

Section I.—Definition of Qualifying Service.

Beginning of Service.

358. (a) Except for Compensation gratuity, an officer's service does not in the case of Superior service qualify till he has completed twenty years of age.

(b) In other cases, unless it be otherwise provided by special rule or contract, the service of every officer begins when he takes charge of the office to which he is first appointed.

NOTE.—[In every covenant with an officer appointed in England by the Secretary of State, not being a member of the Indian Civil Service or a Civil Engineer or Telegraph Officer educated at the Royal Engineering College, Coopers Hill, or a Forest Officer, a clause is inserted to the effect that service for leave and pension begins only from the date on which the officer joins his first appointment in India.]

359. The following exceptions are admitted to the twenty years' rule :—

(1) All officers appointed in England by the Secretary of State; "Indian College Engineers" [see Article 627 (e)]; and Police probationers appointed in India under the orders contained in the Despatch of the Secretary of State, No. 14 (Judicial), dated 15th March 1894.

(2) Signallers in the Indian and Indo-European Telegraph Department may count towards pension service rendered by them after they attain the age of eighteen years.

(3) Hospital Assistants count service from the date they pass the examinations referred to in Exception (1) of Article 356.

NOTE.—[Pupils of the Civil Hospital Assistant class in Medical Colleges who are granted leave under Rule 1, Article 52 (b), count service from the date on which the leave begins.]

360. In the case of Inferior service, service counts after the age of sixteen years.

PART IV.

Conditions of Qualification.

361. The service of an officer does not qualify for pension unless it conforms to the following three conditions:—

First.—The service must be under Government.

Second.—The employment must be substantive and permanent.

Third.—The service must be paid by Government.

These three conditions are fully explained in the following Section.

Section II.—First Condition.

Service under Government.

362. The service of an officer does not qualify unless he is appointed and his duties and pay are regulated by the Government, or under conditions determined by the Government. The following are examples of officers excluded from pension by this Article:—

- (1) A Marine Officer paid by fees fixed by the Board of Trade;
- (2) Officers of a Municipality;
- (3) Officers of Grant-in-aid Schools and Institutions (e.g., the Asiatic Society and Canning College at Lucknow);
- (4) Subordinates appointed by Treasurers on their own responsibility, e.g., Tahvildars in the Province of Agra and in the Central Provinces; and Potadars (money-testers) in Bengal.

363. As an exception to the preceding Article, the services of Subordinates of Treasurers in the Punjab, including Tahvildars and Potadars (money-testers), who were in employ on the 23rd August 1886, qualify, provided that they were—

- (i) appointed by District Officers;
- (ii) discharging duties and receiving pay regulated under conditions laid down by Government; and
- (iii) other than mere servants of Treasurers liable to be removed whenever a change might take place in the incumbency of the office of a Treasurer.

364. The service of a Native Accountant appointed to a Silladar Regiment in the Bombay Presidency on or after the 6th February 1875 does not qualify.

Service paid from Contract Allowances.

365. Service on an establishment paid from a Contract Establishment allowance, with the detailed distribution of which the Government does not interfere, does not qualify, whether such contract allowance is a fixed amount or consists of fees.

NOTE.—[The maximum Establishment allowance for Registration offices in Bengal is not a Contract allowance within the meaning of this Article.]

366. Service on an establishment paid from the Household allowance of the Viceroy, or of a Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor does not qualify.

1 If an officer has served partly (in a capacity which would have given him claim to pension if the service had been paid from the General Revenues) on the Household establishment of the Viceroy, and partly on establishments paid from the General Revenues, he is entitled from the General Revenues to a share of any pension to which he would have been entitled if his whole service had been paid from the General Revenues, proportionate to the Service under an Employer other than Government.

367. In the following cases service under an employer to whose position Government has succeeded qualifies.—

(a) Service rendered to a Native State, and continued to the British Government on the lapse or annexation of the State, when old age or infirmity renders the officer a fit object for pension.

(b) Service in the establishment employed in the Khelat territory for the assessment and collection of water-rate on lands watered by the Sind Canal which was paid in part by the Khan of Khelat prior to the levy of a local cess to meet the charge.

Section III.—Second Condition.

General Principles.

368. Service does not qualify unless the officer holds a substantive office on a permanent establishment, but upon such conditions as it may think fit in each case to impose, the Government of India may allow temporary service to count for pension, if the pension does not exceed ten rupees a month.

369. An establishment, the duties of which are not continuous, but are limited to certain fixed periods in each year, is not a temporary establishment. Service in such an establishment, including the period during which the establishment is not employed, qualifies; but the concession of counting as service the period during which the establishment is not employed does not apply to an officer who was not on actual duty when the establishment was discharged, after completion of its work, or to an officer who was not on actual duty on the first day on which the establishment was again re-employed.

370. An officer transferred from a temporary to a permanent appointment can count his service in the temporary office, if, though at first created experimentally or temporarily, it eventually becomes permanent.

371. An officer without a substantive appointment officiating in an office which is vacant, or the permanent incumbent of which does not draw any part of the pay or count service, may, if he is confirmed without interruption in his service, count his officiating service.

Apprentices and Probationers.

372 Service as an apprentice does not qualify, except in the following cases :—

Engineer or Examiner Apprentices
Qualified students of the Thomason College under } in the Public Works and Rail-practical training } way Departments.
Assistant Superintendent Apprentices in the Indian Telegraph Department.

373. The service of a probationer who holds a substantive office and draws substantive pay qualifies. So does that of an officer who is on probation for a substantive office, if he is employed in a vacancy reserved for him, pending probation, and in which no other officer simultaneously counts service.

374. Police probationers and temporary and officiating Assistant Superintendents of Police in all Provinces count their service as follows :—

- (1) If recruited in England—from the date on which they report their arrival in India.
- (2) If recruited in India under the orders in Secretary of State's despatch No. 14, dated the 15th March 1894—from the date of assuming charge of their appointments.
- (3) If recruited in India before the date of the orders of 1894 mentioned in (2) above—from the date either of attaining the age of 20 years or of assuming charge of their appointments, whichever is later, provided that the service has been continuous.

375. The service of

- (1) Probationary, officiating and temporary Deputy Magistrate-Collectors and sub. pro tem. Sub-Deputy Collectors in Bengal and Eastern Bengal and Assam,
- (2) Probationary, officiating and temporary Deputy Collectors in the United Provinces,
- (3) Probationary, officiating and temporary Extra Assistant Commissioners in the Punjab, and
- (4) Officiating and temporary Extra Assistant Commissioners in the Central Provinces counts for pension from the date on which all the three following conditions are fulfilled, namely,

Insert the following as Note 1 under this Article, renumbering the existing Notes 1 and 2 as 2 and 3 :—

1. Probationary, officiating and temporary Deputy Collectors and Sub-Deputy Collectors

Collector.]

Permanent Officer deputed.

376. An officer on a permanent establishment detached on temporary duty, on the understanding that, when the temporary duty ceases, he will return to the permanent establishment, counts his detached service.

377. The preceding Article permits the temporary suspension of the second condition of qualifying service which forms the subject of this Section; it does not authorise any relaxation of the first condition (Section II), or the third condition (Section IV), and, in particular, must not be understood to countenance any modification of the rules in Part VII, which apply to an officer on Foreign Service.

378. Service as Private Secretary to the Governor-General, a Governor or a Lieutenant-Governor, qualifies, provided that the officer belonged, before his appointment as Private Secretary, to the Civil Service of Government, whether the Indian Civil Service or not.

Substantive Office abolished.

379. If the substantive office of an officer is abolished within the meaning of Article 426, but the officer is, at the time, on special duty, or is, on abolition of his office, deputed on special duty, his service on special duty qualifies, but the duty must be special; mere employment, in continuation of permanent employment, in a temporary appointment which happens at the time to be vacant, does not qualify.

1. The service of an officer of the Marine Service continues to qualify when, upon the abolition of his appointment, he is retained on subsistence allowance or in an acting appointment.

Piece-work.

380. A Section-writer, or a Press servant, who is paid for piece work, is treated as having held a substantive office, if—

- (i) he is employed, not casually, but as a member of a fixed establishment; and
- (ii) during the last seventy-two months of his actual employment he has been attached to one office uninterruptedly for twenty-four months, or it has not been through his own choice or misconduct that he has not been so attached.

Surveys and Settlements

381. (a) The service of an officer not merely temporarily engaged in the undermentioned Settlement and Survey Departments which are (or were) on a quasi-permanent footing qualifies:—

The Settlement Departments in Madras, Burma, and the Punjab. The Revenue Survey Departments in Bengal, Madras and Bombay. The establishments of the Inam Commissioners of Madras and Bombay. The Alienation Settlement Department in Bombay. The Malabar Panchayat Establishment, Madras.

PART IV.

(b) Except in the regular Departments and to the extent above specified, Settlement and Survey service does not count unless it is followed, without interruption, by qualifying Service. Settlement Service followed, without interruption, by pensionable service paid from a Patwari Fund also qualifies.

NOTE 1.—[From the dates mentioned, the following posts have been declared to be on a quasi-permanent footing—

Service in these posts qualifies from the dates mentioned or from any previous date from which the incumbents on 1st October 1899 or 1st September 1904 (as the case may be) may have been serving substantively and without interruption in one or other of them.]

NOTE 2.—[Continuous service as Inspector, Surveyor, Holding Marker, Draughtsman, Computer and Clerk belonging to Special and Revision Survey parties in Burma qualifies.]

382. Deputy Collectors and similar gazetted officers, when not especially employed for temporary work, are not affected by the preceding article, as they count service independently of the particular department to which they happen for the time to be attached.

Exception.

383. A Medical Officer in charge of a Government vessel may count his service afloat, if he is transferred, without interruption of his service, to the Civil Medical Service.

384. Officers transferred from the Extra or Contingent List of the Customs Preventive Service in Burma or in Calcutta count their service on that list, provided the Collector declares that the transfer is made on the ground of good service rendered General Revenues.

386. Service paid from the General Revenues qualifies. The fact that arrangements are made for the recovery, on the part of the Government, of the whole, or part, of the cost of an establishment or officer, does not affect the operation of this principle: Provided that the establishment or officer is appointed, controlled, and paid by the Government.

387. The service of members of office establishments in the Railway Police in Bombay, who are wholly paid by the Railway Companies, qualifies.

388. Service which was paid wholly or partly from the Revenues of Berar before 1st October 1902 qualifies for pension from General Revenues.

389. (a) In the case of officers who, having no status in the service of the British Government, apart from their particular employment in Mysore, were employed in Mysore and transferred to the British service proper before 1st October 1882, the pensions granted are charged according to the Rule of Proportions

(b) Pensions for service in Mysore prior to 1st October 1882 of officers who had a status in the service of the British Government apart from their particular employment in Mysore, are paid wholly from British Revenues.

Local Funds and Trust Funds.

390. Service paid from a Local Fund qualifies, or does not qualify according to the rules laid down in Chapter XLII.

PART IV.

391. Service paid from Funds which Government hold only as a Trustee, such as under a Court of Wards or in an Attached Estate, does not qualify.

Fees and Commission.

392. Except when fees or commission are drawn in addition to pay from the General Revenues, service in an office paid only by fees, whether levied by law or under the authority of Government, or by a commission, does not qualify.

1. Service as Administrator General at Madras or as Official Assignee, does not qualify, as the nature of the office of the former, and the nature of the commission is supplied.

Tenures in Land, etc.

393. Service paid by the grant, in accordance with law or custom, of a tenure in land, or of any other source of income, or right to collect money, does not qualify.

394. As an exception to the preceding Article, Watandars (hereditary District Officers) and their deputies in the Kaira Collectorate and in the following talukas of the Panch Mahals, namely:—Godhra, Kalol and Dohad, and the Petás of Hálol and Jhalod, if transferred to qualifying service, count their previous service.

Section V.—Distinction between Superior and Inferior Service.

395. Qualifying service is divided into SUPERIOR and INFERIOR.

396. Service on pay not exceeding Rs. 10, and service in any office which has been graded as inferior by the rule or practice of the Local Government, is Inferior service. All other service is Superior service.

(Appendix 7-A contains a list of appointments specially classed as Superior and Inferior.)

397 —Cancelled.

Service partly Inferior and partly Superior.

398. An officer whose service has been for some time Inferior and for some time Superior may either count—

- (a) the whole as Inferior towards pension or gratuity on the Inferior scale, or
- (b) the Superior portion towards pension or gratuity on the Superior scale, and the Inferior portion towards gratuity on the Inferior scale.

the average emoluments or emoluments respectively which the officer drew when last in Superior service, and the gratuity on the Inferior scale upon the pay which he drew when last in Inferior service; provided that the total gratuity or gratuity plus pension granted under this clause shall not exceed what would have been admissible, if the whole service had been Superior.

If an officer has been reduced from the Superior to the Inferior class for misconduct, he cannot have the benefit of this Article without the special permission of the Local Government

399. The claims of an officer, promoted from an Inferior to a Superior grade as a reward for meritorious service, will be specially considered by the Government of India. This rule is to be strictly interpreted, and a claim under it can be founded only on exceptional promotion made out of the ordinary course.

Exceptional Cases

400. If an officer holds two or more offices, each of which is Inferior by reason of its pay not exceeding Rs. 10, he cannot count service as Superior, on the ground that his aggregate pay exceeds Rs. 10 unless the offices were arranged and their pay determined with the intention that they should be held by one individual.

401. The service of a postman or village postman, whatever his pay, is Superior service

402. (a) When the regular duties of an officer whose pay exceeds Rs. 10, but who bears an Inferior designation, are really such as are ordinarily performed by a Superior servant, his claim to pension should be specially referred to the Local Government.

NOTE —[It is not intended by this Article that an Inferior servant should count service as Superior in virtue of his voluntarily assisting in Superior work. It provides for the case of a person who is engaged under due authority to do Superior work, though with an Inferior designation.]

(b) On the other hand, an officer whose real duties are those of an Inferior servant, even though his pay exceeds Rs. 10, is not entitled to pension on the Superior scale merely because he draws pay under a Superior designation.

Section I.—Special Additions.

Special Appointments.

403. Subject to the restriction specified against the first four offices, an incumbent of one of the offices enumerated below, appointed on account of professional or other special qualifications, whose whole pensionable service has been passed in one or other of such offices, shall, if appointed at an age exceeding 25, be entitled to reckon as service qualifying for superannuation pension (but not for any other class of pension) the number of completed years by which his age may at the time of appointment have exceeded 25 years, subject to the

to an officer, not being a Native of Asia, whose qualifying service began after 25 years of age, and whose service for which pension is claimed amounts to not less than ten years, and has been passed wholly in one or other of the following offices, three years shall be added to the qualifying service :—

1. Directors of Public Instruction.
2. Inspectors of Schools
3. Principals and Professors of Colleges.
4. Head Masters of Colleges and High Schools.

NOTE.—(The extra years conceded under this Article count towards the limit of 28 years qualifying service prescribed in Article 475, in the case of the officer mentioned in the latter rule or to whom its provisions may be specially extended.)

405.—Omitted.

406.—Omitted.

Section II.—Periods of Leave.

Superior Service.

407. Except as provided in Article 408 time passed on leave other than Privilege leave or Subsidiary leave does not count as Superior service. Time passed on leave subsidiary to Leave on Medical Certificate by an officer subject to the Indian Service Leave Rules, who has twice before had Leave on Medical Certificate out of India, does not count.

408. Time passed on leave with allowances counts as service as follows :—

If the total service of the Officer is not less than—	He counts as service a period of leave out of India not exceeding—	He counts as service a period of leave in India not exceeding—

Subordinates of the Survey of India whose service is Superior, Lower Subordinates of the Forest Survey and Forest Subordinates employed in the tracts mentioned in Article 295 (ii).

NOTE.—[Departmental or Recess leave granted to Tindals and others under clause (in) of Article 295, is treated as service qualifying for pension, though it exceeds the amount admissible under Chapter XIV.]

... must be passed before an officer is eligible for higher subordinate appointments, such as Deputy Magistracies, counts.—(See Article 285.)

411. A Local Government may at its discretion decide, in the case of an officer (including a person in training for, but not actually appointed to, Government service), who is selected to undergo a course of training at any school, college, or other institution, whether the time spent in training shall count as service qualifying for pension.

Deputation out of India.

412. When an officer is deputed out of India on duty, the whole period of his absence from India counts. When an officer on leave out of India is employed, or is detained after the termination of his leave, on duty, the period of such employment or detention counts.

Recall to Duty.

413. Time spent on the voyage to India by an officer who is recalled to duty before the expiry of any recognised leave out of India counts, provided his return to duty is compulsory (see Article 199).

Inferior Service

414. An Inferior servant counts leave with and without allowances not exceeding in the aggregate that which might be given with allowances under the rules in Chapters XII and XIV.

415.—Cancelled.

Section III.—Suspensions, Resignations, Breaks, and Deficiencies in Service.

Periods of Suspension.

416. Time passed under suspension pending enquiry into conduct counts, if the suspension is immediately followed by reinstatement, but time passed under suspension adjudged as a specific penalty does not count.

417. If an officer, who has been suspended, pending enquiry into his conduct, is reinstated, but with forfeiture of any part of his allowances for the period of suspension, this period does not count (save with the special sanction of the Head of the Department), unless the authority who reinstates the officer expressly declares at the time that it shall count.

Resignations and Dismissals.

418 (a) Resignation of the public service, or removal from it for misconduct, insolvency, inefficiency not due to age, or failure to pass a prescribed examination entails forfeiture of past service.

(b) Resignation of an appointment to take up another appointment, service in which counts is not a resignation of the public service.

419 Any authority who, on revision or appeal, reverses an order dismissing an officer, may declare that the officer's past service counts.

Interruptions

420 An interruption in the service of an officer entails forfeiture of his past service, except in the following cases —

(a) Authorised leave of absence.

(b) Unauthorised absence in continuation of authorised leave of absence so long as the office of the absentee is not substantively filled; if his office is substantively filled, the past service of the absentee is forfeited. Provided that, if the absentee is subsequently reinstated, the authority whose duty it is to make the appointment, within three months, or the Local Government within one year, from the end of the authorised leave of absence, may declare, in an order to be communicated to the Audit Officer, that his previous service, or any part of it, shall not be forfeited.

(c) Suspension immediately followed by reinstatement, which need not be to the same office.

(d) Abolition of office or loss of appointment owing to reduction of establishment.

(e) Transfer to non-qualifying service in an establishment under Government control. The transfer must be made by competent authority; an officer who voluntarily resigns qualifying service cannot claim the benefit of this exception. Transfer to a grant-in-aid school entails forfeiture: [But see Example (c) of Article 386]

(f) Transfer to service on the Household establishment of the Viceroy.

(g) Time occupied in transit from one appointment to another, provided that the officer is transferred under the orders of competent authority, or, if he is a non-gazetted officer, with the consent of the head of his old office.

421 The authority who sanctions the pension may commute retrospectively periods of absence without leave into leave without allowances.

Condonation of Interruptions and Deficiencies.

422. Upon such conditions as it may think fit, in each case, to impose—

(i) The Government of India may condone all interruptions in service not exceeding twelve months in all; and the Local Government may condone all interruptions not exceeding three months in all.

- (ii) If the proposed pension does not exceed fifty rupees a month, the Government of India may condone interruptions in service whatever their duration: and the Local Government may exercise the same power if the applicant for pension is serving on a Provincial Establishment; otherwise it may condone interruptions not exceeding twelve months in all.

NOTE.—[The Local Government may condone short interruption between Settlement or Survey and subsequent qualifying service, and declare the whole to be continuous for the purposes of Article 381(b) when from the extreme shortness of the break, or from the ascertained circumstances of the case it is satisfied that the intention was to keep the officer continuously employed and that the break was presumably due to faulty arrangements. This power should not be exercised when the circumstances clearly indicate that such a presumption would be incorrect, as for example, in a case when even a short period of temporary service had intervened.]

423. (1) Upon any conditions which it may think fit to impose, the Government of India or, if the applicant for pension be serving on a Provincial establishment, the Local Government may, in all cases, condone a deficiency of 3 months in qualifying service. If the applicant for pension be serving on an Imperial establishment, the Local Government may not condone a deficiency of more than one month.

(2) (a) If, besides his qualifying service, an officer has rendered service (actual) paid from the General Revenues, but not counting for pension, or if an officer claiming a pension for Superior service has also rendered Inferior service, the Government of India or, if the officer be serving on a Provincial establishment, the Local Government may condone a deficiency in the officer's qualifying service not exceeding half his non-qualifying, or, as the case may be, Inferior service, and, also, not exceeding twelve months in all.

(b) The Local Government may, if the applicant for pension is serving on an Imperial Establishment, condone in these cases a deficiency not exceeding one-fourth the officer's non-qualifying, or as the case may be, Inferior service and also not exceeding three months.

NOTE—[The two clauses of this section are alternative and not cumulative.]

423 A. When the pension may be sanctioned under the rules by a subordinate authority, that authority may exercise the power conferred by Articles 422 and 423 (1) as follows:—

Under 422 clause (i) up to two months.

Under 422 clause (ii) up to six months.

Under 423 clause (1) up to two months.

Chapter XVIII.—Conditions of Grant of Pension.

Section I.—Classification of Pensions.

424. Pensions for "Superior service" are divided into four classes the rules for which are prescribed in the following Sections of this Chapter:—

- (a) Compensation pensions (see Section II).

PART IV.

- (b) Invalid pensions (see Section III).
- (c) Superannuation pensions (see Section IV).
- (d) Retiring pensions (see Section V).

425. Pensions for "Inferior service" are regulated by Articles 481 to 485.

Section II.—Compensation Pension.

426. A compensation pension is awarded to an officer discharged (1) from the public service because, on a reduction of establishment, his appointment is abolished and other suitable employment cannot be found for him. An appointment, the pay of which is reduced as part of a general scheme of revision, is abolished within the meaning of this Article. But in such case it may sometimes be cheaper to grant a personal allowance than a pension.

NOTE.—The Government of India has decided that the procedure was proper. The Government of India has decided that the procedure was proper.

10th September 1870.]

427. To pension an officer still capable of useful service is a waste of public money. It is urged on abolition. It cannot be otherwise. It is an application for Compensation. It has been found impossible to provide suitable employment for the applicant.

Selection for Discharge.

428. The selection of the officers to be discharged upon the reduction of an establishment should prima facie be so made that the least charge for Compensation pension will be incurred.

429. The discharge of one officer to make room for another better qualified is not the abolition of an appointment within the meaning of Article 426; the abolition must produce a real saving to Government. Particulars of the saving effected should be fully set forth in every application for Compensation pension. The saving should always exceed the cost of the pension; otherwise it may perhaps be better to postpone the reduction of establishment or abolition of appointment.—(See orders printed as Appendix 8.)

NOTE.—[The relaxation of the condition laid down in this Article requires the sanction of the Government of India.]

Restrictions.

430. A Deputy Collector, Munsiff, or similar officer who belongs to the public service, apart from his particular local appointments cannot obtain a Compensation pension on the abolition of a particular appointment.

431. No pension is admissible to an officer for the loss of an appointment on discharge after the completion of a specified term of service.

432. No pension may be awarded for the loss of a local allowance.

433. Schoolmasters or other officers who, in addition to their other duties, are employed in any capacity in the Postal Department, are not entitled to Compensation pension on being relieved of such duties.

Special Cases.

434. If it is necessary to discharge an officer in consequence of a change in the nature of the duties of his office, the case should be referred to the Local Government, who will deal with it in accordance with the rules laid down in this Section as to notice of discharge and compensation pension or gratuity.

of India.

Notice of Discharge.

435. Reasonable notice should be given to an officer in permanent employment before his services are dispensed with on the abolition of his office. If in any case, notice of at least three months is not given, and the officer has not been provided with other employment on the date on which his services are dispensed with, then, with the sanction of the Local Government, a gratuity not exceeding his emoluments for the period by which the notice actually given to him falls short of three months, may be paid to him, in addition to the pension to which he may be entitled under Articles 474 to 481; but the pension shall not be payable for the period in respect of which he receives a gratuity in lieu of notice. The responsible officer will, however, be required to explain any neglect on his part which may give rise to expenditure for such a gratuity.

and the notice not been given him]

Offer of Re-employment.

437. An officer discharged with a Compensation pension may not, without surrendering his pension, refuse to accept any appointment which the Local Government thinks fit within six months from the date of his discharge, to offer to him. The salary of such new appointments must not, however, be less than enough to raise his total receipts, under the operation of Article 514, to the amount which he received as salary immediately before his discharge, nor should the new appointment be such as the officer cannot reasonably and equitably be expected to accept.

438 The rule in Articles 511 and 512, requiring the refund of a Compensation gratuity on re-employment, applies to a gratuity awarded under Article 436, if the officer is permanently re-employed within three months from the date of notice. But the officer need not refund that proportion of his gratuity under this rule which the interval of his non-employment bears to the whole period for which the gratuity is given. If the officer is re-employed only temporarily, he need refund no part of his gratuity; but if such temporary employment is foreseen, the gratuity should be proportionately reduced.

439 Article 437 applies also to the case of an officer entitled to Compensation pension, who, upon the abolition of his own appointment, is transferred by competent authority to another appointment. To such an officer a Compensation pension may be simultaneously awarded, subject always to the limitation prescribed by Article 511.

Acceptance of new Appointment.

440. If an officer who is entitled to Compensation pension accepts instead another appointment in the public service, and subsequently becomes again entitled to receive a pension of any class, the amount of such pension shall not be less than he could have claimed if he had not accepted the appointment.

Section III.—Invalid Pension.

441 An Invalid pension is at vice, to an officer who by bodily tated for the public service, or f belongs.

Rules regarding Medical Certificates.

the head
incapac.
ty for service must be established by a medical certificate attested as follows:—

(a) If the officer submitting it is on leave in England— by the Medical Board at the India Office.

(b) If he is serving at or near the capital town of a Province—by the Administrative Medical Officer of the Province, or by a Medical Committee over which the Administrative Medical Officer should, when practicable, preside.

(c) If he is an officer in Superior service, and is serving in the interior of the country under such circumstances that, in the opinion of the authority who sanctions the pension, he can be conveniently required to appear before a Medical Invaliding Committee—by such Committee.

(d) In other cases, the authority who sanctions the pension may either accept a certificate given by a single Commissioned Medical Officer or Medical Officer in charge of a civil station, or assemble a special Invaliding Committee at a convenient civil station.

(e) If the pension applied for exceeds Rs. 100 a month, a certificate by a single Medical Officer should not be accepted as sufficient, if it is possible, without undue inconvenience, to assemble an Invaliding Committee or to cause the applicant to appear before the Director-General, Indian Medical Department, or the Standing Medical Committee at the Presidency.

(f) Except in the case of an officer on leave in England, no medical certificate of incapacity for service may be granted unless the applicant produces a letter to show that the head of his office or department is aware of his intention to appear before the Medical Officer. The Medical Officer shall also be supplied by the head of the office or department in which the applicant is employed, with a statement of what appears from official records to be the applicant's age. Where the applicant has a service book, the age there recorded should be reported.

443. (a) A succinct statement of the medical case, and of the treatment adopted, should, if possible, be appended.

(b) If the Examining Medical Officer, although unable to discover any specific disease in the officer, considers him incapacitated for further service by general debility while still under the age of fifty-five years, he should give detailed reasons for his opinion, and, if possible, a second medical opinion should always in such a case be obtained.

(c) In a case of this kind, special explanation will be expected from the head of the office or department of the grounds on which it is proposed to invalid the officer.

444. A simple certificate that inefficiency is due to old age or natural decay from advancing years, is not sufficient in the case of an officer whose recorded age is less than fifty-five years, but a Medical Officer is at liberty, when certifying that the officer is incapacitated for further service by general debility, to state his reasons for believing the age to be understated. An officer's pension should not be reduced under Article 478 (a) on the ground of such a belief having been expressed unless it is clearly shown by the medical and other evidence that the age has been intentionally understated.—[See clauses (b) and (c) of the preceding Article.]

Form of Medical Certificate in England.

445. The form of the medical certificate given by the Medical Board attached to the India Office, respecting an officer applying for pension in England is as follows:—

“We have carefully examined Mr.

Taking into account all the facts of the case as well as his present condition we consider that he is incapable of discharging the duties of his situation, and that such incapability is likely to be permanent. We therefore recommend that he be permitted to retire from the service of Government on the pension or gratuity for which he may be eligible."

PART IV.

446. If any doubt arises regarding the validity of a certificate by the Medical Board attached to the India Office, the Audit Officer must not of his own motion reject the certificate as invalid, but must submit the matter for the decision of the Local Government.

Form of Medical Certificate in India.

447. (a) The form of the certificate to be given respecting an officer applying for pension in India is as follows:—

Certified that I (we) have carefully examined A B, son of C D, a _____ in the _____

_____ His age is by his own statement _____ years, and by appearance about _____ years. I (we) consider A B to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind [or in the Department to which he belongs] in consequence of (here state disease or cause). His incapacity does not appear to me (us) to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

NOTE.—[If the incapacity is obviously the result of intemperance, substitute for the last sentence: "In my (our) opinion, his incapacity is the result of irregular or intemperate habits."]

(If the incapacity does not appear to be complete and permanent, the certificate should be modified accordingly and the following addition should be made :) I am (we are) of opinion that A B is fit for further service of a less laborious character than that which he has been doing [or may, after resting for _____ months, be fit for further service of a less laborious character than that which he has been doing].

(b) The object of the alternative certificate (of partial incapacity) is that an officer should, if possible, be employed even on lower pay, so that the expense of pensioning him may be avoided. If there be no means of employing him even on lower pay, then he may be admitted to pension; but it should be considered whether, in view of his capacity for partially earning a living, it is necessary to grant to him the full pension admissible under rule. The principle of Article 427 must always be carefully borne in mind.

Signallers in the Telegraph Department.

448. (a) In the case of Signallers in the Indian and Indo-European Telegraph Departments, the medical certificate prescribed by Article 447 may, if it is found after medical examination that it cannot be granted, be dispensed with in special cases when inefficiency is not the result of misconduct, and instead of it two certificates—

(i) one in form A signed by two superior officers of the Telegraph Department; and

- (ii) the other in form B signed by the Director-General of Telegraphs—may be substituted.

FORM A. "We certify that, after a perusal of the records of A B's service and of the report of his immediate superior during the last twelve months of his service, we are satisfied that he is permanently incapacitated for the duties of a Signaller in the Telegraph Department."

FORM B "After a careful consideration of A B's case, I concur with Messrs. C and D in thinking that he is permanently incapacitated for the duties of a signaller in the Telegraph Department, and accordingly recommend that he may be permitted to retire on the pension or gratuity for which he may be found eligible."

(b) The practice enjoined in Articles 447 (b) and 453 of re-employing pensioners should be carefully followed as far as practicable in these cases.

(c) Officers permitted to retire under this Article may be granted a pension or gratuity of only four-fifths of the amount that would be admissible for a man permanently unfit for any duty.

NOTE—[This Article applies only to men who are "Signallers", including in that term Telegraph Masters who are members of the signalling staff, when they retire.]

Special Precautions in the Police.

449. District Superintendents of Police should be on their guard against endeavours to retire on Invalid pension by officers who are capable of serving longer.

450. Medical Officers should confine themselves to recommending leave to such policemen as are not likely to benefit by a further stay in hospital, and should not certify that a policeman is incapacitated for further service unless they are officially requested to report upon his incapacity for further service.

451. Medical Officers should be specially searching in their examination of the physical unfitness of every applicant for pension, and, whenever the number of applicants for pensions is large, the examination should, if possible, be conducted by two Medical Officers.

Restrictions.

452. An officer discharged on other grounds has no claim under Article 441, even although he can produce medical evidence of incapacity for service.

453. Article 427 applies, mutatis mutandis, in the case of an officer invalided under Article 441 as unfit for employment only in some particular branch of the public service. Every effort should be made to find for such an officer other employment suited to his particular capacity.

454. If the incapacity is directly due to irregular or intemperate habits, no pension can be granted. If it has not been directly caused by such habits, but has been accelerated or aggravated by them, it will be for the authority by which the pension is grantable to decide what reduction should be made on this account.

PART IV.

Applicant to be discharged.

455. An officer who has submitted under Article 442 a medical certificate of incapacity for further service, must not (except for special reasons to be reported to the Local Government) be retained in active service pending a decision on his application for pension, nor can he obtain leave of absence except Subsidiary leave preparatory to retirement. Without the further special sanction of the Local Government, service after the date of a medical certificate does not count for pension.

456. The object of Article 455 is to discourage tentative applications; but an inferior servant (including in that term a Police officer whose pay does not exceed Rs. 20) who, in the opinion of the head of his office, is fit for light work may be retained in employment till his pension is sanctioned, provided that his place is not filled up till he retires, and that his service counts only to the date of his medical certificate.

457. Article 455 refers only to the retention in active service of an officer who has furnished a medical certificate in support of an application for Invalid pension or gratuity while in India. The retirement of an officer who is absent on leave other than Privilege leave, when such certificate is submitted, may have effect from the termination of his leave, and the officer may continue to draw leave allowance to the end of his leave.

Section IV.—Superannuation Pension.

458. A Superannuation pension is granted to an officer in superior service entitled or compelled, by rule, to retire at a particular age.

459. (a) An officer who has attained the age of 55 may be required to retire by the Local Government under which he is employed. The Local and before the expiry of each extension of service. In every case the extension should be given for not more than one year at a time.

(d) An officer who has attained the age of 60 cannot be retained in the service of Government save in very exceptional circumstance, and with the sanction of the Local Government.

460. An officer, who is compelled to retire under the preceding Article or who retires voluntarily under Article 461, and part of whose service has been Inferior, is entitled to pension on the same conditions as if he had been invalided under Article 481 and to the option allowed by Article 398.

Survey of India.

461. Officers in the Survey of India, of not lower rank than Sub-Assistant Superintendent, cease to be in employ on attaining the age of 55 years, unless specially permitted by the Secretary of State, in the interests of the public service, to remain in the Department for a further definite period.

of State for information.

462.—Cancelled.

Procedure.

463 With a view to the issue of necessary orders as to retention or otherwise of officers to whom Article 459¹ applies, the Audit Officer should on or about the 1st of September in each year, submit to the authorities concerned (vide Article 459 and Appendix No. 1) a list of those who will attain the age of 55, or complete the term for which extension has been allowed, during the next official year.

Optional Retirement at Fifty-five.

464. An officer in Superior service who has attained the age of 55 years may, at his option, retire on a Superannuation pension.

Section V.—Retiring Pension.

465. A Retiring pension is granted to an officer who voluntarily retires after completing qualifying Superior service for thirty years or such less time as may for any special class of officers be prescribed.

466.—(See Article 509-A.)

Combined Appointments.

467. An officer holding two or more separate appointments may not, save with the express sanction of the Government of India in the Finance Department or, if pensions are a Provincial charge, of the Local Government, resign one or more of such appointments on a pension, without retiring from the public service altogether. There is no objection to his being relieved from one or more of such appointments at any time, without being compelled to leave the service altogether; but in such case, any pension admissible to him for service in the office or offices from which he is relieved, will be deferred until he finally retires

Currency.

469 A pension is fixed in rupees, and not in sterling money, even though it is to be paid in England.

Award of Full Pension.

470. (a) The full pension admissible under the rules is not to be given as a matter of course, or unless the service rendered has been really approved. (See Appendix 9.)

(b) If the service has not been thoroughly satisfactory, the authority sanctioning the pension should make such reduction in the amount as it thinks proper Limitations.

471 An officer entitled to pension may not take a gratuity instead of pension.

NOTE.—[See the note under Article 807.]

472 In the case of an officer who has any service under the Imperial (British) Government, pension from Indian Revenues should not be fixed until it has been ascertained whether any pension is payable from Imperial funds in respect of the service under the British Government.

473. An officer, not being a Military officer or a member of the Indian Civil Service, transferred to service under a Colonial Government, on final retirement from the Colonial service on pension or compensation allowance, receives, from Indian Revenues, for each completed year of qualifying and uninterrupted service in India, a pension of one-sixtieth of his average emoluments at the time of his transfer, such average emoluments to be calculated for the last three years, or, if the whole service in India is less than three years, for the whole period of service. The pension is subject to a maximum limit of Rs. 2,000 a year for an Indian service not exceeding ten years and Rs. 1,000 a year in any other case.

NOTE.—[The sanction of the Government of India is required to the transfer of an officer to any service of the description mentioned in this Article.]

Section II.—Amount of Superior Pension.

474. The amount of a pension is regulated as follows:—

(a) After a service of less than ten years, a gratuity not exceeding (except in special cases, and under the orders of the Government of India) one month's emoluments for each completed year of service. If the emoluments of the officer have been reduced during the last three years of his service, otherwise than as a penalty, average emoluments may, at the discretion of the Local Government, be substituted for emoluments.

(b) After a service of not less than ten years a pension not exceeding the following amounts:—

NOTE.—[For the precise meaning of average emoluments, see Articles 486 and 487.]

475. Officers holding any of the appointments enumerated below and belonging to what was formerly termed the Uncovenanted Service, may be allowed by the Local Government an additional pension of Rs. 1,000 a year, provided that they have rendered not less than three years of effective service (that is, service of the same nature as that which, under the provisions of Article 641, counts for the special pensions admissible under Article 642) in such appointment, and provided also that in each case during such service the officer has shown such special energy and efficiency as may be considered deserving of the concession. In the case of officers entering Government service after the 31st December 1909, the grant of the additional pension is subject to the further condition that they must, in the event of Voluntary retirement, have completed, twenty-eight years of qualifying service. Voluntary retirement for the purpose of this rule should be taken as retirement under Articles 461 and 465.

Regulations, means the emoluments which the officer was receiving immediately before his retirement and includes—

- (a) Pay;
- (b) Personal allowance; continues to reckon as part of "Emoluments" even when it is wholly or partly absorbed in acting allowance not so reckoning;
- (c) Fees or commission, if they are the authorised emoluments of an appointment, and are in addition to pay. In this case "Emoluments" means the average earnings for the last six months of service;
- (d) Charge allowance to Signallers in the Indian and Indo-European Telegraph Departments, and to Inspectors for line maintenance in the Persian Section, Indo-European Telegraph Department,
- (e) Commission in the case of a Thugyi in Lower Burma. "Emoluments" in this case being held to mean the average of his monthly receipts in commission during the three years' actual service previous to retirement—but see example (3) under Article 489;
- (f) Bullock Train allowance in the Post Office Department;
- (g) Allowance attached to a Professorship or Lecturership in a Government Institution;
- (h) Acting allowances of an officer without a substantive appointment if the acting service counts under Article 371, and allowances drawn by an officer appointed provisionally or substantively pro tempore to an office which is substantively vacant and on which no officer has a lien, or to an office temporarily vacant in consequence of the absence of the permanent incumbent on leave without allowances, or on transfer to Foreign service.

1. In the case of Section-writers and Press servants, whose service qualifies under Article 380 "Emoluments" means the average earnings of the last six months of service. For calculating gratuity on the Superior scale, "Emoluments" means the average earnings of the last six months in Superior service, and for calculating pension on the Inferior scale, Pay means the average earnings of the last six months in Inferior service.

487. The term "Average Emoluments" means the average calculated upon the last three years of service circumstances that the period of suspension does not count as service, the periods so passed should be disregarded in the calculation of the average, an equal period before the three years being included.

3. Excepting as provided in rules 1 and 2, only emoluments actually received can be included in the calculation. For example, when an officer is allowed to count time retrospectively towards increase of pay, but does not receive retrospectively the intermediate periodical increments, these intermediate increments are not reckoned in the calculations.

Allowances which do not count.

488. An officer cannot count the following allowances:—

allowances, including allowances given for duties performed in addition to the work of a regular appointment; ig allowances, Working allowances, and Provision allowances officers in the Marine Department; -rent allowance, or estimated value of free quarters; and other allowances (to officers who accompany the Viceroy any Government), nsation for dearness of provisions and not that drawn in respect of the temporary duty, is taken into consideration in determining the amount of pension.

491. The preceding article does not apply to an officer deputed temporarily to service in the Income Tax Department, or to an officer deputed on abolition of his appointment to special duty (Article 379), or to an officer who, when his appointment was abolished, was on special duty. In these cases the full allowances are counted.

Combination of Appointments.

492. If an officer has held more than one appointment, in respect of each of which, if he had held it separately and alone, pension would have been admissible to him, the pension admissible to him is the sum of the several pensions which would have been admissible to him if he had held each office separately and alone. The consolidated pension thus admissible is subject to the limitations prescribed in Articles 474 to 480 and 481.

493. An officer is not entitled for service in an office conjointly with another office, to any pension which would not have been admissible to him if he had held the office separately and alone.

Chapter XX.—Special Rules for the Police.

Section I.—Extent of Application.

Government Police.

494. The rules in this Chapter apply to—

(1) Members of Police Forces constituted under Acts XIII of 1856, XXIV of 1859, and V of 1861 of the Governor-General of India in Council, Act IV of 1866 of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council and Acts VII of 1867 and I of 1872 of the Governor of Bombay in Council.

(2) The Trans-Indus Police Force, which was not organised under Act V of 1861 until the 4th August 1873, and never possessed a Superannuation Fund.

(3) Members of the Salt Preventive Force employed on the Northern Frontier line, at the Runn Salt Works in the Bombay Presidency and on the Salt Preventive Lines on the Goa and Daman frontiers, though the Forces to which they belong are not constituted under any Act of the Legislature, and never possessed a Superannuation Fund.

(4) Members of the Police Force serving in the Baluchistan Agency, and sowars of the Somali Coast Mounted Police Force, although the Forces are not constituted under any Act of the Legislature.

Municipal Police.

495. (a) If the Police of a town are wholly supported by, and under the control of, a Municipality, the Government has no concern with their pensions.

(b) But if the Government, being interested in the efficiency of a Police Force, paid, wholly or partly, by a Municipality, the Calcutta Port Trust, or from Cantonment Funds, or from the General Revenues subsidised by a contribution from a Municipality, the Calcutta Port Trust, or from Cantonment Funds, undertakes the organisation and control of the Force, as connected with and auxiliary to the Civil Constabulary, service in such a Force qualifies. The contributions of Municipalities, the Calcutta Port Trust, or of Cantonment Funds towards the cost of the pensions of such Forces are, for the present, undetermined.

496. The Police Force in the Presidency towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and in the Municipalities in Lower Bengal, come under clause (b) of the preceding Article.

497.—Omitted.

Railway Police.

498. The service of members of the Railway Police, appointed and controlled by Government, qualifies, though they may be either wholly or partly paid by the Railway Companies.

Section II.—Qualifying Service.

499. Service in any of the Police Forces mentioned in Article 494, after the establishment of a Superannuation Fund in the Force, qualifies.

NOTE 1.—[The Superannuation Funds were Funds to which, with the exception of certain soldiers of the Sikh Darbar and members of the Oudh Military Police, Police officers whose pay did not exceed Rs 20 were obliged to contribute. In return for these contributions, they became entitled to pensions according to the rules of the several Funds.]

whether, in the latter case, the subscriptions recovered from them on account of the Police Superannuation Fund should not be refunded.

"In reply, I am to say that, as a general rule, the subscriptions recovered from the employés in question should be refunded to them with interest, and their claims to pensions will then be dealt with in accordance with the ordinary rules for inferior servants. In the case, however, of men who have served for not less than ten years, the option should be allowed them either of receiving back their subscriptions and coming under the ordinary pension rules, or of continuing their subscriptions and eventually receiving pensions under the special rules for the Police."—[Finance Department to Bombay, No 1051d, dated 23rd June 1876.]

500. Men of the Police Force of the Cities of Bombay and Calcutta who have served the full time for pension in the Force and who joined the Force before the 1st April 1836 and 27th December 1905, the respective dates of the abolition of the Superannuation Funds, are on being invalided, admitted to the benefits of the Superannuation Fund on paying up their subscriptions for the full period of their service. Under this rule the service of an officer in the Bombay and Calcutta City Police before the establishment of the Superannuation Fund counts towards pension under the rules of the Funds if he pays up his subscriptions for the whole period of his service in the Police Force.

1. This privilege applies only to Police officers whose pensions are determined according to the rules of the Superannuation Fund of the Bombay or Calcutta City Police, and not to any officer whose pension is granted in accordance with the rules prescribed in Chapters XVIII and XIX for the calculation of pensions for Superior service Service before enlistment.

501. In the following cases service rendered before enlistment in the present Police Constabulary qualifies :—

(a) Soldiers transferred to the Police on reduction of the Native Army count their Army service.

1. This concession does not apply to a soldier voluntarily taking his discharge from the Army and entering the Police, except as to soldiers who, under the authority of the order in the Military Department, No 526 E. S., dated 25th October 1880, volunteered for service in the Port Blair Police

(b) Service in Superior grades in any other Department qualifies.

(c) Service in the Bombay Excise (Abkari) Police, before that Force was amalgamated with the Bombay District Police, qualifies.

(d) Native Commissioned officers and men of the Army who volunteer for transfer to the levies and Military Police raised in Burma, in consequence of the annexation of Upper Burma, are allowed to count their Army service for pension under the rules applicable to the Police in that Province.

(e) A subadar or jemadar of the Bengal or Assam Military Police, recruited from the Army or from a local corps, and Native Officers and men of the Dera Ghazi Khan Border Military Police recruited from the Army count service as follows :—

- (i) a man recruited from the Army will be eligible for pension under the civil rules (counting both his past Military and Police service) on completion of ten years' service in the Military Police. If he retires with less than ten years' service in the Police, he will be granted pension on the Military scale according to his rank for the whole period of his service including service in the Police.

- (ii) a man recruited from a local corps, may count half his service in such corps towards Civil pension.

NOTE—[Pensions granted to men who count Army service under the foregoing rules are, if their Military service was sufficient to entitle them to pension if discharged without fault,

Section III.—Amount of Pension.

Officers on pay not exceeding Rs. 20.

503. The pension admissible to an officer whose pay at date of discharge or resignation does not exceed twenty rupees, will be determined as prescribed in Article 503, according to one of the following scales.—

Scale A—According to the rules of the Superannuation Fund of the Force.

1 As the rules of the Superannuation Fund did not always provide for Compensation pension the following orders were issued with reference to the reductions directed in 1860.—

(1) Compensation pension should be awarded at the same rate as the Superannuation Fund Rules provide for Invalid pensions

(2) But if a gratuity thus awardable is less than the amount (without interest) of the officer's subscription to the Fund, the difference should be made up

Scale B—According to the rules prescribed in Chapters XVII to XIX for the calculation of pensions for Superior service; except that all service in the Police after the age of eighteen years qualifies.

NOTE—[Policemen in the lower ranks of the Madras City Police, on salaries not exceeding Rs. 20 a month, who enlisted after the 19th July 1871, may retire on pension without medical certificate after twenty-five years' service]

504. (a) The pension of an officer of the Town Police of Calcutta who was in the Force before the 27th December 1905, and of an officer of the Town Police of Bombay who was in the Force before the 1st April 1886, is regulated by Scale A

(b) The pension of an officer of the Town Police of Bombay, if he was enlisted or re-enlisted on or after 1st April 1886, is regulated by Scale B.

505. The pension of an officer of any other Force is regulated as follows :—

(a) If he was in the Police before the 19th July 1871 and has served continuously since that date, by Scale A or Scale B according to his election.

(b) If he was enlisted or re-enlisted on or after the 19th July 1871, by Scale B.

(c) The pension of an officer enlisted in the Calcutta or Suburban Police Force on or after 27th December 1905 is regulated by Scale B. The pension of an officer who was enlisted before 27th December 1905 and subscribed to the Police Superannuation Fund, and whose pay at the date of discharge does not exceed Rs. 20 is, on his being invalided, regulated by Scale A, provided he pays up his subscriptions from the 27th December 1905 to the date of his retirement. Failing such payments his pension or gratuity is regulated by Scale B.

Officers on pay exceeding Rs. 20.

506. The pension admissible to an officer whose pay at date of discharge or resignation exceeds twenty rupees, is determined by the rules which apply to ordinary service, except that service rendered after the completion of twenty years of age, and declared by this Chapter to be qualifying, is treated as Superior service, and that the benefit of Article 502 is not withdrawn from a Police officer by reason of his being promoted to pay exceeding twenty rupees a month.

1. When a Police officer, by promotion to a pay exceeding twenty rupees, loses any benefit as to pension which he would have enjoyed had his pay remained unchanged, his pension may be regulated as if he had not received the promotion.

2. Men of the Bombay City Police count as Superior their service [in the Force in Inferior grades before the establishment of the Superannuation Fund]

Previous Inferior Service.

507. If part of an officer's continuous service qualifies for pension under the general rules, but does not qualify under the rules in this Chapter he may elect to receive, in lieu of the pension admissible under this Chapter, such pension as is admissible to him under Articles 398 and 481 to 483 for the whole of his service, both Inferior and Superior (see Article 460).

508. An officer who, under Article 503, has elected to abide by Scale B will, if he takes gratuity under the preceding Article, obtain, in lieu of the scale prescribed in Article 481, one month's pay for every complete two years of service, but not more than twelve months' pay in all.

Calculation of Pension.

509. Except in the case of officers of the Town Police of Calcutta, and of officers of the Town Police of Bombay who were in the Force before the 1st April 1886 (Article 501), pension is to be calculated upon the net pay, i.e., the pay actually received by the officer, and not upon the gross pay, i.e., the pay from which were deducted the subscriptions to the Superannuation Funds [see concluding sentence of Note (1) to Article 499]. But this rule shall not, unless he be either promoted to higher pay or degraded for misconduct to lower pay, be applied to any officer who, on the 19th July 1871, was entitled, by the rules of the Superannuation Fund, to have his pension calculated on his gross pay.

PART IV.

Chapter XXI.—Re-employment of Pensioners.

Section I.—General.

509 A. No officer, Civil or Military, may retire with the view of being re-employed, and drawing pension in addition to pay, whether in the general service or in the service of any Local Fund.

510. When a person who was formerly in Government employ, either Civil or Military, is re-employed whether temporarily or permanently in Government service or in the service of a Local Fund, it shall be incumbent on him to declare the amount of any gratuity, bonus or pension received by him on retirement. The authority re-appointing him shall specifically state in the order of re-appointment whether any deduction is to be made from pension or salary as required by the rules of this Chapter and shall communicate a copy of the order to the Audit Officer.

510 A. The attention of every officer who is re-employed should be specially called to the provisions of this Chapter by the authority re-employing him, and, whenever he becomes aware of such an appointment, by the Audit Officer; but the failure of such authority to do this will not be admitted as a ground for condoning any breach of the regulations contained in this Chapter.

Section II.—Civil Pensioners.

Re employment after Compensation Gratuity.

511. An officer who has obtained a Compensation gratuity, if re-employed in qualifying service, may either retain his gratuity, in which case his former service will not count for future pension, or refund it and count his former service.

512. The intention to refund must be stated immediately on re-employment, but the refund may be made by monthly instalments of not less than one-third of the officer's salary, and also not less than the whole gratuity divided by the number of months which have elapsed since the end of the service for which the gratuity was given. The right to count previous service does not revive till the whole amount is refunded.

NOTE.—[The equity of this rule is based upon the consideration that so long as the refund of the gratuity is postponed the officer avoids the risk and the State loses the possibility of the gratuity lapsing absolutely to the public treasury by the death or dismissal of the officer. A subsequent refund of a gratuity, even with compound interest, does not compensate the State for the loss of this possibility meanwhile.]

513.—(See 510 A)

After Compensation Pension.

514. (a) An officer who has obtained a Compensation pension, if re-employed, may retain his pension in addition to his pay: Provided that, if he is re-employed on an establishment paid from General Revenues, the pension shall remain wholly or partly in abeyance, if the sum of the pension and the pay on re-employment exceeds the pay of the appointment on abolition of which the pension was given; that is to say, an officer can draw pension only in order to make up his present aggregate emoluments to what he drew at the time of his retirement. In the case however of a pensioner re-employed, in either a permanent or temporary appointment, for bonâ fide temporary duty lasting for not more than a year, the Local Government or, in cases where the pension does not exceed Rs. 10 a month, the officer who controls the establishment on which the pensioner is to be employed, may allow pension to be drawn in whole or in part, even though the sum total of pay and pension exceeds the pay which the officer drew on retirement.

(b) If his re-employment is in qualifying service, he may either retain his pension (subject to the proviso above stated), in which case his former service will not count for future pension, or cease to draw any part of his pension and count his previous service. Pension intermediately drawn need not be refunded.

NOTE — [An officer counts his previous service under clause (b) if on re-employment his pension remains wholly in abeyance under the proviso to clause (a). See also the note to Article 316.]

Exception.—Medical Officers of the Administrative grades—namely, Surgeon-Generals and Colonels—are not compelled to retire from the service, until they attain the age of 60 years.

613. The undermentioned officers cease to be in Civil employ on attaining the age of 55 years:—

(c) Departmental Officers and Warrant Officers.

614. On succession to the Colonel's allowance, a Military Officer (not holding an appointment the tenure of which is limited to five years) must vacate any Civil appointment which he then holds. But, with the sanction of the Secretary of State in Council, he is eligible for re-appointment or for employment in the same or any other appointment, at the discretion of the Government of India in the Military Department. In such a case, his Civil pay will be reduced by the amount of his Colonel's allowance, which will be included in, and not given in addition to, his consolidated salary.

Officers of the Royal Engineers holding rank below that of Chief Engineer, 1st class, vacating office under this rule are not ordinarily eligible for re-appointment to the Public Works or Railway Department, but exceptions to this rule may, at the discretion of the Government of India, be made in the case of officers who, on account of specially accelerated Military promotion for distinguished service in the field, have reached the rank of Major-General without attaining the departmental rank of Chief Engineer, 1st class.

659. In the State Railway Revenue Establishment the different classes of service are as follow —

(a) Permanent pensionable,—that is, service in all permanent appointments made before 1st September 1881, and service of officers, such as Civil Engineers and members of the Engineer and Upper Subordinate Establishment, who may be transferred to the Revenue Establishment, as Managers, etc., even after 31st August 1881.

The service of an officer in the Traffic Department (appointed before 1st September 1881), before he passed the test examination, does not qualify.

(b) Permanent non-pensionable,—that is, service in all permanent appointments made after 31st August 1881, except as allowed for in clause (a).

(c) Temporary,—that is, service in appointments made from time to time for periods not exceeding twelve months according to the requirements of traffic.

(d) Special service,—that is, service of engine-drivers, firemen and mechanics, etc., under covenant with the Secretary of State, or who, on the expiry of the term of their covenant, have renewed their engagement under a covenant with the Government of India.

660. A subordinate officer transferred before 1st September 1881 from the temporary to the permanent Revenue Establishment of a State Railway may, with the sanction of the Local Government, count towards pension the whole or a part of so much of his temporary service as immediately preceded his qualifying service, without interruption.

Ordinary Leave Rules.

661. (a) Leave on medical certificate with half-pay to the extent of sixty days in any calendar year may, in addition to any leave admissible under the Indian Service Leave Rules in Part III, be granted, at the discretion of the Manager, to drivers and other subordinate employes of the State Railway Revenue Establishment, whose service is classed as Permanent "pensionable" or "non-pensionable" under clauses (a) and (b) of Article 659, and who are not employed exclusively on in-door work, provided the illness has not been caused by the man's misconduct.

(b) It may be granted without prejudice to Privilege leave and in continuation of Privilege leave, or vice versa. (See also Rule 1 under Article 260.)

(c) The leave thus granted is included in the leave to which the limit of three years prescribed in Article 336 applies.

662. Leave to members of superior and subordinate State Railway Revenue Establishments classed as "pensionable" or "non-pensionable" under Article 659, clauses (a) and (b), other than those referred to in the preceding Article, is governed by the ordinary leave rules for European or Indian Services (as the case may be) laid down in Part III.

Special Service Leave Rules.

663. Members of subordinate State Railway Revenue Establishments whose service is classed as "special" under clause (d) in Article 659, may be allowed leave as follows, at the discretion of the Manager.—

(a) Privilege leave on full pay to the extent of one month in twelve, irrespective of the conditions laid down in Article 260. Any subordinate may, however, be permitted to exercise the option of allowing his privilege leave to accumulate up to three months under the usual conditions.

(b) Leave on medical certificate on half-pay to the extent of sixty days in one calendar year, provided that the illness has not been caused by misconduct. This leave may be granted without prejudice to privilege leave, and in continuation of privilege leave, or vice versa. (See also Rule 1 under Article 260.)

(c) In the case of deserving men, the Manager may extend the leave on medical certificate admissible under clause (b) to a maximum of six months in one calendar year.

664. The Manager may grant furlough according to the following scale to any of the officers mentioned in the preceding Article who can be conveniently spared :—

(f) When an officer has earned either first or subsequent furlough, if from any cause it may be found inconvenient to grant him the whole of the furlough earned, an instalment may be granted, leaving the balance at his credit to be taken when convenient, subject, however, to the maximum limit of eighteen months prescribed above.

Labourers.

666. Labourers in State Railway workshops employed upon daily wages when temporarily absent from work in consequence of injuries sustained while on duty in workshops, etc., may, under the authority of the Managers of the State Railways concerned, be granted allowances, during their absence, as under, the amount not to exceed—

727. (a) In the case of members of the Burma Military Police mentioned in clauses (b) to (g) of Article 714, the rules in the Civil Service Regulations apply as regards pensions, except Salutries and Armourers who joined the Upper Burma Military Police from the Army before the 1st January 1889 who are subject as regard pensions to Article 726, clauses (a) to (c).

(b) Pension under the Civil Rules for the period of their past Military as well as their Police service is granted to the Native Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers of the Burma Military Police referred to in clause (a) who have been or may be recruited direct from the Army after 1888, when volunteering was closed, on the condition that they complete 10 years' qualifying service in the Burma Military Police in addition to their service in the Army; but those who retire with less than 10 years' qualifying service in the Burma Military Police will be granted pension on the Military scale according to their rank for the whole period of their service, that in the Police being included. This concession applies only to those men whose services were obtained from the Army on special application.

The passages of followers enlisted in Burma for the Upper Burma Military Police may be paid, with the sanction of the Inspector-General of Police, from the place of enrolment to the place where the follower is to be employed, in cases where the distance between the two places exceeds 50 miles.

The passage by rail and steamer of recruits enlisted in India for the Lower Burma Military Police is also paid by Government from the place of enrolment to the head-quarters of the Battalion.

Note—[Free passages to their homes to members of the Burma Military Police recruited in India and discharged on the termination of their first engagement are admissible under Article 1132, also to those who re-enlist without a break in their service for a further term of service on the expiration of the period of their first engagement and who are discharged on the termination of their further engagement, also to those who re-enlist for no special term and are subject only to the usual two months' notice.]

Return passages to their homes will be granted to the families of officers and men dying in Burma.

725 No travelling allowance may be given to families of men of the Karen (now Lower Chindwin) Battalion who have been ordered on service. Indigenous Battalions are raised to avoid such expenses Wound Leave.

733. An officer compelled to absent himself from duty, in consequence of wounds received in action, or of illness contracted by active service in the field (in circumstances justifying his presence) with a Military force (i.e., service recognised as such by the Government of India), or of illness which was originally contracted on such service, being aggravated or reproduced by subsequent service of a similar nature, may be allowed extraordinary leave on medical certificate, irrespective of the period which has elapsed since his last return from leave of any description. Such leave will not reckon as part of the maximum admissible under general rules, and it will, except as regards the earning of Furlough, count, up to a maximum of 12 months as active service, provided that—

- (a) it must be taken immediately in consequence of the wound or illness, i.e., without any intervening period of active service;
- (b) it is certified by the Medical Board, before which the officer appears, that the disability owing to which leave has become necessary, originated on active service in the field and was solely caused by hardship and exposure undergone or by wounds received, during such service;
- (c) it cannot be combined with any other kind of leave, except Leave on Medical Certificate;

- (d) allowances during such leave will be half average salary, subject to the maxima applicable to ordinary Furlough; and no allowances will be paid for any leave in excess of two years;
- (e) the medical certificate must state the term for which leave is necessary in consequence of the wound or illness, and any extension of that period can be granted only on a fresh medical certificate;
- (f) an interval of three years must intervene between expiry of such leave and Furlough, except in the case of Furlough on medical certificate, when the interval need not exceed six months.

such service.]

Section III.—Injuries Received on Duty.

734. (a) The rules in this Section are analogous to the Regulations for the grant of pensions to soldiers wounded in action and to the heirs of soldiers killed in action, and provide for a pension or gratuity in cases of injury or death:—

- (i) to a man so injured in the execution of a public duty as to be incapacitated for earning a livelihood;
 - (ii) to the family of a man killed in the execution of a public duty;
- (b) They apply to any person employed in the service of the Government, whether permanently, temporarily, or even casually, and when remunerated by fixed pay, or (as, for example, miners in the Salt mines) for piece-work.
- (c) They apply also to a village watchman (including a Municipal chowkidar in the United Provinces) or his family, even though he receives no pay from the State.

735. A Wound or Extraordinary pension or gratuity is granted only when injury or death is met in the performance of a duty which is attended with extraordinary bodily risk. This condition governs the grant of pensions or gratuities under Articles 739 and 740. The Government recognises no claims on account of loss of life or bodily injury resulting from an ordinary accident. The following are examples of cases of ordinary accident:—

736. The Government does not bind itself to grant pension in every case, or, if it grants pension, to grant it for life.

737. The amount of pension is to be regulated by—

- (i) the character and service of the injured or killed;

- (ii) the nature of the risk undergone, and the conduct of the man in accepting it;
- (iii) the nature and extent of the injury received;
- (iv) the pecuniary circumstances and prospects of the claimant.

738. Injuries for the purposes of this Section are classed in four degrees :—

1st Degree.—Men losing two limbs or both eyes from wounds ; or being so severely wounded as to be totally incapable of earning a livelihood and to require the care and assistance of some other person.

2nd Degree.—Men losing one limb or one eye ; or being so disabled as to be incapable of earning a livelihood, though not requiring the care of another person.

3rd Degree.—Men not losing a limb or an eye who have received an injury equal to the loss of a limb, or who are otherwise so disabled as to be capable of contributing in only a small degree towards earning a livelihood.

4th Degree.—Men able to contribute materially towards a livelihood, although unfit, from wounds, for the ordinary duties of the service.

739. A pension or, when a pension is not justified by the circumstances of the case, a gratuity may be granted by the Local Government or the Government of India as follows :—

Pensions.

- (a) by the Local Government, not exceeding Rs. 10 a month.
- (b) by the Government of India, not exceeding—
 - (i) Rs. 100 a month, in the case of State Railway servants.
 - (ii) Rs. 25 a month in other cases.

Gratuities.

- (c) by the Local Government, not exceeding six months' pay and not exceeding Rs. 600.
- (d) by the Government of India, not exceeding six months' pay or Rs. 1,000 whichever is greater.
- (e) by the Railway Board, not exceeding six months' pay or Rs. 3,000, whichever is greater in the case of State Railway servants.

740. Pensions granted under the preceding Article are subject to the following limits :—

- (i) To an officer wounded in the first or second degree, not exceeding full pay.
- (ii) To an officer wounded in the third or fourth degree, not exceeding half pay ; or, if the officer is entitled to an Invalid pension of half pay under the ordinary rules for Superior or Inferior service, then not exceeding three-quarters pay.
- (iii) To the family of an officer killed in the execution of his duty, not exceeding half the pay of the deceased officer, and not less than Rs. 2½ a month.

NOTE—[The term "family" includes only wife, legitimate child, father or mother, dependent upon the deceased for support. The words "for the support of the family" should be inserted in every order sanctioning a pension under this rule.]

741. (a) A pension granted under clause (i) or (ii) of the preceding Article will, unless the pensioner is more than sixty years old (in which case it will be permanent), continue, in the first instance, for two years only.

(b) At the end of eighteen months, the pensioner shall be examined afresh by a Medical Officer in charge of a Civil station, upon whose report the Local Government will decide whether the pension shall be continued or not for a further term, or permanently, and whether the pensioner shall be subjected or not to further medical examination.

742. (a) If a pension is granted to a family under Article 740 (iii), it is allotted for the support of the family to the eldest surviving son:—

- (i) failing sons, to the eldest widow, for the same purpose;
- (ii) failing both sons and widows, to the eldest surviving unmarried daughter, for the same purpose;
- (iii) these failing, to the father, for the same purpose;
- (iv) and failing all others, to the mother for the same purpose.

(b) To a male, pension is given as follows:—

- (i) if the pensioner is under six years of age, till he is eighteen years old;
- (ii) if above six and under fifty years, for twelve years;
- (iii) if not under fifty years, for life.

(c) The pension to a female is for life or until marriage; ⁽¹⁾ but, on her suitable marriage, the Local Government may, at its discretion, grant her five years' pension as a dowry.

NOTE ⁽¹⁾—[A Political, Extraordinary, or other pension granted in the Civil Department to a female infant, native of Asia, shall, in the absence of special orders to the contrary, last until she leaves her own family to cohabit with a husband, or, being married, attains the age of sixteen years, whichever event happens first.]

(d) A pension is given to only one member of each family, and no transfer of the pension to another member is permitted on its lapse either by the demise of the pensioner or for any other reason, or on its remaining in abeyance under the operation of the rules in Chapter XXI.

743. The Government of India have also the power to grant in any case, even where no pension or gratuity is admissible under these rules—

- (a) a gratuity not exceeding Rs. 1,000; or
- (b) when injury or death is due to devotion to duty, a pension not exceeding Rs. 25 a month or a gratuity of equivalent amount.

NOTE—The powers of the Government of India under Clause (a) above may be exercised by the Railway Board in the case of Railway servant.

744. A Local Government may, as a special case, grant a gratuity not exceeding Rs. 20, or two months' pay, whichever is less, to a day-labourer or mechanic injured, or to his representatives if he is killed, in the execution of duty by causes beyond his control, if the injury is not such as to allow of a Wound or Extraordinary pension being granted under the foregoing rules.

NOTE—[The powers of a Local Government under this Article may be exercised by Superintending Engineers in the Public Works Department.]

Section IV.—State Railway Rules.

745. A Local Government having State Railways under its control and Managers of State Railways not under Local Governments may grant a gratuity to any State Railway servant who may be injured, or to the representatives of any State Railway servant who may be killed, by the working of trains or engines, otherwise than through his own negligence or wilful action: provided that such gratuity shall not exceed a sum equal to six months' pay of the servant injured or killed, or a maximum of Rs. 200. If Rs. 200 is considered insufficient, a reference must be made to the Government of India.

1. Officials of the Railway Servants under Article 745 for the representatives of those who may be the Director General of the Post Managers of State Railways in respect of State Railway servants.

Section V.—Procedure.

746. When a claim for Wound or Extraordinary pension arises, the head of the office in which the man killed or injured was employed must hold a formal inquest, taking evidence as to —

- (i) the circumstances under which the injury was received, or the life lost;
- (ii) the relationship (in the case of a death) and the pecuniary circumstances of the claimants.

747. The head of the office will then submit the case, with a statement of the circumstances, through his official superiors, to the Government. The application, which should be in Form No. 25 in the case of a man injured and Form No. 22 in the case of a man killed, should be accompanied by the report of the Audit Officer upon the claim.

Section VI.—Re-employment of Wound Pensioners.

748. A Wound or Extraordinary pension granted under these Regulations, or under Military Rules, to a Native Commissioned officer or a Non-Commissioned officer or soldier for wounds and injuries, may, in the event of the pensioner's subsequent employment in the Civil Department, be, during such employment, reduced or suspended by the Government which granted the pension.

749. If, however, the Wound or Injury pension of a Native Commissioned officer or a Non-Commissioned officer or soldier includes an Invalid pension, he may, if the Wound or Injury pension is withheld, draw the Invalid pension in addition to Civil salary.

Substitute the following for clause (b) (i) of this Article, as inserted by correction slip No. 322, dated the 1st August 1913 :—

- (i) Officers lent to His Majesty's Government or to British Colonies, Protectorates, etc. In such cases, if the loan is to the War Office, a share of the pension ultimately granted to the officer is paid by the War Office under separate arrangements, but if it is to a British Colony or Protectorate, pension contribution is paid during the period of the loan by the employing Government either to the Government of India or to the India Office. When, however, an officer is allowed to take up duties under the War Office, he may in certain circumstances be required to pay a pension contribution in respect of the period of the loan.

General conditions applicable to foreign service.

751. An officer transferred to foreign service remains subject to the general and disciplinary rules which would have applied to him as a servant of Government had he not been so transferred.

752. An officer who belongs to a graded service is allowed the substantive promotion which he would have received had he not been transferred. One who does not belong to a graded service may not, without the sanction of the Local Government by which he was transferred, be given substantive promotion in Government service, or on reversion to that service be appointed transfer. the nature them quali is one on progressive or a time-scale of pay counts time spent in foreign service for increments.

Note—An officer who belongs to a graded service may also be allowed any officiating or temporary promotion, which he would have received had he not been transferred, which counts towards additional pension under Articles 644 (b) and 475, Civil Service Regulations.

753. An officer in foreign service may not elect to withhold contribution and forfeit the right to count as Government service the time spent in foreign employ. The contribution paid by or for him maintains his claim to pension or, if contribution is paid for leave allowance also, to pension and leave allowance in accordance with the rules of the service to which he belongs. Neither he, nor any body which has paid contribution on his behalf, has any right of property in such contribution nor can any claim for refund be entertained.

754. An officer of Government, who is lent on foreign service conditions, may not, except with the sanction of the Government of India, accept a pension or gratuity from his foreign employer in respect of such service.

755 (a). An officer retains while on foreign service a lien upon a substantive office under Government, and when he reverts to Government service, either temporarily or permanently, he resumes substantively the position in his service or establishment which he held when he was transferred, or to which he may have attained in accordance with the rule in Article 752.

(b). If an officer proceeds on leave from his foreign service appointment he shall not ordinarily be considered to revert to Government service unless and until he rejoins his appointment in British service.

Where, however, the foreign service is under the control of the Local Government, to service under which an officer reverts on relinquishing such foreign service, that Government may determine the date on which the officer may be treated as reverting to British service.

756. The salary of an officer appointed to act in a sanctioned appointment in foreign service and the joining time and transit pay of an officer proceeding to, or returning from, foreign service, are regulated in accordance with the rules in Part II of these Regulations.

757. An officer in foreign service under Government draws salary from Government on which he has a lien in his appointment in which he acts. His pay in foreign service is not taken into account in fixing his salary in a Government appointment.

758. When an officer is transferred to foreign service he draws salary from his foreign employer, and contribution is paid to Government, either by or for him, from the date on which he relinquishes charge of his appointment under Government. An officer reverting to duty under Government ceases to draw pay from the foreign employer, and contribution is discontinued from the date on which he resumes charge of his appointment under Government.

759. An officer lent on foreign service conditions to a Native State will not be allowed to retire voluntarily from the British service on pension while remaining in that of the Native State.

NOTE.—For the purpose of this Article, retirement may be assumed to be voluntary unless, under the rules in Parts IV and V of these Regulations, an officer (1) retires on medical certificate, or (2) is discharged on the abolition of his appointment in British service, or (3) is required to retire on attaining a certain age or on completing a certain period of service, or (4) in cases where he is not so required to retire compulsorily, retires on reaching the age of 55 years.

PART VII.—FOREIGN SERVICE AND SERVICE UNDER LOCAL FUNDS.

Chapter XXXIX.—General Definitions and Conditions.

750. Foreign Service is of three kinds, viz. :—

First.—When an officer of Government is allowed to take service under an employer who is not under the orders of Government and is allowed while in such service to maintain his claim to pension and leave in the same way as if he were still in the service of Government.

Examples.—Officers lent to Egypt, or to the Colonies, or to a Native State, or a Port Trust, or a Municipality, or a Railway Company.

Second.—When Government having obtained control over or having received in trust certain funds other than General Revenues, creates special appointments or special establishments at the cost of the said funds for the purpose of exercising such control or trust.

Examples.—Administrators of Native States, Managers of Courts of Wards Estates.

Third.—When additions are made to an existing service or an existing establishment to provide for work which has to be done under the supervision and control of the supervising and controlling officers of the service or establishment, the cost of the additions being charged to, or recovered from, the persons or bodies in whose interest the work is done.

Examples.—Political Agents appointed at the cost of the States concerned; Assistant Opium Agents in Native States and their establishments; establishments employed in Government offices for the control of local funds the members of which are appointed and controlled by Government, but the cost of which is recovered from the Foreign Services or Local Funds.

751. (a) Foreign Service of the first and second kinds qualifies for leave and pension or for pension only in the case of officers transferred by competent authority from qualifying service under Government with the privilege of retaining their title to leave or pension which in all but special cases is made subject to payment of contributions to Government in respect of the cost of such leave or pension.

(b) Foreign Service of the third kind qualifies for leave and pension in the same way as service in the rest of the department or establishment, of which the appointment forms a part; but arrangements are made for the recovery of the cost, as laid down in Chapter XL.

752—Cancelled.

Chapter XL.—Foreign Service of the first and second kinds.

Section I.—Conditions of Foreign Service of the first kind.

Sanction to Transfer.

753. An officer may not be transferred to Foreign Service of the first kind unless the following conditions are complied with :—

(1) The service required of the officer transferred is such as should for Public reasons (and not merely in the interest of the officer concerned) be provided for by a servant of the Government of India.

(ii) The transfer is made by competent authority—

- (a) In the case of transfer to Foreign Service in India the sanction of the Local Government under which the officer is serving is sufficient, provided his pay in Foreign Service does not exceed that specified in clause (iv) of this Article, and that, if transferred to a Native State, he is not allowed any further emoluments other than those specified in Rule III of Appendix No. 31.

NOTE—[In the case of service in a Court of Wards the power of a Local Government under this clause may be exercised by—

(a) the ~~Commissioners of Divisions and Collectors of Districts, in respect of the transfer of non-gazetted subordinates to such appointments under the Court of Wards as can be filled up by them on their own authority]~~

NOTE—[This condition may be relaxed by the Local Government in any case in which the transfer is for not more than one year. It does not apply to the following officers :—

- (i) Assistant Surgeons and Hospital Assistants—employed under Local Bodies, Railway Companies and other bodies to which their services may be lent by the Local Government.
- (ii) Any Government officer appointed to service under the Court of Wards.
- (iii) Officers of the Agricultural and Civil Veterinary Departments—employed under Local Bodies; or under Agricultural Associations or Societies such as those for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

- (iv) The pay admissible shall ordinarily be determined by the following rules, but the Local Government may (subject in the case of transfers to Native States to the rules laid down in Appendix No. 31) sanction conveyance and local allowances in addition thereto, and also travelling allowance under the ordinary rules of the Civil Service Regulations or under the local rules of the foreign employer if those are not more favourable :—

- (a) If an officer is transferred to a post the duties of which are similar to those of the appointment which he held at the time of his transfer, his pay,
 - (1) if he belongs to a graded service, shall not exceed that of the grade to which he would next rise if he remained in British service ;
 - (2) if he does not belong to a graded service, shall not exceed by more than 25 per cent. his pay in British service.

NOTE.—[If at the time of transfer an officer is receiving acting allowance for officiating in an appointment from which it is unlikely that he will revert, his initial pay in Foreign Service may be calculated with reference to his salary at the time of transfer.]

- (b) If an officer is transferred to a post the duties of which entail unusual responsibility and require special capacity, or to a post belonging to a branch of the public service different from that in which he was previously serving, his pay, whether he belongs to a graded service or not, shall not exceed the pay ordinarily allowed for similar duties in British service.

(c) Increases of pay are regulated as follows :—

- (2) In all other cases no increase of pay above the amount sanctioned at the time of transfer will be granted to any officer until he has served for three years in Foreign Service. After that period and subsequently at intervals of not less than three years increments not exceeding 20 per cent. of the original pay in Foreign Service may be allowed on the intimation of the foreign employer, if, in the opinion of the Local Government or the Government of India, as the case may be, the increase is justified both with reference to the qualifications of the officer and the nature of his duties.

- (d) The officiating allowance of an officer appointed to officiate during the absence of a permanent incumbent of a sanctioned appointment in Foreign Service, shall be regulated in accordance with the rules in Part II.

(v) The officer transferred shall remain, while on Foreign Service, subject to the general and disciplinary rules which apply to officers on active Government service.

Substitute the following for the first five lines of this Article :

754. Whatever may be the actual pay and allowances drawn by an officer in Foreign Service from the Government, and of requirement, and of leave allowances, shall be assumed to be as follows :—

(A) If the officer is on a time scale of pay, the pay which he would have drawn from time to time had he remained in British Service.

(B) For officers who are not on a time scale of pay :—

(8th Edition, No. 81, dated 3-1-11)

arrival in India, or date of appointment as an officer was appointed in India	Rs. 400	350
(ii) For each subsequent year of service	100	50
Up to a maximum of	2,500	Twice the maximum Furlough allowance admissible to the officer concerned. (1)

Example (1).—[If the official rate of exchange for the year is 16 pence per rupee, the maximum on which a contribution is required would, in a case in which the maximum furlough allowance is £250 a quarter, be Rs. 2,500 a month, and in one in which it is £120 a quarter, Rs. 1,200 a month.]

Exception.—In the case of an officer promoted from a subordinate grade to any of the special services who was lent to Foreign Service after the 30th August 1905, assumed pay shall be taken as the pay he would draw from time to time on the Government list of the special service.

NOTE 1.—[Percentage deductions (e.g., for Civil Fund in the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service) will be calculated upon the "assumed salary".]

NOTE 2.—[In the case of Royal Engineer officers, the date to be taken for purposes of calculating assumed pay under this Article as the date of arrival in India, will be the date following the completion of two years from date of first commission. In making the calculation, service, both at home and abroad, is to be taken into account.]

(b) If the officer is not a member of any of the above services, then—

(i) If he belongs to a graded service, his name will be retained on it (as seconded), substantive promotion from grade to grade being given to him in due course, and his assumed pay will be that of the grade in which from time to time he is.

NOTE.—(ii) If he does not belong to a graded service, the assumed pay will be that which he last drew in Government service. If, while

760. When any officer lent on foreign service conditions retires from British service (see Article 759) without, at the same time, retiring from the service of his foreign employer, the audit officer shall communicate to the foreign employer through the usual authorities a statement showing the date of retirement and the amount of pension drawn from the British Government with a view of enabling the foreign employer, if so inclined, to revise the existing terms of employment.

761. (a) An officer who during leave desires to take up employment in India must obtain the previous sanction of competent authority thereto. If the post is one which should in the opinion of such authority be filled by a servant of Government he must be transferred in accordance with the rules of this Chapter.

(b) An officer who during leave out of India desires to enter foreign service out of India must obtain the previous sanction of the Secretary of State who will decide whether the officer shall be transferred to foreign service, and, if so, will prescribe the terms of salary and contribution.

(c) From the date on which an officer enters foreign service he ceases to be on leave and to draw leave allowances from Government.

NOTE 1.—The authority referred to in clause (a) of this article is, in the case of a non-gazetted officer, the officer empowered to appoint such officer, and in the case of gazetted officers the Local Government.

NOTE 2.—If it be decided to allow the officer to take up employment without entering foreign service he shall be permitted to draw his furlough allowances in addition to any emoluments paid to him by the employer.

Sanction to transfer to, and pay in, foreign service.

762. Transfer to foreign service is not permissible :—

- (i) unless the transfer is in the public interest, that is, the service is such as should, for public reasons, be rendered by a servant of Government ;
- (ii) unless the officer holds, when his transfer is effected, an appointment in qualifying service on an establishment paid from General Revenues.

NOTE.—Service under a landholder who retains the management of his own estate, or under such a body as the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, or under societies for the encouragement of agricultural or veterinary development, has at times been sanctioned on foreign service conditions. Service of this character, however, is properly private employment; the loan of a Government officer for such purposes should be wholly exceptional and should not be allowed unless in the opinion of the Local Government a public advantage is secured which would otherwise be unattainable.

763 Transfers and appointments may be sanctioned by the Local Government under which the officer is serving, provided (a) the transfer is to a post in India (b) the officer's pay in foreign service does not exceed (Article 29 B), and in no case rendered five years'

Indian Army leave rules and Rs. 2,000 a month in the case of any other officer subject to the rules in Chapter XIII: provided that except in the case of members of the Indian Civil Service, Military officers, any other officers whose pensions are fixed in sterling, and officers who may become eligible for a special additional pension under Articles 475, 642 and 613, assumed pay shall not exceed Rs. 1,500 a month.

Exception—In the case of an officer promoted from a subordinate grade to service which completion of two years from date of first commission. In making the calculation, service, both at home and abroad, is to be taken into account

768. In the case of officers other than those mentioned in Article 763 (i) assumed pay is either the pay last drawn in Government service, or, if the officer belongs to a graded service, or is on a progressive or time-scale of pay that to which he has attained or been promoted in accordance with the rule in Article 752, up to a maximum of Rs. 1,250 a month.

769. In the case of an officer in foreign service of the second kind contributions for leave allowance and pension are levied on actual sanctioned salary, subject to the maxima prescribed in the case of assumed pay in Articles 767 and 768. In return for these contributions the Government accepts the charge for the officer's leave allowances of all kinds and for his pension calculated on sanctioned salary.

770. Contribution is levied at the following rates:—

	For pension and leave allowance.	For pension only.
(a) In the case of officers of the classes mentioned in Article 763 (i)	$\frac{1}{16}$	$\frac{1}{8}$
(b) In the case of other gazetted and non-gazetted officers	$\frac{1}{4}$	$\frac{1}{2}$
(c) In the case of inferior servants		$\frac{1}{16}$ *

NOTE 1.—In the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service contribution includes the 4 per cent. annuity deduction required by Article 556 (a) and his salary in foreign service is the leave allowance of the second kind, to the extent of the Indian 4 per cent annuity

NOTE 2.—Percentage deductions (e.g., Civil Fund in the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service) are calculated upon "assumed pay" in foreign service of the first kind and upon actual sanctioned salary in foreign service of the second kind

NOTE 3.—In the case of a Military officer the contribution covers the liability of Indian Revenues for temporary half-pay or half-pay pension when an officer loses his health during foreign service out of India before becoming entitled to ordinary so-called full pay pension.

NOTE 4.—The Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Bombay Port Trust and the Chairman, City of Bombay Improvement Trust, contribute for pension only at the rate of $\frac{1}{16}$ th of assumed pay, their leave allowances for such leave as has been earned in its service being paid by the Trust

*NOTE 5.—The Government of India pay no leave allowances to inferior servants transferred to foreign service

NOTE 6.—Contributions in respect of Indian troops, warrant and non-commissioned officers and men of the army departments, etc., sent for service out of India are regulated by separate orders.

756. (a) The rates of contribution prescribed in Article 755 apply to all officers transferred to Foreign Service after the 7th of January 1889. The rates previously in force continue to operate, in the case of officers transferred before that date, subject to the following conditions :—

- (1) That in the case of officers of the Public Works or Railway Department transferred to the service of a Railway Company, on terms agreed upon between Government and the Company, their appointments under the Company remain unchanged. If their appointments are changed, or if they enter on fresh engagements even without returning to the service of Government, they become subject to the new rates of contribution. It will rest with the Government of India in the Railway Department to decide whether the appointments have been changed or not;
- (2) That in the case of all officers transferred to Foreign Service, the former rates of contribution will operate only until the new rates are applied, in each case, under the orders of the Local Government by whom the officer was transferred. In all cases in which the new rates have not been so applied, and in which the officers' salary may not, under existing rules, be increased without the sanction of the British Government, such sanction will, in future, be subject to the condition that the increase shall not be liable to contribution, and shall not be reckoned for any purpose of leave allowance or pension.

(b) Previous to the 7th of January 1889, the rates of contribution were determined by the following rules :—

From every officer transferred to Foreign Service who does not wholly resign the service of the British Government, or who is not, for recorded special and public reasons, exempted from the operation of this rule, a contribution is levied as follows :—

(A) In the case of a member of the Indian Civil Service—at the rate of 10½ per cent. (one-sixth) on the gross salary which he receives from his foreign employers.

(B) In the case of any other officer—at the rate of 1½ per cent. (one-sixteenth) on the gross

Foreign Service out of India.

757. (a) Officers transferred to Foreign Service out of India contribute for pension only. Such contributions are regulated by the provisions of Articles 754 and 755. The rate leviable in the case of officers of the special services mentioned in Article 753 (iii)(b) is one-sixth of their assumed pay, which represents the proportionate share on account of pension only of the one-fourth prescribed in Article 755 (a) (i) for both leave and pension.

(b) Foreign Service out of India does not count as service for leave under Indian rules; and the lent officers will be subject to the rules as to leave and leave allowances laid down by their foreign employers; or to such arrangements as may be made on their behalf by the Government of India, or by the Secretary of State in Council. They should make themselves

771. In addition to the contribution prescribed in these rules subscribers to the following pension funds pay to Government an additional premium of $\frac{1}{4}$ th or $\frac{1}{8}$ th of the premium paid to the Fund :—

(i) Bengal Uncovenanted Service Family Pension Fund ...one-fourth.

(ii) Bombay Uncovenanted Service Family Pension Fund—

(1) Subscribers who joined the fund on or before 12th November 1900 one-fourth.

(2) Those who joined after that date one-sixth.

(iii) Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund ...one-sixth.

NOTE 1.—In the case of an officer who contributes for leave the extra premium is not payable during leave

NOTE 2.—Subscribers to the Uncovenanted Service Family Pension Funds transferred to service under a local fund which qualifies for pension payable from the local fund, must, while employed under the local fund pay the additional premium prescribed in this articles.

NOTE 3.—The premium when due from subscribers to the Bengal Fund, is collected by the the Accountant-General, Bombay.

Remission of, and exemption from, contribution.

772. (a) The Local Government may remit contribution for any period for which an officer on foreign service is temporarily employed under Government, on duties additional to or distinct from his duties on foreign service.

(b) The following classes of officers are exempted from the payment of contribution under the above rules, and their pensions [and, in cases (ii) to (v) leave allowances] are calculated according to the rules applicable to Government servants :—

(i) Officers lent to His Majesty's Government or to British Colonies, Protectorates, etc

(ii) Subordinates in the Revenue Survey temporarily lent to Municipalities for duty which, though paid for by them, also promotes Imperial interests.

(iii) Officers lent to other public departments on temporary duty.

ordinary rules.

(iv) Officers of the Royal Indian Marine lent to Port Trusts

(v) Any other officer or class of officer who by the specific orders of the Government of India, has been exempted from the payment of contribution.

Procedure for payment of contribution.

773 A copy of the orders sanctioning an officer's transfer to foreign service must always be communicated to the Account Officer (referred to in Article 774) by the authority by whom the transfer is sanctioned. The officer will for form turn ding

other information which that officer may require.

774. (a) In the case of foreign service out of India, the "Account Officer" is the Comptroller, India Treasuries.

(b) In the case of foreign service in India—

- (1) if salary in foreign service is paid from a Government treasury, and is subject to audit by an audit officer of Government, the Account Officer is such audit officer;
- (2) otherwise, the Account Officer is the Accountant-General of the Province in which the Municipality, Port Trust or other body concerned is situated, or in the case of service under a Native State, the Accountant-General of the Government under whose administration the State is.

775. Ordinarily, contribution is payable directly to Government by the transferred officer himself. Government does not enter into arrangement with foreign employers or make direct demands upon them. Exceptions to this rule are:—

- (a) Cases in which officers are lent to H. M. Majesty's Government or to British Colonies, Protectorates, etc., and in which the contribution is payable by the borrowing Government [see Article 772 (b) (5)];
- (b) Cases in which salary is payable at a Government treasury under the orders of the Accountant-General, and contribution is deducted from salary;
- (c) Cases of members of clerical establishments in foreign service of the second kind, in which responsibility for payment of contributions and compliance with the rules rests with the officer who controls the fund or administers the trust;
- (d) Cases in which, by special order or arrangement, contribution is recovered collectively on account of several officers employed under one foreign employer through an agent or officer who represents the employer.

776. Not later than 15 days after the end of each quarter for which salary in foreign service is earned, the officer must remit, in such manner as may be arranged with the Account Officer, the contribution payable by him for the quarter.

In any case in which contribution falls into arrear, the Account Officer should bring the fact to the officer's notice and claim interest at the rate of 4 pice a day per 100 rupees upon the amount due, from the date of expiry of the 15 days to the date on which contribution is paid up.

If any amount due, including interest, is not paid within 12 months of its accrual, the Account Officer should intimate to the officer the amount due up to date and inform him that in consequence of the default he has forfeited his claim to pension or pension and leave allowance, as the case may be. In order to revive his claim the officer must at once pay the amount due and represent his case to the Local Government who will deal finally with it.

Rules regarding leave, and the grant of leave.

777. An officer holding an appointment in foreign service shall not take leave or obtain leave allowance from Government while on duty and proceeds on leave.

acquainted with such rules or arrangements in regard to leave before accepting foreign employment.

NOTE 1.—[Members of the Indian Civil Service on Foreign Service out of India must continue to pay annuity deductions on their assumed pay, as prescribed in Note 1, Article 779.]

NOTE 2.—[In the case of a Military officer, the contribution covers the liability of Indian Revenues for temporary half-pay, or half pay pension in any case of an officer losing his health during Foreign Service out of India before becoming entitled to ordinary so-called full pay pension.]

NOTE 3.—[See note under Article 772 (c).]

Foreign Service during Leave.

757A. An officer on furlough is not permitted to accept employment in Foreign Service except with the previous sanction of the Secretary of State or the Government of India according as his furlough is taken out of or in India

758. (a) An officer lent for other than Imperial purposes either to His Majesty's Government in England, or to a British Colony or to a Foreign State or Municipality, makes a contribution to the Indian Exchequer in accordance with the rules in this Chapter.

(b) But if an officer while absent on Furlough is permitted to take on from Indian revenues in addition to any allowance which may be assigned to him for the employment; in this case the contribution is not required for the period of the officer's employment as above, but will be payable from the date of the expiry of the Furlough should the officer continue in it. Service under His Majesty's Government in England or under any Colonial or Foreign Government outside of India will in this case be held to begin from the date of the expiry of the Furlough.

NOTE.—[The sanction of the Government of India is required to the transfer of an officer to any service of the description mentioned in this Article.]

759. No officer employed as above on any duty unconnected with India shall, except as provided in Articles 758 and 760, receive any allowances from Indian revenues while so employed.

760. If an officer is, when transferred, entitled to Privilege leave and obtains it with the avowed intention of going to the Egyptian Government, he may draw his Indian revenues in addition to any allowance without being required during the period of his absence to contribute in respect of employment in Egypt. The right to receive Privilege leave allowance is, however, contingent on his return to duty under the Indian Government on the expiry of the leave: if, therefore, he continues in the service of the Egyptian Government after the end of seven days from the date of expiry of his leave, the leave will be considered as cancelled, and the officer's Foreign Service will be held to have begun on the date from which he availed himself of his Privilege leave.

Temporary Transfers.

761. (a) No contribution is levied from an officer transferred to Foreign Service in India for a special temporary duty not lasting more than six months: Provided that exemption can only be claimed under this Article if it is specially provided for from the beginning as part of the terms of the arrangement under which the transfer is made.

NOTE.—[In determining whether contributions are payable or not, the point to be considered is the duration of the appointment or duty to which the officer is transferred, and not the duration of the particular officer's employment in the appointment or on the special duty.]

(b) In these cases the rule in Article 753 (iii) as to ten years' qualifying service need not be applied, and the officer cannot, for the purposes of leave allowance and pension, count for the time passed in such service higher salary than he had when he was transferred to it.

1 In arranging for the transfer of an officer's services under this Article it should always be stipulated that, in the event of the transfer exceeding the limit of six months, the prescribed contribution must be paid for the whole period of transfer.

NOTE.—[The Local Government may, by a general or special order, delegate its powers to sanction transfers for temporary duty, not lasting more than six months, to any officer not below the rank of Political Agent.]

762. The Local Government may remit the contribution for any period during which an officer on Foreign Service is temporarily employed under the British Government on duties additional to, or distinct from, his duties on Foreign Service.

Exemptions from Contribution.

763. The following officers are exempted from contribution under the above rules, and their leave allowances and pensions are calculated according to the rules applied to Government service:—

- (a) Subordinates in the Revenue Survey, temporarily lent to Municipalities for duty, which, though paid for by them, also promotes Imperial interests.
- (b) The Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Corporation of Calcutta.
The President of the Municipal Corporation of Madras.
The Municipal Commissioner for the City of Bombay.
The President of the Rangoon Municipality.
The Chairman of the Cawnpore Municipality.
The Chairman of the Allahabad Municipality.

NOTE.—[The exemption of these officers from the operation of the rules in this Chapter does not, in the case of members of the Indian Civil Service, relieve them of the liability imposed under Article 556 (b).]

- (c) Officers lent to the Nair Brigade of the Travancore State. The Travancore State pays a portion of the Furlough allowances of officers attached to the Brigade.
- (d) Officers lent to the Travancore State to fill the office of Durbar Physician or any offices held by officers of the British Government on the 29th January 1873.
- (e) Medical officers lent to charitable dispensaries or hospitals in British India.

NOTE.—[This exception does not apply in any Province in which the changes in the conditions of service of Assistant Surgeons authorised by the Resolution of the Home Depart-

778. An officer on foreign service in India may not be granted leave otherwise than in accordance with the rules of the Government service to which he shall on muted to :

him to refund any allowances in excess of the amount admissible. The officer himself is personally responsible for the observance of the rule contained in this Article; by accepting leave to which he is not entitled under the rules he renders himself liable to refund allowances irregularly drawn, and in the event of his refusing to refund, to forfeit his previous service under Government, and to cease to have any claim on Government in respect of either pension or leave allowances.

779. An officer in foreign service of the first kind in India draws leave allowances calculated on assumed pay, save that in the case of privilege leave he is entitled to his actual pay in foreign service, the difference between such pay and assumed pay being paid by the foreign employer. In the case of foreign service of the second kind all leave allowances are calculated on actual sanctioned salary and paid in full by Government.

780. (a) Privilege leave which is certified by the Account Officer (Article 774) to be admissible may, when taken by itself, be granted to an officer in foreign service in India by his employer.

(b) Leave other than privilege leave taken by itself, may, in cases where the transfer has been sanctioned by the Government of India or a Local Government, be granted to an officer in foreign service in India by the Local Government under whom he was serving before his transfer; in other cases it may be granted by the authority who sanctioned the transfer.

(c) An officer who
the Account Officer, to sanction the leave.

781. To an officer who is in foreign service out of India leave in respect of his foreign service may, unless special arrangements as to leave have been made on his behalf by the Government of India or the Secretary of State, be granted by his employer on such conditions as to leave and absentee allowances as the employer may determine. The officer should make himself acquainted with the rules or arrangements which are to regulate his leave before accepting foreign employment, and the Account Officer will be responsible for obtaining from him at the time of transfer a declaration showing that he has read and understood this rule. Time spent by the officer in foreign service out of India, though not constituting an interruption of service for leave under the Civil Service Regulations, does not count for such leave. Leave earned in respect of service under Government before transfer cannot ordinarily be granted to such an officer so long as he continues to be on foreign service.

ment, No. 1141-1150, of August 22, 1898, have been brought into operation. In those Provinces the payments made by Local Bodies for the services of Assistant Surgeons lent to hospitals and dispensaries must include contributions under the ordinary rules.]

- (f) Deputy Superintendent of Vaccination, Calcutta, who is paid from Municipal Funds; also, except in Bombay, the following officers of the Vaccination Department.—
- (1) Inspectors and Native Superintendents; (2) Vaccinators who were before 27th November 1906 enrolled as officers of Government and are employed in Cantonments or under Municipalities, and Local Boards; and (3) all Vaccinators in Upper and Lower Burma other than those employed by Municipal and Town Committees.
- (g) Officers of the Royal Indian Marine lent to Port Trusts. The pensions and leave allowances of these officers are (except in the case of Privilege leave) borne wholly by Government.
- (h) Assistant Opium Agents in Native States, and their establishments, who are paid by the Native States.

Section II.—Conditions of Foreign Service of the second kind.

764. Appointments to this class of Foreign Service require the sanction of the Local Government which controls the expenditure, and the transfer of officers from qualifying service is regulated by Article 753. If the service is paid from the revenues of a Native State, the sanction of the Government of India in the Foreign Department is required to the grant of allowances in excess of the amount admissible under clause (iv) of Article 753, but when an appointment of a permanent character has been sanctioned under proper authority, the separate sanction of the Government of India is not required in the case of each officer who may from time to time be appointed to it.

765. The service must be strictly connected with the management or control of the Government, and appointments existing apart from that management and control can be made only under the conditions of Foreign Service of the first kind. If it is necessary, after Government has relinquished control, to continue the services of the Government officer, he comes under the rules applicable to Foreign Service of the first kind.

this Chapter

Acting Appointments.

766. The salary of an officer appointed to act for an officer on Foreign Service of the second kind is calculated according to the rules in Part II.

Example.—A B, an officer subject to the European Service Leave Rules, receiving a pay of Rs. 500 from the British Government, officiates in an appointment in Foreign Service, the pay of which is Rs. 1,000. A B's salary is—

Pay	Rs.
Acting allowance ($\frac{2}{3}$ 1,000—500)	333½
Salary	833½

The charge to the Foreign Service would be Rs. 833½ + $\frac{1}{2}$ of Rs. 833½ or Rs. 1,041½.

P.S. Y.J.S.

Contribution required.

767. Whenever an officer is transferred by competent authority from qualifying service to Foreign Service of the second kind, arrangements should be made not only to pay him the sanctioned salary of the office, but also to recover from the funds of the Foreign Service, or Trust, the prescribed contribution for his pension and leave allowances.

768. For every officer transferred in the manner specified in Article 764, who is not, for recorded special and public reasons, exempted wholly or in part from the operation of the rules in this Chapter, contribution should be levied as follows:—

(a) In the case of an officer subject to the European Service Leave Rules, one-fourth of his actual sanctioned salary.

(b) In the case of an officer subject to the Indian Service Leave Rules, one-fifth of his actual sanctioned salary if he is a gazetted officer, and one-sixth of his actual sanctioned salary if he is not gazetted.

That is, if the officer's sanctioned salary is Rs. 1,000, the foreign funds must pay him Rs. 1,250, or Rs. 1,200, or Rs. 1,166½, as the case may be; he will retain Rs. 1,000, and pay the rest to Government as contribution:

Provided that, in the case of an officer whose pension is subject to the maximum of Rs. 5,000 a year, the contribution shall not be calculated on a higher salary than Rs. 1,500 a month in the case of officers subject to the European Service and Rs. 1,250 a month in the case of those subject to the Indian Service Leave Rules.

This rule does not entitle an officer to include "acting allowances" in "emoluments" for the purpose of the calculation of pension.

NOTE 1.—(In the case of officers transferred to Foreign Service before the 1st September 1896 the maximum salaries on which contribution is calculated are Rs. 1,250 and Rs. 1,000 respectively for officers subject to the European and the Indian Service Leave Rules.)

NOTE 2.—(For a member of the Indian Civil Service a sanctioned salary of Rs. 1,000 in Foreign Service is the equivalent of a sanctioned salary of Rs. 1,041½ in Government service; as the latter is subject to 4 per cent. deduction, while the former is not. The Civil Fund deductions will be calculated at a percentage on the Rs. 1,000.)

NOTE 3.—[The provisions of Article 756 (a) apply to Foreign Service of the second kind.]

(c) From inferior servants the contribution required is one anna in the rupee for pension only: the Government of India pay no leave allowances to such servants.

769. No contribution is required from Political Officers employed in offices held by British officers in the Kolhapur State on the 18th August 1875.

Section III.—Rules for payment of Contributions.

770. If the salary of an officer is paid under the orders of the Accountant-General at a British Government Treasury, the required contribution

■ deducted at the time of payment. In all other cases the officer himself must pay the amount directly to the British Government in the manner prescribed in the following rules: the Government will not ordinarily enter into any direct arrangements with the foreign employers of its officers or make any direct demands upon them.

NOTE.—[The contributions of officers lent to Mysore and Kashmir are paid by the States through the Comptroller, Mysore, and Accountant-General, Punjab, and not by the officers themselves.]

Rules of Procedure.

771. An officer transferred to Foreign Service of the first or second kind and permitted by competent authority to retain claim to pension or absentee allowances must, immediately on receiving the order of transfer, furnish a copy thereof to the Audit Officer, and must apply for orders, to whom he is to account for the contribution required.

772. (a) If the salary of the officer in his new appointment is to be paid from a Government Treasury upon a bill subject to the audit of the Government Account Officer—it will be the said Account Officer.

(b) Otherwise—it will be the Accountant-General of the Province within which the Municipality, Port Trust, Local Fund or other body concerned, is situated; or, if the case is one of service under ■ Native State, the Accountant-General of the Government under whose administration the Native State is

NOTE.—[In the case of officers transferred with the Rajputana-Malwa Railway to the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Company, and of officers transferred with the Bellary-Kistna State Railway to the Southern Maratha Railway Company, the arrangement for payment of the required contributions forms part of the contract with the Company. The contributions are recovered by the Government Examiner of Accounts from the Company, and credited in the "India" Civil Accounts.]

(c) If the Foreign Service is outside India—it will be the Comptroller, India Treasuries.

NOTE.—[The contributions for pension from Military officers lent from India for Foreign Service out of India (see Article 757) will be realised by the Comptroller, India Treasuries, in the manner laid down in these Regulations.]

773. The officer transferred must, immediately he is relieved of his duty under the British Government, report to the Account Officer (Article 772), the time and date on which he made over charge, and furnish particulars regarding his salary in Foreign Service, and his postal address: he should also report the date on which he takes, and that on which he relinquishes, charge of his appointment in Foreign Service. Any change in these particulars, and any leave taken by him, should also be reported to the Account Officer; and he must furnish all information which may at any time be required from him by the Account Officer.

Date from and to which Contribution is payable.

774. (a) The salary of an officer on Foreign Service must be borne by the foreign body to whose service he is transferred, and his contribution to Government must commence from the date on which he is relieved from his duty under the British Government.

(b) The salary to be paid by the foreign body and the contribution to Government will cease—

(i) In the case of an officer lent to a foreign employer in India, from the date on which he is relieved from his duty under the foreign body.

(ii) In the case of an officer lent to a foreign employer out of India, from the date on which he resumes charge of his appointment under the British Government.

(c) The amount of joining time and of net salary to be paid during joining time are regulated by the rules in Chapter IX.

Remittance required.

775. The officer must, not later than fifteen days after the end of the quarter for which salary in Foreign Service is earned, remit direct to the Account Officer (Article 772) the amount payable by him on account of contribution in respect of his salary for the quarter: the remittance to be advised in such form as the Account Officer may require. When the contribution falls into arrears, the Account Officer should forward to the officer a copy of Article 776 with a request for payment.

776. If the officer fails to make a remittance within the said period of fifteen days, or if the amount remitted is less than that properly payable, interest at the rate of 4 pies a day per 100 rupees will be levied upon the amount due from the date of expiry of the fifteen days until the date of receipt of the remittance by the Account Officer. If any amount due is not paid up, together with the interest for the time it has been overdue, within twelve months of its accrual, the Account Officer should inform the officer that in consequence of the default in payment his claim on the Government for pension and leave allowances has lapsed, and should intimate to him the amount due up to the date of the communication. If the officer desires to have his claim revived, he should pay the amount specified in the Account Officer's letter, and submit a representation to the Local Government who will deal finally with it.

777. In the case of members of clerical establishments transferred to Foreign Service of the second kind, the responsibility for payment of contributions and compliance with the rules rests with the officer entrusted by Government with the control of the Fund or administration of the Trust.

778. No officer has any right of property in contributions made by or for him, or any claim upon Government in respect to such contributions, except to receive such pension or absentee allowance as may become admissible to him in accordance with the rules of the service to which he belongs.

Section IV.—General Conditions of Service.

As to Leave and Pension.

779. (a) In return for the contributions prescribed in Article 755 (a) (i), the Government accepts the charge for the officer's pension, and also that for his absentee allowances [except on Privilege leave, when it pays only its share, according to the Rule of Proportions, calculated on the assumed pay referred to in Article 754 (a), and during which contribution calculated on the share of the leave allowances payable by the foreign body must be paid as if the officer were on duty], in the same manner and to the same extent as if he were in the regular service of Government, saving only that the calculation of pension or absentee allowance is based upon the pay upon which he contributes (see Article 754) and not upon the amount which he receives from his foreign employer.

(b) In return for the contribution prescribed in Article 755 (a) (ii), the Government accepts the charge for the officer's pension, but not for his absentee allowances, of which it pays only its share according to the Rule of Proportions, calculated on assumed pay [Article 754 (b)].

780. In return for the contribution prescribed in clauses (a) and (b) of Article 768, the Government accepts the charge for the officer's pension and absentee allowances (except during Privilege leave when it pays only its share according to the Rule of Proportions and during which the contribution is paid as if the officer were on duty) in the same way as if he were in its own service.

781. An officer who contributes for pension only must, during Privilege leave, pay his contribution as if he were on duty, and if, after return to his British appointment, he takes Privilege leave, a portion of which is earned by Foreign Service, he will receive from the General Revenues the Government share of his leave allowance, according to the Rule of Proportions, and must pay to the General Revenues the contribution required by Article 755 (a) (ii) for that portion of his Privilege leave which was earned by his Foreign Service.

782. The pension and leave of an officer on Foreign Service, whether acting or permanent, are regulated by the rules which apply to officers of the

783. Subject to the regular rules, any saving arising from the absence of a permanent officer accrues to his employer, except when an officer is exempted from the payment of the contribution prescribed in Article 755 [see Article 763, Exception (b)], when the saving should be paid to the British Government.

Lien on Government Appointment.

786. Whenever an officer is transferred from qualifying service to Foreign Service, it must be arranged that he does not forfeit a lien upon or a right to return to a substantive office under the British Government. His locum tenens can hold the appointment only in subordination to such lien by the absentee, but, subject to this condition, the locum tenens may be appointed provisionally if the transfer is to duty of a permanent kind (Article 89) or substantively pro tempore if not.

787. An officer so transferred is, when he returns to British service, entitled to resume the position in which he left it; and he cannot return to acting service under the British Government without reverting also to his substantive British office, the locum tenens of this office thereupon falling back upon acting allowances. If he holds a progressive appointment, his Foreign Service does not count towards increments; but such service may, with the sanction of the Local Government, be allowed to count, if the officer is doing the same kind of work as that of his Government appointment and is acquiring experience likely to make his services more valuable when he returns to it.

NOTE.—[The object of this Article is to secure to an officer the right to resume, on his return to British service, the position he held when he left it. A Local Government is not debarred from giving an officer any promotion to which his standing in the British service would have entitled him had he not been transferred to Foreign Service, but the officer has no claim to such promotion.]

788. No officer, while acting in any appointment under Government, or the pay of which is regulated by Government, is entitled to allowances on account of any foreign office. But there is no objection to his being permitted to retain a lien upon such an office or to the actual incumbent being appointed thereto, during his absence, substantively pro tempore.

Applications for Leave.

789. Privilege leave may be granted by the foreign employer if reported by the Account Officer concerned to be admissible under rule.

790. Applications for any other description of leave should be made through the foreign employer to the Local Government under which the officer was serving before transfer to Foreign Service.

to the Audit Officer and to the authority who would have granted the leave had the officer continued in Government service.

791. Article 790 does not apply and no report need be called for from the Account Officer under Article 789 in cases in which the applicant contributes for pension only [see Article 755 (a) (ii)], and no claim arises against the British Government for a share of the absentee allowance.

Section V.—Special Cases.

792. An officer of the Education Department, who is transferred by the Local Government in the public interest to a non-departmental College or School managed by a Board on which the Local Government is represented, or which is administered under a constitution and regulations approved, and of which the scale of superior appointments is sanctioned, by Government, may contribute for leave allowances and pension under these Regulations.

793. Officers employed in the Rajkumar College, Kathiawar, are allowed to contribute under these Regulations, and those of them who avail themselves of this concession count service from the date on which they begin to pay the prescribed contribution. The amount to be recovered will not be altered, because of the grant of Privilege leave to any member of the establishment, unless additional expense is caused by the appointment of an officiating officer; if additional expense is ~~an~~ caused, the amount of it should be recovered in addition to the amount fixed as above, but without any provision for leave and pension contribution under (2).

If in any period the expenditure incurred, or to be incurred, should be considerably less than the sanctioned cost, the Local Government may reduce the amount of the recovery, the reduction being roughly proportionate to the difference.

The omission of item (2) from the amount of the recovery will require the same special sanction as is required for the remission of contributions under Article 768.

Chapter XLII.—Service under Local Funds.

Section I.—Pensions.

796. Apart from any special provisions made under the following rules service paid for from a Local Fund does not qualify for pension.

797. In the case of the Local Funds which up to 1st April 1908 were treated as Incorporated, the Local Government may, subject to any provisions of law applicable to the case, allow the Trustees, Committee, or Managers to treat the service as qualifying, and may itself do so in the case of funds under its own direct administration.

798. The same procedure should be observed in the calculation, grant and payment of pensions for service treated as qualifying under Article 797, as is prescribed for pensions payable from General Revenues, but the pensions must be paid from and charged against the Local Fund.

NOTE.—[See the notes under Article 807.]

799. When part of the pensionable service of an officer qualifies for pension from the General Revenues and part from the Local Funds which up to 1st April 1908 were treated as Incorporated, his pension is paid and charged according to the Rule of Proportions; it is not admissible to disregard the pensionable Local Fund service, and award a pension only for the service paid from General Revenues: Provided that if, under this rule, less than one-fourth of the pension would be payable from either source, no distribution shall be made; in such case the other source shall bear the whole charge.

800. In the case of other Local Funds, the rule that service does not qualify does not prohibit the grant and payment of pensions in conformity with the general terms of the pension rules by the authorised administrators of the Funds. But Government is in no way responsible for the sanction or continuance of such pensions, and no standing order for their payment may be issued to, or received by, any Government Treasury, and the procedure rules in Part X do not apply to them.

NOTE.—[The restrictions as to the payment of such pensions do not apply to pensions chargeable to the Calcutta Fire Brigade Fund.]

801. Service in the following establishments paid from Local Funds is treated as qualifying, provided that pension for service under the Fund is paid from the Fund, the Rule of Proportions being applied in the case of service paid partly from the Fund and partly from other sources:—

(i) Establishments paid from Port Funds managed by Government.

NOTE.—[The rule regarding officers of the Royal Indian Marine lent to Port Trusts is given in Article 763 (g)]

(ii) Members of the establishment of the Fire Brigade, Calcutta, whose pay at date of discharge exceeds Rs. 20 a month.

NOTE.—[The pension of a member of the Fire Brigade who was enlisted on or after 27th December 1905 and whose pay, at date of discharge does not exceed Rs 20, is paid from the Fire Brigade Fund or from the General Revenue Fund to the Rule of Proportions as applied to the pension of a member of the Fire Brigade and subscribed to Police Superannuation. If his pay at date of discharge exceeds Rs. 20, his pension is paid from General Revenue, and the pension is not subject to the Rule of Proportions.]

Pensions from the General Revenues.

802. The administrators of a Local Fund which banks with a Government Treasury may, with the permission of the Local Government, make a permanent arrangement for contributing for pensions from the General Revenues for its permanent employes, or for any specified classes of them, by paying to Government a contribution of one-ninth of the sanctioned salaries of the several appointments: provided that the bills on which the establishment charges are drawn from the treasury are subject to the audit of the Accountant-General under the rules prescribed for the audit of Government establishment charges, and that the contribution is added to the establishment bill and paid from the Local Fund by transfer credit to the General Revenues at the time the establishment bill is cashed. Arrear contributions in respect either of individual officers or classes of officers proposed with a view to render past service qualifying cannot be accepted.

(3) Last-pay certificates of all teachers transferred from other schools.

2. (a) Teachers employed in schools maintained from Local or Municipal Funds in Bombay—

(i) who were appointed to Local (not Municipal) Fund service before the 26th June 1882, and on whose behalf contributions were made from Local Funds to the Local Fund Pension Fund: or

(ii) who were appointed or transferred from Government Service after the 26th June 1882 (the date the Local Fund Pension Fund was closed to new entrants) and before the 7th January 1889, the date of the new Foreign Service rules, and on whose behalf contributions were specially permitted by the Local

(b) Also teachers, fulfilling either of the conditions (i) and (ii) above, who are transferred under orders of the Local Government and in the interests of the public service, and not for private reasons, between Local Fund and Municipal schools, continue to render service pensionable from the General Revenues. Provided that contributions are paid in all cases under the rules in this Chapter.

(c) In case (i) any pension granted is charged to the Local Fund Pension Fund and to the General Revenues according to the Rule of Proportions.

NOTE.—[Under the rules in force prior to January 1889, an officer paid from a Local Fund was allowed on first appointment with the permission of the Local Government, and upon production of the health certificate prescribed in Article 49, to subscribe for a pension from 803. An officer who is in qualifying service under Government may be transferred by the Local Government to service under a Local Fund under the same limitations and conditions as are applicable to transfers to Foreign Service. If the establishments are fixed and controlled by Government in the same way as Government establishments, the limitations and conditions are those applicable to Foreign Service of the second kind, otherwise they are those of Foreign Service of the first kind.

804. Teachers and other members of the pensionable establishments of Government Schools, who are transferred with the schools to which they belong to service under Local Boards, continue to render service qualifying for pension from the General Revenues, and are entitled to the concession even though they may be moved from the school with which they are transferred to another school which was formerly under Government management.

Teachers appointed to schools transferred to the management of Local Boards are entitled to pension from the General Revenues if the Local Government makes a part of its contribution to the school in the form of free pensions.

805. If an officer, whose service is reckoned as pensionable under the provisions of Article 802, is transferred to the similarly pensionable establishment of another Local Fund, the transfer will not interrupt the continuity of service for pension. Transfers may also be made between such service under Local Funds and service in Government establishments.

806. Article 786 does not apply to an officer transferred to service under a Local Fund under the conditions and limitations of Foreign Service of the second kind otherwise than as a merely temporary arrangement; but it does refer to transfers to service under a Local Fund under the conditions and limitations of Foreign Service of the first kind.

Post Office Annuities.

807. With the permission of the Government, the Trustees, Committee or Managers of any Local Fund may purchase from the Post Office a pension or annuity for any of their servants for whom such pension or annuity is not otherwise admissible: Provided that such pension shall not exceed the amount which the servant might have obtained if his service had been paid from the General Revenues.

Note 1.—When a pension or annuity is purchased from the Government and partly by a Local Fund, the value of the pension or annuity shall be calculated according to the value of the pension or annuity purchased from the Government and partly by a Local Fund, and the value of the pension or annuity purchased from the Local Fund shall be added to the value of the pension or annuity purchased from the Government and partly by a Local Fund.

Note 2.—[A District Board or Municipality may, with the previous sanction of the Commissioner of the Division (in Madras of the Local Government), grant a gratuity, as such, to any of its servants in lieu of the annuity purchasable under this Article, if the gratuity proposed is not large enough to purchase an annuity of Rs 2 a month or more].

Local Fund Pension Funds.

808. The Government does not guarantee the solvency of Funds formed by the subscriptions of Local Fund officers, and established to provide pensions for the subscribers thereto.

Exceptional Cases.

809. In the following cases, service paid from Local Funds qualifies:—

(a) Service paid from the Cotton Frauds Improvement Fund which qualified for pension payable from that Fund prior to its exhaustion.

(b) Second writers and daroghas on Jail establishments in the Bombay Presidency formerly paid from a Jail Labour Fund.

(c) Muharras attached to the Court of any Honorary Magistrate in the Central Provinces, and paid from Municipal Funds.

(d) Officers in the United Provinces transferred in connection with the introduction of the Local Self-Government scheme before the 1st April 1883 to service under Local Committees constituted under Acts III and IV of 1878.

(e) Officers in Assam transferred after the 10th May 1882, and before the 12th May 1884, to service under Local or District Committees constituted by the Assam Local Rates Regulation (1879).

(f) Officers in the Punjab transferred before the 1st July 1886 to service under District Boards constituted under Act XX of 1883.

(g) Service paid from the "Quetta Revenue Fund" before the 1st April 1883, from which date the charges previously paid from the Fund became charges on the General Revenues.

Section II.—Leave, Acting and Travelling Allowance Rules.

810. Service under the Local Funds which up to 1st April 1908 were treated as Incorporated may qualify for leave under Part III; but the allowances given during such leave must be disbursed from the Local Funds and General Revenues according to the Rule of Proportions: Provided that, if less than one-fourth of the said allowances would be payable from either source, the whole of the allowances shall be charged to the other source.

811. Except in the case of employes of Local Funds which under legal enactment, or under rules framed under such enactment, have special rules regulating all or any of such matters, no leave, or allowances during leave, or acting allowances to an officer paid from a Local Fund, or from any other sources under the control of a Government officer, shall, without the express sanction of the Local Government, exceed what would be admissible under the rules which apply to an officer paid from General Revenues.

812. The salary of an officer whose substantive office is paid from a Local Fund appointed to act in an office paid from the General Revenues is calculated as it would be if his substantive office also were paid from the General Revenues.

813. Applications for leave are ordinarily made to the Managers of the Local Fund concerned, but when the officer contributes for pension and leave or pension only, Articles 789 to 791 should be complied with.

814. The travelling allowance rules in Part XI do not apply to officers paid from a Local Fund or from any sources other than General Revenues under the control of any Government officer; but the travelling allowance paid to such officers shall not, without the express sanction of the Local Government, exceed what would be admissible to similar officers under Part XI.

818. A Service Book is supplied at his own cost, to every officer on his first appointment. It is kept in the custody of the head of the office in which he is serving, and transferred with him from office to office. It may be given up to the officer if he resigns or is discharged without fault, an entry being first made therein to this effect.

819. It is the duty of every officer to see that his Service Book is properly kept up, and that all erasures in it are properly attested. If the book is not carefully kept up, difficulties may arise as to verification of service, when the officer applies for pension.

820. Personal certificates of character should not, unless the Local Government so directs, be entered in column (13), but if an officer is reduced to a lower substantive appointment, the cause of the reduction should always be briefly stated thus—"Reduced for inefficiency," "Reduced owing to revision of establishment," etc.

821. Every period of suspension from employment, and every other interruption in service, should be noted, with full details of its duration, by an entry written across the page; and attested by the head of the office or other attesting officer.

1. The head of the office should take efficient measures to see that these entries are made with regularity. The duty should not be left to the non-gazetted officer concerned.

822. (a) If the officer is transferred to Foreign Service, the head of the office or department should send his Service Book to the Accountant-General, who will return it after noting therein, under his signature, the orders of Government sanctioning the transfer, the effect of the transfer in regard to leave admissible during Foreign Service, and any other particulars which the Accountant-General may consider to be necessary in connection with the transfer. On the officer's re-transfer to the British Service, his Service Book should again be sent to the Accountant-General, who will then note therein, under his signature, all necessary particulars connected with the officer's Foreign Service.

1. No entries made in the Service Book of an officer on Foreign Service of the first kind can be attested by any officer except the Accountant-General.

2. Rule 1 does not apply in the case of Public Works and Railway Subordinates (vide rule 2 under Article 815).

(b) In cases in which the salaries are audited by an Accountant-General this Article does not apply to Foreign Service of the second and third kinds.

Section III.—Non-Gazetted Police Service.

823. In the case of Police officers whose pay does not exceed Rs. 20, there shall be kept up for each district by the District Superintendent of Police a Service Roll in English, in which shall be recorded the date of the enrolment of each man in the Constabulary; his caste, tribe, village, age, height, and marks of identification when enrolled; his rank, promotion, reduction or other punishment; his absences from duty, on leave or without leave; the interruptions in his service; and every other incident in his service which may involve forfeiture of portions of his service, or affect the amount of his pension. The roll shall be checked by the Vernacular Roll and Order Book and the Punishment Register, and every entry in it shall be signed by the District Superintendent of Police.

824. From this Roll the necessary statement of service of every applicant for pension shall be prepared, additional proofs being collected, as prescribed in Article 908, in respect of any service rendered before enrolment in the Constabulary which the applicant may be entitled to count.

A life certificate may be given periodically, a bond being given to cover intermediate payments not supported by the life certificate.

NOTE.—[The proper stamp duty upon bonds executed under this Article is that chargeable upon Indemnity Bonds according to the First Schedule of the Indian Stamp Act, II of 1890.]

865. The leave allowances of a non-gazetted officer on leave in India can be drawn only at the treasury where his salary is paid, and under the signature of the head of his office, who is responsible for any overcharges: no other security is required.

(a) An officer, including an officer of the Public Works or Railway Department (see Article 876), proceeding to a Colony should submit his last-pay certificate to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, at Calcutta, or if he embarks at any port in the Provinces of Madras, Bombay, or Burma, to the Accountant-General, Madras, Bombay, or Burma, as the case may be.

(b) The Comptroller, or the Accountant-General, as the case may be, will retain the last-pay certificate, and, in lieu thereof, issue a Warrant in Form 21 upon the Colonial authority concerned.

889. Every Warrant shall be issued in triplicate. The original, bearing the payee's signature, should be forwarded to the Colonial authority concerned, the duplicate to the Secretary of State, and the triplicate should be made over to the payee. Each payment should be endorsed on the back of both the original and the triplicate Warrant, an acknowledgment of receipt of money being rendered by the payee. When no space for such entries remains, or when a Warrant is lost or destroyed, a fresh Warrant shall be issued by the officer who issued the original Warrant, on application being made through the Colonial disbursing officer.

890. Upon his return to India, an officer should deliver up his copy of the Warrant which will serve the purpose of a last-pay certificate.

891. The Government of India recognise the proceedings of the Colonial authorities sanctioning the transfer of the payment of leave allowances from one Colony to another, but such transfer should be reported separately by the absentee to the Government of India and to the Under-Secretary of State for India.

NOTE.—[Articles 888 to 891 apply to Military officers subject to the Military Leave Rules.]

892. Every officer going on leave out of India should procure from the Account Office and take with him a copy of the "Memorandum of information issued for the guidance of officers proceeding on leave (other than privilege leave taken by itself) out of India."

(b) The last-pay certificate is issued on the assumption of the correctness of the intended dates of making over charge and of leaving India. If these dates are changed, the required adjustment of allowances will be made when the officer returns to India, or, if necessary, sooner. (c) In all cases of combined leave in which an officer elects to draw his privilege leave allowances at the Home Treasury an amended last-pay certificate should be sent to the India Office whenever the amount of Privilege Leave allowances entered in the original last-pay certificate requires correction, unless the officer is known to have started on his return to India. If the amended last-pay certificate arrives too late at the India Office, it will be returned to the issuing officer in India.

Source from which Absentee Allowance is payable.

899. In making entries against the heading "Source from which," etc., the term "Indian Revenues" should be used in all certificates intended to be sent to England, as the term "Imperial Revenues" has there a different signification. Civil Fund Deductions.

903. (a) The Secretary of State recovers subscriptions on account of the different Civil Funds from subscribers absent from India on leave who draw their leave allowances in England, who either are required by the rules of their Fund to pay their subscriptions in that country during leave, or elect to do so. Particulars of the Fund deductions to be made from the absentee allowances of officers on leave drawing their leave allowances in England should be noted on the last-pay certificates, and where a subscriber elects to make payments of his subscriptions in India while on leave, or to postpone such payments until his return to India, the fact should also be noted on the last-pay certificate. The rules under which the deductions are made, and the method by which they are calculated in the cases of the different Funds will be found in Articles 557 to 560.

(b) The deductions to which the allowances of a member of the Indian Civil Service are subject while he is on leave on account of his annuity should invariably be stated in his last-pay certificate. (See Article 556)

Chaplains.

904. A certificate in Form 30 should be attached to the last-pay certificate of a Chaplain proceeding on leave to Europe.

PART X.—PROCEDURE RELATING TO PENSIONS.

Chapter XLVII.—Applications for and Grant of Pensions.

Section I.—Applications.

905 The rules in this Chapter apply to all officers applying for pension under these Regulations, except—

(a) Members of the Indian Civil Service—(Chapter XLIX) ;

(b) Chaplains—(Chapter I.)

(c) Judges of the High Courts, for whom no special procedure is laid down.

906. There is no limitation on the period after retirement within which an application for pension or gratuity must be submitted ; but apart from special orders, a pension application for after the officer has retired begins from Article 930.) An officer may be admitted whether in or out of India.

No. 333.

Substitute the following for clause (c) of this Article :—

(c) The provision in clause (b) is intended to obviate delay in the verification of service ; and to ensure that an officer does not retire until he has secured a pension which is admissible ; it does not, however, justify the preparation of the formal application in Form 25 before the officer has actually retired.

(5th Edition, No. 333, dated the 21st November 1913)

(c) This provision is intended to obviate delay in the verification of service, and does not justify the preparation of the formal application in Form 25 before the officer has actually retired.

908. The authority receiving the statement should then proceed to verify the services claimed according to the following procedure.—

(a) If the service has been wholly or in part Inferior (regarding which service the records of the Audit Offices are sometimes incomplete), he should first gather from official records and other sources all the information procurable. In respect to Superior service, it will be sufficient to gather, in the first place, only such information as is easily procurable.

(b) The information thus received should then be forwarded to the Audit Officer concerned for comparison with his office records of the applicant's statements.

(c) If there be any discrepancy, the Audit Officer will detail the nature of such discrepancy; for instance, that the post which the applicant states that he filled during a certain period is shown by the Audit Office registers to have been filled by another man.

(d) If the service claimed cannot be wholly verified from the records of the Audit Offices, reference must be made to the head of the office in which the applicant states that he served during the period in doubt.

(e) If it be found impossible to verify the service otherwise, the officer receiving the application should take the statement in writing of the applicant on plain paper [see Indian Stamp Act, II of 1899, Schedule I, No. 4 (c)], and should also collect such collateral evidence as may be procurable; for instance, certificates, such as those given by an officer to a subordinate on his leaving an office, and the testimony of contemporary servants.

NOTE 1.—[The power to admit service verified under this clause may be exercised by all subordinate authorities who are empowered to sanction pensions under the rules.]

NOTE 2.—[“The Governor-General in Council has recently had under consideration a case in which a public officer, the head of a department, in granting a certificate to one of his subordinates, suppressed the true reason for which the subordinate had been removed from his appointment. Such an omission may obviously be injurious to the interests of the public service. I am therefore directed to draw attention to the subject, and to request the issue of orders to all public officers, warning them to be careful, in giving certificates to their subordinates, to state the whole truth in respect of character and cause of dismissal or resignation of appointment.—(Circular, Home Department, dated 15th June 1899)]

909. In the case of a gazetted officer, part of whose service has been rendered in non-gazetted appointments, the ungazetted portion of his service should be similarly verified. The statement mentioned in Article 907 (a) may, however, be sent to the Audit Officer direct or through the head of the department.

Formal Application.

910. After completing the verification in the manner prescribed in the preceding Article, the authority receiving the statement of services of a non-gazetted officer should draw up the application in Form 25, and arrange with it all the documents relied upon for verification of the service claimed, in such manner that they can be conveniently consulted, and then forward it, together with the officer's Service Book, through his official superiors to the Audit Officer. If an applicant for pension (not gratuity) is no longer in active service, a last-pay certificate should be attached to the application, except when he retires from the service while on leave in England and desires to draw his pension in England.

911. (a) The officer who submits the application should certify on the application whether the character, conduct, and past services of the applicant are such as to entitle him to the favourable consideration of the Government. If the application is for pension on the Superior scale, he must be careful to enter all periods of leave, suspension, etc., which are not reckoned as service.

(b) He must also invariably record his own opinion whether the service claimed has been established, and should be admitted or not; more especially in those cases in which it becomes necessary to resort to the procedure prescribed by clause (c) of Article 908, when the exact nature of the investigation made, and the conclusion at which the authority has arrived, must be especially reported.

(c) If the application is for an Invalid pension, and the applicant is less than sixty years old, the requisite medical certificate should be attached to the application. But if omission has been made in this respect, the authority having the power to sanction the pension may accept a certificate bearing a later date.

912. In the case of an officer in superior service, who retires before he is 60 years of age, it should be stated in the column for "any other remarks" on the third page of the application for pension whether retirement is compulsory or optional and, when compulsory, the order sanctioning retirement should be quoted and cause of inefficiency specified.

913. (a) A gazetted officer should submit his application through his official superiors and the Audit Officer to the Local Government.

NOTE.—[For the purposes of this Article, Myooks in Burma are treated as gazetted officers.]

(b) The application of a gazetted officer of the classes mentioned in Articles 297 (c), (d), and (e), 654 and 678, whether appointed by the Secretary of State or not, should be prepared in Form 26. In the case of other gazetted officers the application should be prepared in Form 25 either by the officer himself or by the head of his department; and the rules in Article 910 apply, save that it is not necessary, if all the service has been gazetted, to have the service formally verified before forwarding the application.

Submission to Government.

914. (a) The last officer through whom the application passes should send it to the Audit Officer, who will (after verifying the service in the manner prescribed in Article 908 or satisfying himself that it has already been so verified) submit the application to the Local Government with a report upon the claim for pension and the rules applicable to the case.

In the case of officers whose service has been partly gazetted and partly non-gazetted, the verification statement prepared in the Audit office should be attached to the application on its submission to the Local Government.

(b) The Audit Officer will also certify the correctness of the calculations of service and of pension, and retain the last-pay certificate (Article 910) unless the pension is to be paid in another circle of audit, in which case he will forward the certificate to the Audit Officer of that circle, along with a copy of the order sanctioning the pension.

1. If the case is plainly incorrect or incomplete, the Audit Officer should return it for correction or explanation.

2. In the column of Form 25 reserved on the second page for the remarks of the Audit Officer, or in his certificate and report on the third page of Form 26, he should note briefly his reasons for disallowing any service claimed, and his explanation of any apparent discrepancies, and the like.

3. The Audit Officer should always call special attention to Article 470 in his report of the amount of pension admissible.

Premature Applications.

915. (a) The Government of India is ordinarily unwilling to pass orders on questions affecting the pension of an officer until he actually retires, because their premature discussion occupies valuable time almost always to no purpose, and uselessly.

(b) Accordingly, no question about the pension of an officer who has not retired from the public service should be submitted either to the Local Government, or by the Local Government to the Government of India, unless there are special reasons (which should always be set forth) for a departure from the general rule. The mere desire of an officer for a decision upon some doubtful abstract questions affecting his prospects does not justify public correspondence on his behalf. But this rule should not be read as prohibiting the consideration until an officer retires or is about to retire, of a proposal to condone a break in his service.

916. Except under orders from the Government of India or the Local Government, an Audit Officer should, as a rule, decline to advise upon any questions connected with the claim of an officer to pension until he retires or is about to retire. Memorials which relate to such questions addressed prematurely to the Secretary of State are uniformly returned.

917. Articles 915 and 916 do not prohibit the submission of a preliminary application for pension [see Article 907 (b)] on behalf of an officer intending to retire immediately, while he is still in employ.

Section II.—Powers of Sanction.

918. A pension which is certified by the responsible Audit Officer to be clearly and strictly admissible under rule may be sanctioned,

(a) in any case, by the Local Government,

(b) in the case of non-gazetted officers, by the officer who has the authority to fill the appointment vacated by the retiring officer.

919 to 920.—Cancelled.

921 —(See Appendix I, Part II, Entry 40)

922. Should the amount granted to an officer be afterwards found to be in excess of that to which he is entitled under the Regulations, he will be called upon to refund such excess.

923. (a) If any interpretation of the rules is involved, or if any indulgence not provided for by the rules is proposed, the Local Government should submit the case, with its opinion and recommendation, to the Government of India in the Administrative Department concerned

NOTE.—[In respect to such recommendations, see orders printed as Appendix 9]

(b) Until the orders of the Government of India are received, a recommendation for any special indulgence should never be communicated, directly or indirectly to the officer concerned.

PART X.

(c) The Government of Madras and Bombay should, upon questions of pension, communicate with the Secretary of State, through the Government of India.

(d) An application in Form 25 or 22, as the case may be, should accompany every special recommendation made under this Article.

924. (a) Pensions in excess of the amounts admissible under these Regulations, or involving any relaxation of rule, require the sanction of the Secretary of State

NOTE.—[See Note under clause (a) of the preceding Article]

(b) The Government of India have, however, been authorised to grant pensions up to a limit of Rs 10 a month or gratuities not exceeding the equivalent value of that amount, without reference to the Secretary of State, in any case, even where no pension or gratuity is admissible under rule, provided that the general spirit of the Regulations is observed.

(c) When special circumstances appear to justify a departure from the rules laid down regarding "ordinary pensions" to Civil officers, it is generally desirable that the allowance granted should be an arbitrarily fixed sum, rather than any exact proportion of the amount to which it might be supposed that the rules afford a claim.

Section III.—Anticipatory Pensions.

925. (a) When an officer whose pension is payable in India retires before the necessary enquiries preliminary to the settlement of the amount of his pension can be completed, the Audit Officer may, upon a declaration, as follows, by the officer, sanction the immediate disbursement of the pension to which, after the most careful summary investigation that he can make without delay, he believes the officer likely to be entitled.

Declaration—Whereas the (here state the designation of the officer sanctioning the advance) has consented to advance to me the sum of Rs _____ enquiries, and I promise to have no objection to such revision on the ground that the provisional pension now to be paid to me exceeds the pension to which I may be eventually found entitled I further promise to repay any amount advanced to me in excess of the pension to which I may be eventually found entitled

(b) If the Audit Officer thinks it likely that the officer would be found entitled to a gratuity only, one-sixth of the amount of such probable gratuity may, upon a similar declaration, be disbursed to him monthly until the amount is finally settled

(c) The settlement of such provisional payments should be made so as to admit of their disbursement not later than one month after the officer has ceased to hold his post.

(d) When the sanction under this Article is given by an Audit Officer other than the Accountant-General, he shall send a copy of his order to the Accountant-General, for the issue of the requisite orders for disbursement from the treasury concerned.

926. When an officer whose pension is payable in England retires before the necessary enquiries preliminary to the settlement of the amount of his pension can be completed, the Audit Officer, if he sees reason to believe that there will be delay before the pension can be finally sanctioned, should, after the most careful summary investigation that he can make without delay, report to the authority who will sanction the pension, the minimum amount to which he believes the officer to be entitled. This report should be forwarded at once to the India Office by the Local Government by which the pension will in due course be sanctioned. The India Office will then, on receiving from the officer a declaration similar to that in Article 925, at discretion, sanction the immediate disbursement of the amount of pension reported to be the minimum likely to be admissible, or such smaller amount as may be deemed proper. The final pension certificate in due form should follow the provisional certificate with the least possible delay.

927. (a) If, upon the completion of the regular investigation, it be found that the pension thus summarily assigned differs from the pension finally settled, the difference must be adjusted in the first subsequent payments.

(b) Provided that, if a gratuity summarily assigned under Article 925 proves to be larger than the amount found actually due upon completion of the enquiries, the officer shall not be required to refund any excess actually paid to him, except as provided in Chapter XXI.

928. (a) To enable the Audit Officer to exercise the jurisdiction thus entrusted to him, the head of the office or department from which the officer is removed should furnish to the Audit Officer, as soon as possible, after it becomes known to him that the officer must retire, and without waiting for his actual retirement, the fullest information that can be obtained regarding the officer's service, without correspondence which must cause delay.

(b) This information is to be furnished in anticipation of the regular investigation required by Article 908 or 909, which also should on no account be delayed until the officer has actually retired.

929. All officers should bear in mind that delay in the payment of pensions may involve peculiar hardship, and everything should be done to prevent, or shorten to the utmost, such delays.

Chapter XLVIII.—Payment of Pensions.

Section I—General Rules.

930. Apart from special orders, a pension, other than a Wound or Extraordinary pension under Part VI, is payable from the date on which the pensioner ceased to be borne on the establishment, or from the date of his application, whichever is later. The object of this latter alternative is to prevent unnecessary delay in the submission of applications. The rule may be relaxed, in this particular, by the authority sanctioning the pension when the delay is sufficiently explained.

PART X.

1. The pension of an officer who, under Article 436, has received a gratuity in lieu of notice, is not payable for the period in respect of which the gratuity is paid.

931. The preceding Article applies to ordinary, not to special, cases. If, under special circumstances, a pension is granted long after an officer has retired, retrospective effect should not be given to it without the special orders of the Government which granted it; in the absence of special orders such a pension takes effect only from the date of sanction.

932. In cases where considerable delay has occurred in making application for a Wound or Injury pension, it will be granted only from the date of the report by the Medical Board, and no application for a gratuity or pension will be entertained unless submitted within five years of the date of the wound or injury.

933. When a pension is stated in Rupees, it is payable at any treasury in India; or, at the pensioner's option, at the Home treasury.

... drawn at or through the Home exchange from time to time between the British and Indian Governments subject to the condition that in the case of persons resident in any country in which the Indian Government rupee is not legal tender, 1s 9d the rupee is fixed as the minimum rate at which the conversion into sterling shall be effected. The same rate of exchange applies to the issue of gratuities to persons residing in any country in which the rupee is not legal tender; but when the service of an officer to whom a gratuity is granted terminates in India, the gratuity should be paid in India.

NOTE 1—[Ordinarily, a pensioner who has been residing in India or other country in which the Indian Government rupee is legal tender, and who proceeds to a country in which the rupee is not legal tender is entitled to draw his pension from or through the Home treasury at the minimum rate of 1s 9d the rupee from the date only when he quitted the former country. But a pensioner who leaves India within six months of his retirement and proceeds to a country in which the rupee is not legal tender is entitled to draw his pension from or through the Home treasury at the minimum rate of 1s 9d the rupee from the date to which it has been paid in India, or if no payment has been made there, from the date of its commencement.]

... minimum rate of 1s 9d under and continues to that minimum rate for

NOTE 3—[In the event of a case arising which appears not to be covered by the foregoing rules, reference must be made to the Secretary of State.]

935. The rule in Article 934 applies to an officer under covenant who is entitled by his covenant to pension; the covenanted rate of exchange for his pay and allowances does not, unless it is expressly so stated, apply to his pension.

Transfers between England and India.

936. Transfer of a pension from an Indian treasury to the Home treasury and vice versa is permitted within reasonable limits whenever desired.

NOTE.—[Frequent transfers of a pension to and from are not permissible, and the Accountant-General concerned should report to the Government of India, for special orders, any case in which it appears to him that undue advantage is being taken of the rule.]

937. Application for transfer of payment from India to the Home treasury should be made to the Accountant-General within whose jurisdiction the treasury of payment is, who will grant a last-pay certificate, forwarding a duplicate, with copy of the first page of the application upon which the pension was originally granted, to the India Office.

Section II.—Payment in India.

938. (a) The order granting a pension to be paid in India should be forwarded with a copy of the first page of the application in Form 25 or 26, or of the whole application if in Form 22, to the Audit Officer who submitted the application. He should compare the order with his report and then forward a copy thereof to the Accountant-General of the Province in which payment is to be made.

(b) In the case of persons for whom the forms referred to in clause (a) are not used, the information required for the Pension Payment Order should be communicated in a separate letter to the Accountant-General of the Province where payment is to be made.

(c) In the case of pensions to police officers on pay not exceeding Rs. 20 sanctioned under entry No. 40 of Appendix I, Part II, the order should be forwarded to the audit officer who would have reported on the claim had his certificate not been dispensed with. He will exercise the necessary check with reference to Article 922 and endorse it as in clause (a) above.

939. The Accountant-General of the Province in which payment is to be made will then communicate to the officer who is to pay the pension, authority to make the payment, in the case of a pension, such authority will be a Pension Payment Order in Form 27 or 28.

NOTE.—[Form 27 may not be used for pensions chargeable to Local Funds other than those sanctioned by the Government of India (see Article 800) or Native States. The Government of India indicates the form to be followed when a treasury is in a Native State.]

State

"When such payments on account of pensions are arranged for, the form of payment order should not be the same as that used for pensions payable from Indian Revenues. The order should be of the same kind as the Ordinary Pension Payment Order, but should be clearly distinguished in form."

Procedure in paying.

940. A gratuity is paid in a single sum, and not by instalments, on receipt of the Accountant-General's authority.

941. A gratuity may, at the discretion of the Government of India, or with the sanction of the Government of India, on the application of the recipient, be converted either into a life annuity, or into a temporary life annuity, or into an annuity payable for a fixed number of years with remainder to the annuitant's heirs in case of his death. The amount of the life annuity or temporary life annuity will be determined by Table A printed in Appendix 10

942. The Government of India will never insist on the conversion of a gratuity into an annuity, unless the expectation of life of the officer be reported by competent medical authority to be equal to the average.

943. A pension is payable in India monthly on and after the first day of the following month under the following rules:—

No. 343.

Identification of Pensioner.

944 As a rule a pensioner must take payment in person after identification by comparison with the Pension Payment Order.

NOTE.—[Officers of the classes mentioned in Articles 297 (c), (d) and (e), 654 and 678, whether appointed by the Secretary of State or not, are, when pensioned, paid on payment orders in Form 29 which do not contain a full description of the payee. In case of doubt, if such a pensioner is not known to the paying officer, he may be required to produce a life certificate or other evidence of identity.]

945. A pensioner specially exempted by the Local Government from personal appearance, a female pensioner not accustomed to appear in public, or a male pensioner who is unable to appear in consequence of bodily illness or infirmity, may receive his or her pension upon the production of a life certificate signed by a responsible officer of Government or by some other well-known and trustworthy person.

NOTE.—[The power to grant exemption under this Article from personal appearance to draw pension may be delegated by a Local Government to any officer of not lower rank than Collector of a District.]

946 A pensioner of any description who produces a life certificate signed by some person exercising the powers of a Magistrate under the Criminal Procedure Code, or by any Registrar or Sub-Registrar under the Registration Act, or by any pensioned officer who, before retirement exercised the powers of a Magistrate, or by a Chaplain, or any gazetted officer of Government or any person holding a Government title, is also exempted from personal appearance.

947. (a) In all cases referred to in Articles 945 and 946, the Disbursing Officer must take precautions to prevent impositions, and must, at least once a year, require proof independent of that furnished by the life certificate of the continued existence of the pensioner.

(b) For this purpose he should (save in cases of exemption from personal appearance granted by the Local Government) require the personal attendance and due identification of all male pensioners who are not incapacitated by bodily illness or infirmity from so attending, and in all cases where such inability may be alleged, he should require proof thereof in addition to the proof submitted of the pensioner's existence.

1. The Disbursing Officer is personally responsible for any payment wrongly made. In case of doubt, he should consult the Accountant-General.

2. A pensioner of rank may be privately identified by the Disbursing Officer and need not be required to appear at a public office.

948. Payment of pensions to Police pensioners are made in accordance with the rules in this Section, but if the Disbursing Officer entertains any doubt as to the identity of such a pensioner, he may require the local Inspector of Police to identify him. The Inspector would then be responsible for the correct identification of the pensioner.

Payment to Agents.

949. (a) A pensioner not resident in India may draw his pension at any treasury in India through a duly authorised agent, who must either produce a certificate by a Magistrate, a Notary, a Banker, or a Minister of religion, on each occasion, that the pensioner was alive on the date to which his pension is claimed, or execute a bond to refund over-payments, and produce such a certificate as aforesaid at least once a year.

(b) The pension of such an officer should not be paid on account of more than a year after the date of the life certificate last received, and the Accountant General should be on the watch for authentic information of the decease of any such pensioner, and on receipt thereof, should promptly forbid further payments.

Transfers in India.

950. A Local Government or an Accountant-General may, on application and on sufficient cause being shown, permit transfer of payment from one treasury in India to another. This jurisdiction may be delegated by the Local Government to Commissioners of Divisions, or to any higher executive authority.

951. (a) A copy of any order issued by a Local Government or other executive authority under the preceding Article, should be forwarded to the Accountant-General, and the Collector of the District from which the payment is to be transferred should be instructed to return his half of the Pension Payment Order.

(b) The Accountant-General will then either issue a new payment order, or enface the payment order for payment at the new treasury, and forward it to the Treasury Officer, who will, in future, pay the pension, or, if the treasury is in another Province, will move the Accountant-General of that Province to do so.

952. A Collector or other District Officer may authorise payment in any of the outlying treasuries subordinate to his district treasury of a pension payable, under proper authority, at his head-quarters, and may transfer the payment of a pension from such subordinate treasury to the district treasury, or from one subordinate treasury to another in the same district.

Certificate of Non-Employment.

953. (a) A pensioner drawing pension in India is required to append to his bill a certificate as follows:—

No. 325.

Substitute the following for these Articles—

954. When the reverse of a Pension Payment Order is filled up, or when the pensioner's half is found to be worn or torn, both halves may be renewed by the Treasury Officer.

955. If a pensioner loses his half of the Pension Payment Order, a new order may be issued by the Treasury Officer, who should see that no payment is made on the half alleged to be lost by a strict observance of Rule 2 under Article 948. The necessary note should be made in the remarks column of the register in Form 39, Civil Account Code.

(b) But if the arrears do not exceed Rs. 100, and the case presents no peculiar features, the Accountant-General is empowered to pass the arrears on his own authority.

(c) After payment of the arrears of pension, the Pension Payment Order should be returned to the Accountant-General with a report of the date of the death of the pensioner.

960. Subject to the provisions of the preceding Article, the arrears of pension of a deceased pensioner may, if the amount does not exceed Rs. 500, be paid to the heirs of the deceased after such enquiry into the rights and title of the claimants as the Collector or other officer responsible for the payment may deem sufficient. If, however, there is any reasonable doubt in regard to the claim or title of the heirs, or if the amount due exceeds Rs. 500, the payment should be made only to the person duly authorised to receive assets belonging to the estate of the deceased.

961. If an officer dies before actually retiring or being discharged, his heirs have no claim to anything in respect to his pension

Section III.—Payment in England.

962. When a pension is granted to an officer who desires that payment thereof from the date of its commencement should be made at the Home treasury, the Audit Officer, who audits the pay of the officer, should, on receipt of sanction to the grant of pension, issue a last-pay certificate, and forward a duplicate thereof, together with copy of the first page of application for pension and the order of the Local Government granting the pension to the India Office. The forwarding letter should always request that payment be made from some specific date, the date being ascertained from the last-pay certificate.

963. If the pension is not wholly chargeable against the General Revenues, care must be taken to state in the certificate how it is to be charged.

PART XI.—REGULATIONS RELATING TO TRAVELLING ALLOWANCES.

Chapter LI.—Definitions and General Rules.

Section I.—Principles of Calculation.

995. Travelling allowance is given to an officer to cover the actual travelling expenses incurred by him in travelling in the interests of the public service. It is a fundamental principle that the allowance is not to be a source of profit, and, save as specially provided in these Regulations, no allowances are granted to meet the expenses of the families of officers accompanying them when travelling on duty.

Route for calculation of Travelling Allowance.

996. (a) For the purpose of calculating travelling allowance, a journey between two stations is held to be performed by the shortest of two or more practicable routes, or by the cheapest of such routes as may be equally short.

NOTE.—[Where there are alternative railway routes, and the difference between them in point of time and cost is not great, travelling allowance should be allowed for the route actually used.]

(b) The shortest route is that by which the traveller can most speedily reach his destination by the ordinary modes of travelling. In case of doubt the Head of the Department concerned will, in respect of journeys within his jurisdiction performed by officers under his control, declare which shall be regarded as the shortest of two or more routes.

(c) If an officer travels by a route which is not the shortest, but which is cheaper than the shortest, his travelling allowance is calculated by the route by which he makes the journey.

997. The Local Government, or the Head of the Department in the case of journeys within his jurisdiction performed by officers under his control, for special recorded reasons, may permit travelling allowance to be calculated by a route other than the shortest or cheapest, provided that the journey is actually performed by such route.

NOTE.—[In the case of journeys between stations which are in the jurisdiction of different Local Governments, heads of departments under whose orders transfers are made from one Province to another may exercise the powers of a Local Government under Articles 996 and 997.]

998. The point in any station from which a journey is held to commence, or at which it is held to end, is the chief public office or any other point fixed for the purpose by the Local Government.

NOTE.—[See Note under Article 1065 (u) (i)]

When means of locomotion are supplied.

999. An officer who is provided with and avails himself of the means of locomotion at the expense of the State or of Local Funds, either—

- (i) may draw half the travelling allowance ordinarily admissible to him for a journey of the same kind, or
- (ii) is subject to the deduction from his travelling allowance of such fixed hire or charge as the Local Government or the Head of an Imperial Department in respect of journeys within his jurisdiction performed by officers appointed by him and under his control, may by any general rules determine.

NOTE.—[The case of an officer who is supplied with a boat or carriage, but who pays all expenses of its use or propulsion, does not fall within clause (i) of this Article: in such cases a fixed hire under clause (ii) may be charged.]

1. This Article does not apply to—

(a) Officers of the fourth class.

- (b) (i) Gazetted Officers and Rangers of the Forest Department serving in the Sunderbans Division.
- (ii) Certain officers and their establishments in Aden and in Persia and the Persian Gulf as detailed in the Manuals of the Audit officers concerned.

Are entitled to half the daily allowance ordinarily admissible.

(c) When travelling by steamer supplied at the expense of the State—

- (i) The Executive Engineer, Eastern Nara, and his establishments.
- (ii) The establishment accompanying the Commissioner in Sind, the Deputy Commissioner, Upper Sind Frontier, and the Superintending Engineer, Sind.

Provided a certificate is furnished by the officer concerned that complete camp equipage was maintained throughout the period occupied by the journey.

(iii) Officers and subordinates of the Irrigation Department in Sind. These officers draw ordinary travelling allowances subject to the following conditions, namely,—

- (1) that the officer concerned, or, if he be of lower rank than an Executive Engineer, the Executive Engineer, certifies that complete camp equipage was maintained throughout the journey, and
- (2) that mileage allowance cannot be drawn in lieu of daily allowance for journeys over twenty miles by steamer or partly by steamer and partly by road, unless the portion of the journey performed by road exceeds twenty miles, when mileage should be calculated on the road journey only.

Substitute the following for Rule 1(h) under this Article :—

- (A) Officers using motor cars, motor-boats or motor-cycles supplied by Government or a Local Fund. These officers draw half the daily allowance ordinarily admissible, and are not entitled to exchange the daily rate for mileage under Article 1065.

In the case of officers who draw fixed travelling allowance, a deduction of Rs. 3 shall be made for every day on which they travel in motor-cars or motor-boats provided from General Revenues or Local Funds.

If a journey by motor-car, motor-boat or motor-cycle provided by Government or a Local Fund is combined with a road journey by ordinary conveyance, the officer so travelling may at his option draw either (1) the full daily allowance admissible under Article 1063; or (2) if the journey by ordinary conveyance exceeds 20 miles, the mileage allowance admissible under Articles 1034-1037. No extra allowance will in either case be drawn on account of the journey by motor-car, motor-boat or motor-cycle as the case may be.

(5th Edition, No. 205, dated 9-10-11)

... 20 miles, extra allowance will in either case be drawn on account of the journey by motor-car.

- (i) Officers of the Salt Department in Bengal when travelling by steamers or boats provided by Government. These officers draw daily allowance at ordinary rates, not subject to increase under Article 1140, but no mileage.
- (j) Chauffeurs of motor-cars supplied by Government or a Local Fund, when performing road journeys on motor-cars in their charge, and involving an absence of not less than one night from head quarters. In such cases, they will draw half the daily allowance ordinarily admissible to officers of their class (Articles 1002 and 1063), subject to a minimum of 6 annas in the Bombay Presidency and 4 annas elsewhere. The daily allowance is not exchangeable for mileage under Article 1065

2 Table-money under Article 1002 is payable to ...

Camp Equipment and Horses.

1000. When the Local Government is satisfied that it is in the interests of the public service that an officer required to travel on public duty should send his horses, camels, motor-cars, motor-cycles, bicycles, or camp equipment by railway or steamer or, in Burma, send his horses, by a vessel other than a mer, it may, by special order in each case, permit him to recover, in addition to his authorised travelling allowance, the actual cost of their carriage, including, whether separately charged for or not, the cost of conveyance of one syce and one grass-cutter for each horse.

NOTE.—[An officer in receipt of a permanent monthly travelling allowance is not entitled to the privilege of this Article.]

1001. The Local Government may prescribe such limitation as it thinks fit regarding the maximum weight of camp equipment and number of horses to be carried by an officer of any class or department, and may, subject to such limitations, delegate its power of sanction under Article 1000 to any head of a department or controlling or inspecting officer.

Lower subordinates of the United Provinces, Buildings and Roads Branch, when similarly placed in charge of districts or sub-divisions, within the scale referred to above, draw travelling allowance at similar rates. Subordinates and Inspectors of Maintenance of the North-Western and Oudh and Rohilkhand Railways, when placed in charge of sub-divisions, or sub-districts, also draw travelling allowance at the rates admissible to Assistant Engineers.

(d) A lower subordinate placed in charge of a properly constituted sub-division in Bengal or in Burma may be granted the same travelling allowances as an upper subordinate when the necessity for such an arrangement arises in consequence of the paucity or absence of upper subordinates.

* When the journey is more than twenty miles and is made partly by road and partly by trolley the allowances are regulated by Article 1063 (iii)

1020. In cases of doubt or in cases in which, owing to the arrangement of the classes on the steamer, the rules, if construed strictly, involve hardship, the Local Government or the Head of a Department in respect of non-gazetted subordinates, has power to decide what class of accommodation any particular officer should be allowed.

1021. Except as provided in Articles 1000, 1094 (Exception I), and 1098, no more personal luggage can be carried at the expense of the State than the quantity the freight on which is included in the charge for passage.

But the travelling allowance of an officer travelling in a vessel, the crew of which is paid by himself and not by the State or Local Funds, is regulated by Article 999.

Tents.

1042. (a) The Local Government, or the Head of an Imperial Department in respect of his subordinates, is empowered to lay down the scale of Government tents to be supplied for the use on tour of any particular officer or class of officers for office and, if it think fit, private purposes.

(b) When tents which are the property of Government are used only for office purposes by an officer on tour, they are carried at Government expense. When they are used partly for office and partly for private purposes, the officer using them must, save as provided in Article 1000, pay half the cost of carriage. When they are used wholly for private purposes, the officer using them must, unless the case is met by Article 1000, pay the whole cost of carriages.

Section II.—Permanent Allowances.

1044. A permanent monthly travelling allowance is granted in lieu of all other travelling allowances for journeys within an officer's circle of duty, and is drawn all the year round, whether the officer entitled to it is at the time absent from his head-quarters or not. Officers in receipt of such an allowance should deduct from the amount drawn each month, the value of the fares for any railway journeys for which they have used a free pass during the month.

Exceptions—The following officers who draw permanent monthly travelling allowance may draw single fare for a journey by rail in addition:—

(a) District Inspectors of Excise in the Central Provinces, provided the Deputy Commissioner certifies that the journey by rail was necessary and that the Inspector has duly earned the monthly allowance

(b) Police Inspectors in Bombay.

(c) District Inspectors of Schools in the Punjab—with the special sanction of the Post Master-General for journeys made by them as Inspectors of School Post Office

(d) Munshis and clerks attached to Canal Divisions of the Public Works Department and Sub-divisional clerks and munshis on the establishment of the Executive Engineer, Kumaun Government Estates, United Provinces.

1045. The Local Government may, either by a general order, applying to a class of officers or by a special order, permit an officer whose circle of duty extends beyond the limits of a single district, to draw, whenever his actual travelling expenses for a duly authorised journey on duty by public conveyance exceed double the amount of his permanent allowance for the period occupied in such journey, the difference between such double permanent allowance and the allowances admissible under Chapter LII in addition to his ordinary permanent allowance for such period.

1046. An officer in receipt of a permanent monthly allowance may, when proceeding, under proper authority, beyond his jurisdiction, exchange his permanent allowance for the entire journey, including such part of it as is within his jurisdiction, for the allowances admissible under Article 1065, the daily allowance being taken to be one-thirtieth of the permanent monthly allowance.

1047. A permanent monthly allowance cannot be drawn during absence on leave, or during joining time, or for any period for which travelling allowance of any other kind is drawn. But save as provided in this Article a permanent allowance may, at the option of the officer receiving it, be drawn in lieu of any other travelling allowances admissible under these Regulations.

1048. Permanent monthly allowances are granted to the officers named in Appendix 22 at the rates shown therein.

Additions to this Appendix can be made only with the sanction of the Government of India.

1049. (a) The Local Government may grant to a Forest officer, in lieu of other travelling allowance, a permanent allowance, according to the following scale:—

	Rs.
To an officer in charge of a circle	150 a month.
To an officer in charge of a division—
(i) If a member of the Imperial Forest Service or an Extra Deputy Conservator	100 "
(ii) If an Extra Assistant Conservator or a probationer for the Provincial Forest Service	75 "
(iii) If below the rank of Extra Assistant Conservator	50 "

(b) Where a charge is specially extensive, or travelling is unusually costly, the above scale may be increased, with the previous sanction of the Government of India, by twenty-five or fifty per cent.

1050. Conservators of Forests in Madras may grant a Forester not in charge of a Range a permanent monthly travelling allowance not exceeding Rs. 8.

1051. Munshis and clerks attached to Canal Divisions of the Public Works Department and sub-divisional clerks and munshis on the establishment of the Executive Engineer, Kumaun Government Estates, United Provinces, who are liable to be at any time required to go on tour, may, at the option of the Local Government, be granted a permanent monthly allowance of Rs. 10, in lieu of all other travelling allowance.

NOTE.—[Munshis and clerks stationed beyond the external boundaries of the Hazara, Peshawar, Kohat, Dera Ismail Khan or Dera Ghazi Khan districts, receive a permanent monthly allowance of Rs. 15, with the sanction of the Local Government in each case.]

Section III.—Daily Allowances—Conditions.

1052. (a) A daily allowance is intended to cover the ordinary daily charges of an officer on tour; it is drawn only during absence from head-quarters on Similar exemptions, subject to the same conditions, may be granted in individual cases up to a limit of 30 days by Imperial Heads of Departments and Provincial Heads of Departments, Commissioners of Divisions, Settlement Commissioners, and Superintending Engineers to whom the Local Government may delegate authority for this purpose.

It is open to the authority sanctioning the exemption to lay down any limits or conditions, which it may think fit to impose; for instance, when an exemption is made under this Article, the full daily allowance admissible under rule may be reduced by such an amount, and may be granted for such number of days, as the sanctioning authority may deem proper in each case.

AS AMENDED.

1059. (a) A Local Government may, by general or special order, permit any officer or class of officers to draw, during a halt at head-quarters, the actual expense (not exceeding the daily allowance) of keeping up camp equipage (when it is necessary to do so) during a halt: provided such actual expense may not be drawn for a longer period than twenty-one days in Sind or Rajputana, and ten days in other places.

Explanation.—A halt is not interrupted for the purpose of this rule by an absence on duty from the place of halting for less than three nights.

(b) An officer drawing an allowance under this Article, for a halt at head-quarters, must certify that he has during such period kept up the whole or part of his camp equipage, and that the expense so incurred is not less than the halting allowance drawn. In the case of a non-gazetted or menial officer the head of the office must also certify that it was necessary for such officer to keep up the whole or a part of his camp equipage as the case may be.

(b) The Local Government may delegate its power under this Article to the head of a department.

1062. An officer entitled to daily allowance, whose jurisdiction extends over a whole province, may, when making a journey of over a hundred miles to the first and from the last camp of a tour, in lieu of the daily allowance admissible for the days occupied by such journey, recover the whole necessary expenditure incurred thereupon, including the conveyance of camp equipment, servants horses, motor-cars, motor-cycles, bicycles and private baggage. The number of servants, horses, motor-cars, motor-cycles, bicycles and the quantity of private baggage to be thus charged for should be fixed by the Local Government.
